PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

County Authorizes Attorney Newport to Decide Tuesday Whether? To Continue Hospital Suit

State Sheriffs To Meet Tuesday At Morehead

sociation will meet Tuesday through Thursday at the Biltmore hotel, Morehead City.

The three-day convention gets underway with registration from 1 to 5 p.m. Tuesday. Supper will be at the Sanitary Fish Market.

Wednesday begins with a 10 a.m. meeting in the Sea Level room of the hotel where Moses Howard, chairman of Carteret county commissioners, will give the welcome address. Guests and friends will be introduced.

The afternoon begins at 2 p.m. with a business session. Discussions will be led by Walter F. Anderson, director of the SBI; Donald E. Roney, agent in charge of the Charlotte FBI office; Edward Scheidt, commissioner, Department of North Carolina Motor Vehicles and Albert Coates, director of the UNC Institute of Government.

A buffet supper will begin the evening. Carteret county sheriff Hugh Salter, in charge of entertainment, announces that a dance. with music by the Carolinians, will follow supper.

Thursday will start with a busiinclude election of officers, committee reports and the selection day of the next convention city.

A banquet Thursday evening will feature John D. Larkins, Trenton, nish their own heat by feeding a as the master of ceremonies. Officers will be installed at that time. Also scheduled is an address by Hector MacLean, Lumberton, of the North Carolina Senate.

Morehead Hires Town Supervisor building will be charged $25. They will pay for the heat in the main

R. H. Hall, Kinston, will begin in Morehead City.

for the position and selected three from the principal. for personal interview. Mr. Hall was one of two interviewed by the groups, Scouts and other similar nesday but according to mayor will be charged. George Dill, were so satisfied with Mr. Hall that the interview scheduled for Wednesday was cancelled. building and premises as they recommended by the League of age to the building or its furnish-Municipalities in a recent survey, ing will be charged against the is a new one substituted for the group responsible. former town clerk position held with W. P. Freeman Wholesale. director.

Mr. Hall operates a bookkeeping service in Kinston and at one time was employed by Tide Water Power Co., predecessor to Carolina Power and Light in this area.

Mr. Hall is married to the former Elizabeth Watson of Straits. p.m. Monday in the chamber of-They have a son, Robert, age 10.

Governor Names Six Highwaymen

Gov. Terry Sanford on Wednesday named six men to the State Highway commission. Expected to be among the 10 appointees yet to be named is D. G. Bell, Morehead

It is reported unofficially that Mr. Bell, Carteret's legislator, has accepted the appointment. Had he declined, the appointment would have gone to Jones county.

Among those named to state positions by the governor Wednesday was John Reeves, reappointed as head of the State Ports Authority. D. Leon Williams is expected to continue as state ports director.

C. G. Holland, Beaufort, com mercial fisheries commissioner, will retain his position.

Named to the State Highway commission were John (Clint) Newton, Shelby; Walton Brame, North Wilkesboro; Jack Kirksey, Morganton; Graham Elliot, Washington; James Glenn, Winston-Salem; and William E. (Bill) Horner, Sanford.

June Court Receipts Amount to $4,236.60

Court receipts for June amounted to $4,236.60, according to the report given county commissioners Monday by A. H. James, clerk of

Received from recorder's court was $2,518, from superior court $1,557.90, and through probate and clerk's fees $160.75.

Curious Cat Meets Maker at Beach

A curious cat paid with all its nine lives at 6 p.m. Sunday at Atlantic Beach when it got caught in the fan of a car.

Police chief Bill Moore, Atlantic Beach, said an unidentified woman stopped in front of the police station and went running in to announce that her "engine

Chief Moore and James Laughter, a special beach officer, lifted the hood of the woman's '59 Mercury and found the cat, cut and bleeding, wedged head-down tail-

The cat could not be gotten out, so the car was jacked up and it was finally removed from the bottom.

