Miss Jones Entertained At Event Thursday

Miss Paula Jones, bride-elect, was entertained at a coffee hour Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Charles Hassell. Hostesses were Mrs. Hassell and her daughter, Mrs. Charles Poindexter of Canton.

Fall flowers were used in arrangements throughout the home. The bridal motif was carried out on the table, which was centered with a miniature bride and groom. Corsages were presented Mrs. Paul Jones, mother of the honoree, and Mrs. Robert E. King, mother of Miss Jones' fiancé. The bride was presented a corsage and a gift of china.

Thirty guests were greeted by the honoree and Mrs. Poindexter. Mrs. Jones poured coffee. Bridal cakes, cheese biscuits, chicken puffs, open face sandwiches, nuts and mints were served.

Police Get in Swim
Columbus, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Highway Patrol, which already operates on land and in the air, is going under water. Supt. Scott B. Radcliffe said a special squad is being trained to recover objects under water.

Sea Pups

er. Hill was called on to kick the extra point but his kick was low.

In the third quarter the Seadogs wasted little time in getting their scoring attack back in gear as they sent halfback Gene Mason on a 45-yard touchdown sprint minutes after the start of the third quarter. Bridgers added the extra point on a plunge over center to run the score to 32-0.

Havelock was forced to kick on the next series of downs but got a bad break when the snap from center sailed over the head of the punter and the Rams had to turn the ball over to the Seapups on their own 15-yard line.

It took fullback Mahlon Williams only one play to put these 15 yards behind him as he hit off tackle and went all the way standing up. Hill's kick for the extra point was again wide leaving the score at 38-0.

Even with reserves playing a large portion of the third and fourth quarters the Seapups were able to score almost at will. Bridgers opened the fourth quarter scoring by taking a sideline pass from Mike Smith, cutting towards midfield and going 50 yards untouched. Hill's kick was again wide of the goal posts.

Leading 44-0 the Seapups ran their score to an even 50 points seconds before the end of the game when Mike Smith lofted his third touchdown pass of the night. This one was taken in by end Jeff Salter and covered 10 yards. Bobby Hill's kick for the 51st point failed.

Next week the Seapups will get their sternest test of the season when they travel to Snow Hill Thursday night to meet the Snow Hill varsity.

COBRA Will Meet 7:30 Tonight in Morehead

The Carteret Outdoor Runabout association will meet at 7:30 tonight at the home of the commodore, Robert Butler, 209 N. 20th street, Morehead City.

Among the business to be discussed is location of a new launching area for next summer. The place now being used on the Beaufort-Morehead causeway will not be available after this year, according to Mr. Butler.

Miss Jones, Mr. King Entertained at Dinner

Miss Paula Jones and Mr. Ward King, who will be married Oct. 15, were honored at a dinner party Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Potter. Hostesses were Mrs. Potter and Mrs. Norwood Young.

White flowers and candles were used throughout the home. Dinner was by candlelight. Sixteen guests attended.

Miss Jones was presented a white corsage and gifts of china.

Fabulous Fishing...

By Bob Simpson

The weekend produced excellent fishing in the surf and from the ocean piers, as well as from the inshore boats. Offshore fishing was slow, with some kings and plenty of false albacore. Sound and river fishing was fair for bottom fish. The regular reef fishing trip of the headboat Danco produced good results.

Boats in the Dolphin fleet had catches up to 5 kings and 6 false albacore; big fish included a 49½-pound wahoo and a record 8-pound 13-ounce spanish mackerel. Mattie G had the top catch of kings, 8, on the Morehead City waterfront, while Harkers Island boat The Kids led the Down East list with 9.

Most sensational surf fishing catch of the weekend was reported back to Hill's Marina, Harkers Island, by Tom Cameron of Raeford, whose party caught 213 flounder and an uncounted number of puppy drum and sea mullet in the surf at Cape Lookout.

Inshore, Herb Owens, Greensboro, fishing from his own boat, caught 80 or 90 blues. Other inshore fishermen reported scattered big kings. W. L. Robertson,

Knights Edge Farmville 8-6

The Queen Street high school Knights scored their first gridiron victory of the year Thursday night when they came from behind in the first half to edge Farmville high school 8-6 in a game played at Farmville.

Farmville had taken a one touch-down lead early in the first quarter when they recovered a Knight fumble inside the 20-yard line and marched to the tally.

The Knights came back in the second quarter, on the strength of some fine running by fullback Al Becton, to move the ball to the Farmville eight. From here half-back Alvin West went into the end zone for the tying six points. Becton then crashed over for the extra points on a two-point tally.

The win now gives the Knights a season record of one win, two losses and a tie. Friday night they will travel to Trenton to play Jones County high school.

Winston-Salem, caught a 7½-pound spanish mackerel aboard Johnny Styron's Sylvia.

On the sound side, Bennet Tyson, Farmville, caught 50 mixed spots, hogfish and sea mullet on either side of the channel near Number 21 buoy, Sherman Husted, Greenville, caught 8 puppy drum, 1½ to 3 pounds, in the Fish-N-Lake.

Oceanside fishing was excellent; only Sportsman, Oceanana and Iron Steamer reported. Fishing for spots, blues and black drum at Oceanana was top-notch. Sportsman Pier had black drum during the day and early evening, and the spots moved in at night, continuing through the early morning. Catches went as high as 400. Night fishing for spots was excellent at Iron Steamer, where they're biting on both shrimp and bloodworms. Pompano continue to be the leading daytime fish, along with plenty of speckled trout, big blues, sea mullet and flounder. Spot catches were reported up to 400 per person.

Russells Creek Church Will Begin Revival

Revival services will begin at the Russells Creek Christian church Wednesday night and will continue through Oct. 16 with services each night at 7:30.

The Rev. Homer Stines of Kingston will be the guest speaker. Special music and congregational singing will be led each night by the pastor, the Rev. William Clifton. Everyone is invited.

Newport Methodist Men Plan Seafood Supper

The Newport Methodist Men's club will sponsor a seafood supper at St. James Methodist church Saturday, beginning at 5 p.m. Present plans are for the supper to be held outdoors, but if the weather is bad it will be held in the educational building.

The men will cook and serve the seafood, according to Raymond Edwards, club member. Tickets are available from any member.

School Code

Waynesboro, Va. (AP)—A new code of student behavior adopted by the school board here turns thumbs down on the wearing of blue jeans and the holding of hands in hallways.

Social Wash
Lockport, N. Y. (AP)—Sociability seems to be a by-product of the self-service laundry. Mr. and Mrs. John Strickland, proprietors of a laundromat, say one customer comes because she does not like to wash at home alone.
