Atlantic Seniors to Give Class Play at 8 Tonight By MARJORIE WEBB

Hi, folks! I'm back again with more news from busy AHS. It seems that the activities will never slow down.

The seniors are presenting their play, Call Me Darling, a three-act comedy, tonight at 7:30 in the school auditorium. Admission is 35 cents and 75 cents. The characters are:

Smitty - Mary Anna Styron; Mary Jane - Annis Willis; Mom Haskins - Jean Bell; Aunt Annie - Mary Jo Moon; Virginia Gregg - Becky Lewis; Pamela Payne - Linda Gaskill; Billy Haskins - Leon (Piggy) Salter; Neeley - Bobby Nelson; Pop Haskins - Danny Harvey; Mrs. J. Francis Hamilton - Jency Mason; Lorelie Hamilton - Kay Harris; Mrs. Chalmers - Dianna Daniels.

Between the second and third acts, the winner of the baby contest sponsored by the Beta club will be crowned. The proceeds will go to the Beta club scholarship, which is given to a deserving senior going to college.

We hope everyone will come. See you tonight!

The juniors ended their magazine sale this week. I understand that Nancy Willis and Eva Gant got a little excited while counting the $500 their class made.

Rena Salter was top salesman. She won a pink and blue poodle and a nervous monkey, both of which she is proudly showing off. Jeffrey Smith came in second and Ray Tallent third.

Sandra Gaskill's team is now busy planning a party for Eva Gant's team, which won. Eva asks that you plan it good!

The Beta club met on Sept. 26. They discussed how to raise money for the Beta club scholarship. One of these ways is the baby contest.

The standards for membership in the Beta club are the same as last year. A student has to get straight 90's for two consecutive grading periods. After you become a member, you have to average 90 on all your subjects.

The officers for this year are Jean Bell—president; Nancy Willis—vice-president and program chairman; Dianna Daniels—corresponding secretary; and Kathleen Honeycutt—recording secretary and treasurer.

The members of the FHA had a picnic Saturday at the Housboat Inn.