Then there was a funeral by the town hall. This is another instance where Curiosity Killed

Rental Fees Set For Recreation Building Use

ter. They went into effect Satur-

Groups using the main ball room meter-$1 per hour, or 25 cents for Henderson did not make that state

Groups using the main lounge will be charged $7.50, and heat will sible to construct the hospital in weekly. be furnished without charge. Groups using the small rooms to the east and west will be charged $5 for the use of each room

Heat will be furnished without Groups making use of the entire ball room as gauged by the meter. The board has also announced work Monday as town supervisor that all school activities will be free to the Morehead City high The board of town commission- school, the Catholic and Camp ers sifted through 63 applications Glenn school, if the request comes

Regular meetings of fraternal groups will not be charged if small The commissioners were sched- rooms are used. If the ball room uled to interview the third on Wed- is used, however, metered heat

Any group, whether "charged" is required to leave the The town supervisor, a position found it. Any damage and break-

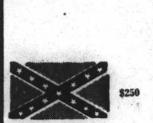

Persons seeking other informaby John Lashley. Mr. Lashley re- tion and scheduling of rentals signed in June to accept a position should call Mrs. Mamie Taylor,

Board to Meet

The board of directors of the Greater Morehead City chamber of commerce will meet at 7:45 fice. Hotel Fort Macon. The board met this past Monday but re-set the date because a quorum was not present.

Raise the Flag!

$1,000

"I get a lot of promises but not much cash," Grayden Paul, finance chairman of the Beaufort Historical association, reported yesterday. Fifty persons have now joined the association for the current year, bringing the association one-fourth of the way toward its goal of 200 members and

$1,000. The membership fee is $5. The funds will be used, in part, to finance re-enactment of the Spanish pirate invasion of Beaufort

Jr. was authorized by the count commissioners Monday to file an answer to the supreme court decision regarding the proposed county hospital. Board chairman Moses Howard broke a deadlocked vote on the matter.

The motion stipulated that no further hospital expenditures are to be made, other than for litigation, until after the law suit is Voting in favor of carrying through on the hospital project were commissioners Gaston Smith of Atlantic and Harrell Taylor of Sea Level. Voting against were ing conducted at Beaufort school. commissioners David Yeomans of of Morehead City.

didn't believe the hospital could McNeill. under contract by April 30,

The Medical Care commission. which supervises construction of Willis. hospitals with state and federal Students in the class of future funds, has stated that the county fifth and sixth graders total 21. will lose its hospital money if the Taught by Mrs. Harriet Beach, contract is not let prior to April they are Annette Chappell, Silas

tary of the commission, told him and Glenn Austin, Sharon Mease. and county auditor James Potter | Ginny and Gerald Troyer, Anne in next year's appropriation.

Mr. Chalk said that was not what the commissioners were told when will be charged $10 and will fur- Mr. Henderson conferred with the board, and asked the attorney why ment to the board.

Mr. Chalk said it was not posline with "official statements" to

See BOARD, Page 2

On 'Solo' Trip to Florida

John Penn, Colonial Beach, Va., in his boat, the Splish Splash, on Seventeen-year-old John Penn, en ing course offered by the Coast route to Miami from Dutch Gap, Guard auxiliary. When he gets to Va., left Morehead City Saturday Florida he plans to visit friends at on his trip along the inland water- Ft. Lauderdale and perhaps get a way in a 14-foot outboard motor- job there. Some day he hopes to running into his first bit of trouble Freeman high school, Richmond, Morehead City. He almost got hard He invited several friends to

He reported that it rained every declined. "It's really better," says day after he left Dutch Gap at 10 John, who seemed to enjoy talk-a.m. Sunday, June 25, but he aver- ing about his trip. "If I had some-

The trip is a high school gradua- effort to make friends. And that marie and Pamilco sounds. He re-lied solely on compass to get across Albemarle Sound and ended up or by about a guarter of a mile off nesday, July 19.

3:44 a.m.

4:23 p.m.

4:45 a.m.

tion present to him from his boat's rather small for two peoin the inland waterway north of Va., Thursday, June 8.

earn a pilot's license.

To Sponsor Movie

He was graduated from Douglas make the trip with him, but they one with me, I wouldn't make an

The Morehead City rescue squad will sponsor a movie at the drive-in theatre west of Morehead City

Tide Table

Tides at the Beaufort Bar

Friday, July 7

Saturday, July 8

Sunday, July 9

Monday, July 10

LOW

10:08 a.m.

10:51 p.m.

10:59 a.m.

11:42 p.m.

his stop-over at Morehead City en route to Florida.

