Atlantic High Students Start School Spirit Drive

By MARJORIE WEBB

Hi, peoples! Time has flown by so quickly, but it is always good to be back. Why, students at AHS will be having mid-term exams soon!

Several sophomore girls, with the aid of Miss Tutterow, have decided it is time to get some school spirit. We need this spirit not only for basketball and other sports but also in our clubs, school work, and other activities. We cannot succeed in any of these things without that valuable school spirit and determination which we are now lacking.

Come on, students, and smile, be friendly, and show us your school spirit!

This was also the topic of our Tuesday morning chapel, led by the Rev. Albert Keech of the Sea Level Free Will Baptist church. Certainly everyone enjoyed his talk and here's hoping we will remember and practice it. Mr. Keech is also helping with girls' basketball this year.

Both boys' and girls' basketball teams are now hard at work practicing. Since everyone will be striving to increase school spirit, we should have many loyal supporters. Let's show them our gratitude.

The seniors sold ads for the annual last Thursday. They did well in that they sold $500 dollars worth. Your underclassmen expect an excellent annual this year, seniors.

By the way, the annuals are now being sold. If you want an annual this year, give your dollar deposit to one of the seniors who are acting as salesmen.

The juniors are busy practicing their play, The Bargain Bride. Jimmy Smith will be played by Marshall Daniels, Minnie Peterson by Eva Gant, Hosanna Sugg by Julia Pittman, Rex Dorner by Robert Brittingham, Mrs. Florabella Izby by Sheila Custis.

Windy Hill by Emma Morris, Cissie Trent by Ellen Salter, Miss Anna Ormy by Nancy Willis, Miss Thompkins by Sandra Gaskill and Mrs. James Smith by Rena Satter.

The FHA met Friday. The meeting was called to order by the president and the officers and members recited their creed. The FHA prayer song followed. Nancy Day gave the treasurer's report and read the minutes of the meeting held Sept. 23.

Elizabeth LeMay was named chairman of the decorating committee. This committee, working with other FHA'ers, will suggest improvements in the home ce department. This is one of the club's projects for the year.

Annette Robinson had prepared a skit on the origin of Halloween. This was presented by Eva Gant, Elizabeth LeMay, and Gloria Parker. Eva Gant then reported on the club's trip to the FHA rally in Goldsboro. The meeting was adjourned.

The freshmen, sophomores, and juniors are grateful to the PTA and the 4-H club for the new walk behind the school. Our shoes say "thank you" also.

Miss Senior

Miss Senior is from Cedar Island and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Day. She is 17-year-old Agatha Patricia Day. She is better known as Gay.

Agatha has dark brown hair and brown eyes. Since her birth on April 18, 1943, she has grown to a full 5 feet 6 1/2 inches and weighs 112. She is a member of the Methodist church.

Agatha's favorite song is Blue Angel and her favorite singer is Connie Francis. Even though she likes English best, her favorite teacher is Mrs. Elsie Salter. From movie land she prefers Debbie Reynolds and Rock Hudson.

Tuna fish salad is Agatha's favorite dish, writing letters her hobby and listening to the radio her pastime. She likes best to recall Feb. 27, 1960, but she must not like speech and dramatics since this subject is her pet peeve.

Most likely one will hear Agatha say "Dopy." Her activities in high school include 4-H, FHA, and glee club. She plans to seek employment after graduation. Good luck, Gay!

Chit Chat

Craig and Riley, who are you fighting over? Is it M. P.? Didn't I would let the word out, did you?

By the way, folks, if you are puzzled as to a present for Craig and Riley, don't forget face powder. They love it.

Marshall, what will you order from Florida?

Does a bear do what, Sheila? "Smile everyone!" says Gloria. Girls, I'm glad you like the strange man around school so much.

Morehead City Students Take Kennedy in Election

By MARY PHILLIPS

Hi gang! Friday, Oct. 28, MCHS really became political-minded, and staged a great big rally in the auditorium! The students were allowed to make banners, signs, and posters to illustrate the candidate of their choice.

Honestly, I've never seen so many signs in my life! There were so many that they had to be lowered to enable the students to see the speakers. A number of members of the government class gave talks on the different candidates, the important issues in this election, and really were informative.

We had several dignitaries from the county to come and see democracy in action among the voters of tomorrow. I am sure that they profited by it every bit as much as we did. After the rally, the students went back upstairs to vote. The voting was handled by the student council, as to distributing the ballots, taking them up, and finally counting them.

While they were being counted, everyone waited anxiously for the outcome. Who would be the next president if it were to be determined by MCHS students?

Kennedy, that's who! When the results were announced, cheers were sent up into the air by the winning voters, while the losers suppressed groans of anguish!

Also, Friday night was our Halloween carnival. How many of you had stomach-aches later that night? If you didn't, it's a wonder! My land! There were candy apples, hot dogs, hamburgers, drinks, barbecue, ham, fudge, cakes, and just all kinds of good things to eat!!!

Besides things to eat, there were amusements of all types! The one that went over best was the spooky Hall of Horrors, by Mrs. Shine's 11th grade homeroom. Those brave souls who ventured into its domain were heard screaming as they went through indescribable "horror". It really was put on with skill.

