Newport Choruses Present Christmas Concert Monday

By JENNY LYNN GARNER

First of all, NHS would like to wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Or, as some of the students that are really "in the groove" say, Best wishes for a Cool Yule and a Frantic First.

The two school days this week were filled with gaiety and even frenzy as Christmas spirit and excitement swept through the school. All the classes enjoyed Christmas parties Tuesday afternoon.

The seniors exchanged nonsense gifts and came up with some weird but hilarious ideas. We hope that our laughter didn't disturb the rest of the school too much!

The glee club and junior chorus presented their annual Christmas program Monday afternoon. Under the direction of Mrs. Ruby Chartley, the glee club sang Ring Those Christmas Bells, Star of Bethlehem, and others.

Garland Whitaker, accompanied by Edward Millis, sang the beautiful No Candle Was There and No Fire. Christmas was one of the selections sung by the junior chorus, accompanied by Patricia Ketter and Sandy Savage.

The school looks forward to the Christmas choral presentations and immensely enjoyed this year's.

Among the first of the Christmas parties was the Beta club's, given Wednesday night at Sandra Hair's home. Graduates home for the holidays and present Beta members enjoyed getting together and had many things to discuss. A short but meaningful Christmas program was given by Eddie Lynn Garner.

Miss Senior for this week is Margaret Dawn Lilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus T. Lilly of Mill Creek. She stands a slim 5 feet 6 1/2 inches tall and weighs 120 pounds.

Margaret says that she had rather eat shrimp than any other food. Among her other favorites are teacher, Mrs. Betty Mizelle; subject, typing; singers, Fats Domino and Lavern Baker; and her favorite record is Last Date. Naturally enough, Margaret chooses basketball as her favorite sport.

Twice a member of the girls all county team, Margaret is a valuable player and an important asset to her team. She has a beautiful overhead shot that swishes through the net. Margaret was voted Most Athletic by the senior class and is an officer of the Monogram club.

During school, Margaret has been a very active member of glee club. She has also been active in FHA. After graduation, Margaret plans to attend airlines school in Kansas City, Mo.

Lewis Forrest is Mr. Senior this week. The son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Forrest Sr., Lewis is one of the most active and well rounded boys in the senior class. He is an FFA officer, class vice-president,

Lewis Forrest

Beta member, parliamentarian for the SCA, a bus driver, FTA member, and on the safety patrol.

Lewis has had major roles in both the junior and senior plays. He is also a member of the annual staff. Lewis received the superlatives most dependable and best personality.

Girls and cars are his favorite pastimes and Mrs. Peacock's English class is his pet peeve. Lewis says that the most memorable event happening while he has been in high school was the junior-senior prom last year. Brenda Lee ranks as his favorite singer and Wonderland by Night is his favorite record.

Lewis says that Mr. C. S. Long, agriculture teacher, has greatly influenced his decision to study agricultural engineering next year at N. C. State. Good luck, Lewis, we all know that you will succeed in whatever you undertake.

Mrs. Julia Basden Wins Turkey Saturday Night

Mrs. Julia Basden won the turkey given away Saturday night at the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Christmas party, held at the lodge hall. Christmas decorations were used throughout the building.

Dancing and games were enjoyed during the evening. Sandwiches, potato chips, dip, pickles, cookies, coffee and soft drinks were served.