He arrived Thursday night after mother, Mrs. Ruth M. Penn. His ple!"

boat, the Splish Splash, is his second and the motor is the fourth he has owned since he became inter-

John said he felt the worst part of his trip is behind him - Albemarle and Pamlico sounds. He re-only about a quarter of a mile off

He has a makeshift bunk in the canopy-covered boat. But most of the time he is invited to put his bedroll in boathouses or marinas as he stops along the way. At Fort

Eustis, Va., he was invited aboard a 65-foot Army transport boat where he had supper and bunked

The young motorboatman says intends to buy his meals as long that he stop every day and get a he doesn't do much cooking. He 5:18 p.m.

as his money holds out. The only 5:42 a.m.

stipulation his mother made was 6:08 p.m.

down for the night.

aground on a mud flat.

aged 60 miles a day.

ested in boating in 1955.

boat. .

To Borrow Town Hall, Water Funds 44 Children See This Funny Crab?

Attend Summer Science School

Forty-four children are attending the summer science school be-Students in the class of future Harkers Island and Skinner Chalk third and fourth graders total 23. Taught by Mrs. Mary Pinschmidt, Mr. Yeomans said that he un- they are Michael Austin, David, derstood the motion was to pro- Diane and Harold Booth, Chris cced with building the hospital and Chappell, Bob Chestnut, Lisa Dathat was why he voted no. Com- vis, Danny Hanes, Guy Hinton, missioner Chalk remarked that he Randy Ives, Jennifer Mason, Chuck

Richard Parker, Christine Reint-1962, even if the county wins the jes, Helen Slater, Kathy Smith, law suit and is free to build the Judy Stiles, Phyllis Thorne, Eric Vernberg, Eddie Wheatly, David Williams, Kathy Willis and Susan

Thorne, Stephen Ballou, Claud Attorney Hamilton said that Wil- Davidson, Gervase Motes, Marcie liam Henderson, executive secre. Vernberg, Jule Wheatly, Robert that if the county needed more Reintjes, Lynn Talbot, Thomas The Morehead City recreation time after the deadline, he could Klein, Gregory Rice, Sarah Rice, has announced the schedule of give Carteret's appropriation to Sarah Neal, T. V. Woolard, Billy ness meeting at 10:30 which will rental-fees at the recreation cen- another county and put Carteret and Bobby Chambers and John Hardesty. The school will end Friday, July

14. It opened in June for a period of four weeks. Classes are run for an liour and half in the morning Monday, Wednesday and Friday, with a field trip to nearby marshes or shores

The school is patterned after the Children's School of Science, Woods

Harrell Taylor to Serve As Building Inspector Harrell Taylor, Sea Level, was appointed county building inspector Monday by the county board

Chris Chappell, second from left, shows a king crab at the summer science school. They learn the names of marine life and can inform adults who wonderingly ask, "What's that?" With Chris, left to right, are Mike Austin, Jennifer Mason and Richard Parker.

Virginia Youth Stops Here of commissioners. Mr. Taylor, who resigned as eounty commissioner to assume the new position, will be responsible for enforcing the newlyadopted county building code and Persons who plan to build any office in the courthouse, Beaufort. fore the board. The applicant will then take the The board revised its budget, ed in proportion to the cost of the structure to be erected. Persons erecting buildings without a permit will be guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to $50 fine or 30 days in jail.

The county board has undertaken enforcement of a building code in hope of preventing widespread damage during hurricanes due to ill-constructed buildings being blown down or blown into other structures.

Eastern North Carolina Traffic Club to Meet

club members and their wives will meet for a social hour and dinner tonight at the Biltmore hotel, Moré

The club is comprised of all men engaged in the movement of freight Bill Moore, said that this past (railroad and truck) and ship car- Fourth of July weekend was the peared before justice of the peace goes. E. E. (Jack) Lee Jr., Wil- quietest one he has ever experiencmington, director of commerce and ed in his seven years at the beach. paid costs of $8.50. The others traffic, State Ports Authority, will This past holiday weekend goes on were docketed for appearance be be master of ceremonies.

6:30 and the dinner at 7:30.

Board Selects Archie Royal Davis, Durham,

was selected as architect for the structure in the county outside a new Morehead City high school town must now apply for a build- Monday by the county board of ing permit at the tax collector's education. Mr. Davis appeared be application, which he fills out, to eliminating the building program the building inspector, who will that it had hoped to undertake if have office hours in the court-sufficient money were provided. house. The building inspector will Pay-day for school personnel was set as the 20th of each month with Fees for the permit will be charg- the exception of the first and last > stitute an industrial education pro- act.) gram for adults.

