

Anglers in Carteret Waters Cop State Fishing Prizes

Six first place winners this year in the North Carolina Salt Water Sport Fishing association contest took their prize fish in Carteret waters.

Ten other winners in the contest also made their catches in Carteret. Trophies will be presented at a banquet Friday, Dec. 2, at Washington, N. C.

Kenneth Newsom, Morehead City, commodore of Fabulous Fishing, said that many other fish caught here would have been winners but the boats or piers from which the catches were made were not members of the Salt Water Sport Fishing association.

For instance, a blue marlin weighing 554 pounds was caught from a Morehead City boat, but it was not eligible for competition because the boat owner was not a member of the state association.

As a result, a 528-pound blue marlin caught in Oregon Inlet topped first place.

Carteret-caught fish and their winners: first prize, 93½ lb. tarpon caught by David McAlister, route 1 Biscoe; first, 51 lb. black drum caught by H. M. Stegall, Durham; second, 38 lb. king mackerel by Robert J. Thornbergh, Cherry Point; honorable mention, 14 lb. 2 oz. false albacore by E. C. Tavarso, Greenville; second, 2 lb. 7½ oz. pompano by R. F. Pogue, Wilson.

First, 5 lb. 8 oz. trout by Henry Edwards, Bayboro; second, 4 lb. 6 oz. sheepshead by F. G. McGlohon, Ayden; first, 6 lb. flounder by W. R. Lambert, Greensboro; second, 3½ lb. flounder by Thelma Lambert, Biscoe.

All the foregoing were caught from Thompson's pier, Emerald Isle.

First, 63¼ lb. wahoo by J. W. Black, Winston-Salem, from the Dolphin, Morehead City; first, 45½ lb. king mackerel by Harry E. Browning, Plymouth, Hill's Motel-Marina, Harkers Island.

Second, 2 lb. 3 oz. trout by Ed Yoshida, Cherry Point; first, 5 lb. 14 oz. sheepshead by J. B. Johnson, Cary; first, 2 lb. 5 oz. whiting by Larry Murray, Cherry Point; second, 1 lb. 15 oz. whiting by Jasper King, Wilson; 15½ oz. hogfish by Clyde Casper, route 1 Oak City.

The foregoing were caught from Sportsman's pier, east of Atlantic Beach.

Students Invited To Hear Speaker

High school students who will be taking college entrance exams are especially invited to hear Dr. Lyle B. Rogers, director of counseling, NC State college, at 8 next Monday night at the civic center, Morehead City.

Dr. Rogers is a member of the State College Entrance Examinations board.

He will speak about entrance exams, their implications and what they cover.

Dr. Rogers obtained his doctorate at Teachers College, Columbia university, New York City. He has been a member of the State college staff at Raleigh for the past 13 years.

His visit to Morehead City is being sponsored by the American Association of University Women. The public is welcome at the meeting, announces Mrs. John Vernberg, Beaufort, AAUW president.

Two speeding offenses within a year's period have brought the suspension of the driver's license of John David Midgett, Morehead City, by the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles.

Principal Names Band Director

Dean Chatlos, Morehead City, has been named director of the Beaufort band. Albert Gainey, Beaufort school principal, said that Mr. Chatlos will officially assume his duties Monday.

A native of Yonkers, N. Y., Mr. Chatlos is married to the former Joyce Hill of Beaufort. He plays the piano in the local dance band, The Carolinians. Mr. Chatlos attended college two and a half years in New York City and majored in music and psychology.

Since the opening of school, Mrs. Clarence Guthrie has been supervising band rehearsals, in the absence of a director.

Mr. Gainey reported that proceeds from Band Tag Day are not complete, but he estimates receipts will be approximately $500.

Menhaden Fisherman Knifed in Stomach

Joe Burke, menhaden fisherman from Cardes, Va., was in Morehead City hospital yesterday as the result of a knife wound across his stomach. Burke told police chief Guy Springle that he was walking in the 300 block of Queen street between 11 p.m. and midnight Sunday when someone came up to him and knifed him in the stomach.

