

Motorboat Races in Taylor's Creek Added to Derby Plans

Photo Shop Will Open in Town

A photography and camera shop, Smiths' Studio, owned by Charles and Lane Smith, Beaufort, is now open at 412 Front St., Beaufort.

Mr. Lance Smith, who is employed by Barbour Marine Supply, Beaufort, reports that his son, Charles, will operate the studio and shop.

The studio will specialize in black and white and color portraits, some commercial photography and wedding pictures.

The shop will contain facilities for fast handling of the development of film. Photography supplies will be sold.

Charles Smith, operator of the business, is a graduate of the New York Institute of Photography and for the past four years has been associated with The Snap Shop at Havelock.

Visitors to the studio during the coming week may register free for a drawing for an 11 by 14-inch black and white portrait.

North Carolina's First Annual Crab derby will be a three-day event instead of two, Joe DuBois, Morehead City chamber manager announces. Mr. DuBois says motorboat races have been added to extend the activities through Sunday, Aug. 27. The derby begins with Carteret county preliminary crab race Friday, Aug. 25, at 2 p.m. at Jib square on the Morehead waterfront.

COBRA (Carteret Outboard Racing Association), will sponsor the motorboat races on Taylor's creek in nearby Beaufort. Dorman Couch, racing committee chairman, said there will be both outboard and inboard-powered boat races. For the inboards, there will be no limit, either for the number of horsepower or length of hull. Trophies will be awarded first and second place winners.

Outboard races will be divided into three classes: 20 to 40 horsepower engines, 40 to 60 horsepower and 60 to 80 horsepower. Only stock boats and stock engines may enter. No racing hull or racing engine will be eligible. First and second place trophies will be awarded in each class.

Boat clubs and individual boat owners in North Carolina, Virginia and South Carolina are invited to enter. An entrance fee of $2 will be required for each class.

The entire crab derby program now includes an acrobatic water ski show from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., Saturday, on the Morehead City waterfront with the crowning of Miss Seafood Queen to follow. The first annual crab derby will begin at 2 p.m., and will feature 12 crabs, one from each of the state's 12 crab-producing counties, racing down an inclined track.

Sailboat races on Bogue sound at 4 o'clock, will conclude Saturday's program. The motorboat races will be the only feature on Sunday's agenda.

In conjunction with the derby there will be a Crab-Fish Angling contest Friday and Saturday on Bogue banks' seven ocean fishing piers.

First, second and third prizes of $50, $25 and $12.50 will be awarded to the fishermen catching the largest crabs and fish while "bottom-fishing" at any of the following piers: Triple Ess, Oceanana, Sportsman's, Morehead Ocean, Iron Steamer, Thompson's Emerald Island and Bogue Inlet.

Of the $7.5 billion spent for tobacco products last year, nearly $3 billion was for direct excise taxes.

'Poor Luck' Boaters Keep Coast Guardsmen Bustling

Coast Guard personnel from the Fort Macon station kept busy Sunday assisting six vessels in trouble. One assist was made on Saturday.

An 18-foot outboard owned by David Davenport of Rocky Mount experienced engine failure at 8:40 p.m. Saturday near light 34, Newport marshes. Five persons were aboard.

The Coast Guard 40-footer towed the boat to Anchorage marina, Atlantic Beach. Crew of the 40-footer was Howard Jones, BMI; Halsey Paul, SN; and Jimmy Goff, FA.

At 7:35 a.m. Sunday the 40-footer aided the 23-foot cruiser, Nan, which had engine failure half a mile south of Triple Ess pier. Charles Wallin Jr., Raleigh, was the operator.

Jones, Lenton Lewis, SN; and Harold Snipes, ENI, towed the disabled craft to Cannon's boatworks.

En route to Cannon's they sighted a boat aground near light 9 in Bogue Sound. After mooring the Nan, they returned to assist the 28-foot cruiser, Terry III. They refloated her at 10:10 a.m.

George T. Barnes of Elm City, the owner, and one other person were aboard.

While the 40-footer was assisting the Nan and Terry III, a call was received at the station stating that a 16-foot outboard, Ivy W, was aground on the ocean side of of Shackleford Banks.

The 36-footer from Fort Macon refloated the outboard at 11:50 a.m. John Wooten Sr. of Kinston was the only person aboard.

At 4:25 p.m. a 30-foot cabin cruiser ran aground near Core Creek front range light 24. The 40-footer refloated her at 5:20 p.m. and escorted her to Russell's railways, Morehead City.

In addition to the owner, Joaquin Alvarez of Waynesboro, Pa., three persons were aboard. Jones, Snipes and Paul made the assist.

A 19-foot outboard had engine failure a hundred yards off the beach two miles west of the station at 5:15 p.m. Sunday. The 40-footer, arriving on the scene, found that the boat had sunk in the surf, but that the four persons aboard were safe on the beach.

The 40-footer, unable to help, returned to the station and the Coast Guard truck was dispatched. At 7 p.m. the truck pulled the boat out of the water, to the beach.

Don Cobb of Goldsboro was operating the boat, owned by the F. K. Borden farm, Goldsboro.

The 41-foot partyboat Blue Water experienced engine failure at Shackleford Banks Sunday night at 10:45. The 40-footer towed her to Morehead City.

Making the assist were Jones, Lewis, Goff and Richard Johnson, SN. Seventeen persons were aboard.