The program would be started equipped for that type of train-

R. W. Safrit Jr., chairman of the board presided. Board members present were D. Mason, Atlantic; Theodore Smith, Davis; W. B. Al-Eastern North Carolina Traffic len, Newport, and George R. Wallace, Morehead City.

> Quiet Fourth Chief of Atlantic Beach police, record with no drownings and no fore the jaypee. The social hour will begin at car accidents within the city lim-

Commissioners to Canvass Votes Tuesday Night Citizens of Newport will decide

Tuesday whether the town shall borrow $20,000 to build a town hall and $15,000 to extend water lines to an outlying section proposed for Special registration for the election closed Saturday. Challenge day will be tomorrow. The board will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the town hall to canvass the votes and announce the outcome of the referendum. The board authorized police commissioner Raymond Edwards to order 10 citation books of the new type recommended by the State Highway patrol. The books are 63 cents each. The board deferred action on a request by policemen for summer uniforms. The police commissioner was auhorized to carry out orders that an ice cream vendor truck may not stop in the streets, but must pull off the street or into drive-The board authorized the marl ing and surface treatment of Bell street to include that portion of Hill street from Bell to the railroad presently unpaved, also the marling and surface treatment from Church street to the ceme widening and marling of Walker street (458 feet) and the marling and stabilizing of the balance of Hill street. It was reported that the Cherry Point Mutual Veterans Housing association is willing that the end of one of its streets be connected with a street in the Joe Hill sub-The board changed the name of the street by the AME Zion church from Bell to Walker, because there already is a Bell street in town. Mrs. Gordon Cutler gave the water department report for her husband who is water department administrator. She reported that 275 persons tapped to the system, 223 are using water. The average bill in June was $3.30. Deposited for the month was $756.16. Expenses were $615.26. Cash on hand at the end of the month was $149.32. The board reaffirmed the deci-

See NEWPORT, Page 2

Monroe Gaskill Put on County

Welfare Board Miss Georgie Hughes, county welfare superintendent, announces that Monroe Gaskill, Cedar Island, has been appointed to the county welfare board. His term of office started Saturday.

He replaces Corbett Davis of Davis, who served the maximum time allowed on the board, six Recent additions to the welfare staff, according to Miss Hughes, include two public welfare workers and two child welfare workers. Public welfare workers are Mrs Ruth Adams of Morehead City and

Miss Jane Barrow, daughter of a former Free Will Baptist minister in Beaufort Child welfare workers are Miss Louise Moore of Kinston, who will be working for six weeks this sum mer between her first and second years of graduate training, and Miss Carolee Hatsell from Hubert in Onslow county. She will arrive July 16. Resigned from the county wel fare department is Mrs. Gertrude Williamson, senior case worker for the past six years. She resigned to accept a position on the state weifare board as supervisor of adult boarding homes in 33 counties, including Carteret. Also resigned due to their husbands' military transfer are Mrs.

Amy Brock, child welfare worker, and Mrs. Cathrine Wilson, public welfare worker. Mrs. Brock has accepted a position in the welfare department in Honolulu, Hawaii, where her husband is stationed. Mrs. Wilson has accepted a position with the welfare department in Onslow county, where her husband is stationed.

Boaters, Pulling Skiers, Charged with Violations

Instruction for permission to in- ment of the motorboating safety

Apprehended Sunday were William Earl Fany, Morehead City, and costs. at Morehead school, the only school in Bogue Sound; David Ballou, Morehead City, operating at Atlantic Beach; and George Robinson, waters. Jackie Neal, Beaufort, operating in Taylor's creek, was ap- or bell. prehended Tuesday.

Mr. Crumpton explains that anyone towing a skier, must have one of three things: lifebelt on skier, rear view mirrors, or another person in the boat watching the skier.