The carnival was thoroughly enjoyed by all who participated, either by working on it or by attending it.

Can you imagine Mrs. Dowdy using bad English? Not having enough homework? Lynette McBride blowing her "whistle" softly? Mrs. Baily not having her glass of water?

Our Miss Senior this week is a gal we've all come to know well since school started this year. Of course I'm talking about Linda Kay Wade. Her proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Wade, with whom she resides on Midyette Ave. in Mitchell Village. She arrived on Dec. 18, 1942, and is 17 years of age.

Linda is an attractive girl with brown hair and brown eyes. She is 5'8" tall, and weighs 115 lbs. As her favorites, she prefers: subject, French II; teacher, Mrs. Baily; food, cheeseburgers; song, Across the Wide Missouri; singer, The Kingston Trio. As for spending her spare time, she most enjoys being with Gilbert. As a hobby she collects Kingston Trio albums. (By the way, isn't she the girl that walks around singing their songs all the time?)

As she has just recently moved here, I will give her activities while at high school in High Point, N. C. She was a member of Y-Teens, the chorus, and was also an office assistant. She is, at present, (hasn't transferred membership yet) a member of the Green St. Baptist church in High Point. Her pet peeve is Patsy Nelson.

In the future, Linda plans to study to be a secretary at High Point college.

Mr. Senior is a guy that really doesn't look like a senior at all. He is none other than James Davis Terrell. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Terrell, with whom he lives at 2701 Arendell St. He blew in on the 21st of March, 1943, and is 17 years old.

Jimmy is as "cute as a mullet" (trite expression, you know) with "dirty" blonde hair and blue eyes. He stands 5'7" tall, and weighs in at 120 lbs. For favorites, Jimmy likes: subject, algebra; teacher, Mrs. Baily; food, oysters; song, likes them all; singer, Bing Crosby. He spends most of his spare time bumming around with Noven and Vic. As hobbies Jimmy enjoys a variety, some being sports, music and electronics.

While in high school, Jimmy has made himself well-known by all. Among his activities may be found the Beta club, student council, dixie katz, debating team, and boys' state. He is a member of the First Baptist church. His pet peeve is for people to call him "Nikita." (Wonder who started that, Mr. Lee?)

In his plans for the future, Jimmy has included going to State

Sophomore Wins Title; We Meet MCHS Tonight

By GINNY LEWIS

Friday at 2 o'clock a colorful homecoming parade proceeded down town. The parade consisted of floats, bands, clowns, majorettes, Miss Seadog contestants, and even decorated bicycles and pets.

The junior class contestant was crowned Miss Seadog. She is Beverly Willis. They also won the prize for the best float. It was titled Conference Graveyard. It had small tombstones on it with the scores of the previous games and showed a Beaufort player burying an Ayden player to symbolize a victory for us.

Too bad this did not come to pass. We didn't beat Ayden, but we didn't lose to them either. We lost the conference championship. There is little doubt in our minds that we didn't out-play them, but such is fate. A team can not remain on top all the time the only way to go after being on top is down. But not necessarily to the bottom.

On the field Friday our boys proved to be gentlemen as well college to study electrical engineering. Best of luck, Jimmy!

Do you know Who Betsy S. seems to be interested in?

A certain disbelieving girl in Beaufort with a stomped hat? The football players' new "cheer"?

What happened in government class Friday afternoon?

What the latest model "wrecked" car is? (How about telling us, Gordy?)

as good sports and that is really most important.

But the season is not over, tonight we will try to keep another important trophy that we won last year, the Mullet Bucket. Well so much for sports. I'll see you at the game.

The senior class is coming right along with their plays. Everyone be sure to attend them. You'll really miss something if you don't. They are scheduled for Wednesday November 9, the day after elections.

So if for no other reason, you can go to the plays and discuss the election returns.

On April 28, 1943, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dudley received a small bundle of joy and Cynthia, better known as Lou, hasn't changed much since then. She has brown hair and blue eyes, stands 5 feet 1 inch tall and weighs all of 98 pounds.

Save the Last Dance for Me is her favorite song and her favorite singers are Nat (King) Cole and Dinah Washington. You would never guess it but Lou likes all foods. She also likes to do things she shouldn't.

Her pet peeve is people who talk too much and her favorite saying is "finesse it!" She also enjoys traveling, preferably to Raleigh.

Lou's four years in high school is her memorable event. While in high school she has participated in the following: FHA, PTA, Latin club, Glee club, student council, basketball, senior play, office assistant, and Library club.

After school she plans to go to ECC, although state seems nicer to her.

Jerry Kenneth Gillikin, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Gillikin, is this week's Mr. Senior. He was born on Sept. 10, 1945, has brown hair and hazel eyes, stands 6 feet 1 inch tall, and weighs 195 pounds.

Please, Mr. Custer is Jerry's favorite song and chicken is his favorite food. His pet peeve is school but he does like math and football. He also enjoys hunting.

While in school he has played football and been in the Varsity club.

After school he plans to join the Air Force.

Mormon leader Brigham Young asked his followers to work for themselves, that "I do not feel disposed to ask the Lord to do for me what I can do for myself."