He said he could think of no reason why anyone wanted to cut him. He walked to the police station and was taken to Morehead City hospital by officer Mack Wade. Burke works aboard the menhaden boat, Texas, Fred Haney Jr., captain.

Coast Guard Officer Announces Number

Since the Fort Macon Coast Guard station has added another line, persons calling the station may dial PA6-3134 if the number listed, PA6-3135, is busy.

Lt. John Riddell, commanding officer of the Fort Macon Coast Guard station, announced the new number Thursday. The phone company made the extra-line connection that day.

Highway Patrol Gives Advice

State highway patrolmen warn motorists not to let this Thanksgiving holiday become one of sad memories and regret. If you're going home for Thanksgiving, or merely visiting relatives or friends several miles away, make sure your car is in perfect mechanical condition, the patrol says.

Many cars will be on the highways and every precaution is necessary to prevent accidents and fatalities.

The weather is changeable at this time of year, so be ready for sun, rain, or sleet. Observe traffic laws, be patient in traffic, and don't over-eat. Over-eating can make one as sluggish and drowsy as drinking alcoholic beverages.

"Enjoy Thanksgiving, but make sure you stay alive to enjoy holidays to come," patrolmen said. Members of the Carteret highway patrol are R. H. Brown, W. E. Pickard, W. J. Smith Jr. and J. W. Sykes.

FHA Will Sell Items At Christmas Bazaar

Beaufort Future Homemakers will help celebrate the Christmas season by having a booth at the town bazaar Dec. 2.

At the booth they will sell Christmas cards, candy apples, roasted peanuts, boxes of candy, pimento cheese sandwiches, homemade cakes, hot dogs and drinks.

The group will entertain their fathers and special guests at 7 tonight at a covered dish supper in the homemaking department of the school, announces Mrs. David Beveridge, FHA advisor.

Two Arrested

Aworne Barrett, Beaufort, was arrested Saturday night for public drunkenness and resisting arrest. Nathaniel W. Cox was arrested Sunday for public drunkenness. Police chief Guy Springle said Barrett is out under $50 bond and Cox was placed under $25 bond.

Two Fishing Groups Invited to Meeting

The Fabulous Fishing organization, Morehead City, invites sports and commercial fishermen to a meeting at 7:30 tonight at Captain Bill's restaurant, Morehead City, to discuss conservation measures.

The meeting has been announced as preliminary to the commercial fisheries hearing at 10 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 10, at Morehead City.

Sports fishing interests have requested that shrimp trawlers be banned from waters within three miles of the coast. Tonight's meeting is not a supper meeting, according to Bob Simpson of Fabulous Fishing. Anyone interested in the matter is invited.

Roosevelt was cruising off Watch Hill. "I went out and gave him some lobsters and shook hands with him," the captain said, "and I told him I was shaking hands with the next President of the United States."

Captain Lanphere is the brother-in-law of William T. Ramsey, 211 Moore St., Beaufort.

Cars Collide On Beach Road

Two cars collided on the beach road by the Town and Country Drive-In at 10:30 p.m. Friday.

Patrolman J. W. Sykes said that Lynn E. Wallace, route 1 Morehead City, in a 1956 Nash, was coming out of the drive-in, headed toward Atlantic Beach, when she collided with a 1956 Oldsmobile driven by Larry C. Guthrie, Salter Path.

Guthrie was going toward Morehead City, but was in the middle lane, preparatory to making a turn into the drive-in.

Miss Wallace said she couldn't judge the distance between the cars. The patrolman said it was raining at the time. Damage to the Olds was estimated at $350 and to the Nash $150. No injuries were reported.

Morehead City Children Collect $363 for UNICEF

Morehead City children collected $363.70 in the Halloween night UNICEF collection this year, announces Mrs. W. C. Carlton, chairman.

This exceeded 1959's collection of $340.04. Eleven churches assisted the Morehead City Woman's club in the project. Four hundred children cooperated.

The money will be mailed to the United States Committee for UNICEF, United Nations.