The four apprehended allegedly had none of these. Robinson ap-Elmer Smith, Morehead City, and Paying costs for not complying a 1959 Ford station wagon at 3:50

Four boat operators have been | servers were David Mosier, Greenmonths of the coming school year. apprehended for violation of the ville, apprehended Sunday in Tay-The driver education budget for water skiing regulation, according lor's creek; Quentin Salter, New-1961-62 was approved. H. L. Josto Reuben Crumpton, Morehead port, apprehended Sunday; Robert lyn, county superintendent of City, of the Wildlife Resources O'Neal, Greenville, operating a schools was authorized to apply commission. (The commission per- boat at Atlantic Beach Sunday to the State Department of Public sonnel are charged with enforce- without proper registration; Harvey Ross, Kinston, operating a boat Sunday in Newport river and not displaying proper numbers, $10

> Jarvis Guthrie, Salter Path, was with failing to display numbers,

Ashley Edwards, Wilson, charged Tuesday with improper display of boat numbers, paid costs. F. A. Jefferson Jr., Wilson, charged Tuesday with violating skiing regulations in Bogue Sound, paid $10

Otway Resident

Gillikin's entry, a pencil sketch of fashion designs, indicates "talent which, in the opinion of the judges, should be developed." The certifi-ter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gillikin Patrolman Sykes said both ve- of Otway, said she hopes to enroll Mr. and Mrs. Gillikin and their two children, Johnny and Etta, will leave this week for Virginia to make their home.

When a recent Congressional re-

Morehead City are reported to be port on funds appropriated for armories was released, the More-

County Survives Fourth Without Fatalities; Cars Hit Two Children Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs.) A 1961 motorcycle collided with

Fourth of July weekend without any highway fatalities, but two children were struck by cars on Harkers Island. The highway patomorrow night. A. N. Willis, trol also investigated three other accidents.

> nesday were William Paul Willis, west. 6, who was struck by a car at 5:40 p.m. Monday, and Robert Ryan Willis, 6, who was struck by a car at 5 p.m. on the Fourth, Tuesday. William Paul is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Freddy Willis. According to patrolman J. W. Sykes, the youngster was hit on a curve locally known as "leaners' curve," east of the center of the escaped without injury at 2 a.m. island.

The patrolman said that the boy went around the back of a car and ran into the path of a car headed west. The car was driven 12:32 a.m. by Mrs. Violetta Fulcher, Harkers 12:36 p.m. Island.

Clarence Willis. According to patrolman W. J. Smith Jr., who in- p.m. Tuesday on the Atlantic The car was driven by Miss owned by Alvah Fulcher, Harkers Island, whose daughter, Linda Sue, was a passenger in the car.

No charges were preferred against the driver in either in-

Monday when the 1956 Ford he road at the end of highway 70, Atlantic. The car was demolished City. and Fulcher charged with exceeding a safe speed, according to pa-trolman Smith, who investigated. the holiday weekend.

vestigated, Robert had just been Beach bridge. Driving the station cate is signed by J. C. Buckbee, to an ice cream vendor truck and wagon was B. L. Green, New Bern. bought a cone. He started back Driving the motorcycle was Kento his yard, waited for one car neth Edwards, Havelock. Reported in good condition at headed east, then darted ahead the Morehead City hospital Wed- and into the path of a car going hicles were headed toward More- in a correspondence course in fashhead City. The motorcyclist pulled ion designing this fall. out to pass the station wagon, had Janie Lou Nelson, 16. The car was to pull back because of oncoming traffic, and in doing so struck the rear of the station wagon. wards was treated at Morehead City hospital. The five persons injured in a head-on collision Friday west of recovering satisfactorily. The injured were Mr. and Mrs. William Phillip Ray Fulcher, Atlantic, Gorges and son, David; Mrs. Regwas driving turned over on a loop inald Lewis, and Mrs. Katherine Jackson, all of route 1 Morehead apprehended Tuesday and charged Beaufort, operating in Beaufort violating the life-saving regulation, and no sound device such as a horn

Wins Certificate Mrs. Berkley Gillikin of Otway

has received a certificate of merit from Art Instruction Inc., of Minneapolis, Minn., for an entry in their national amateur art contest. The certificate states that Mrs.

president. Mrs. Gillikin, who is the daugh-

Funds Approved

head City armory was not included. Maj. Gen. Claude T. Bowers, adjutant general of the North Carolina National Guard, informed general assemblyman D. G. Bell, Minor accidents occurred in Morehead City, by telegram yestowns throughout the county over terday, that the funds have been approved by Congress.