Churches to Observe Day of Resurrection

During the civil war, pastors used Easter Sunday, with its promise of life eternal, as the time to console those who had lost loved ones in battle. Altars were decorated profusely with flowers. The Bermuda lily was widely used for that purpose and thus became known as the Easter lily. This is the interior of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Beaufort, arrayed in Easter lilies for an Easter service of several years ago.

Dr. B. F. Royal Honored

Dr. B. F. Royal, Morehead City physician who is retiring from practice, was honored with a reception at the Morehead City hospital Tuesday afternoon. With him here are two nurses who trained under Dr. Royal's supervision when there was a nurses' training school connected with the hospital. They are Miss Lyda Piner, left, and Mrs. Cecil Oglesby, both of Morehead City.

Royal was presented a corsage.

Dr. and Mrs. Ben F. Royal were honored at a social hour Tuesday afternoon in the dining room of Morehead City hospital. Dr. Royal, who retired last week, and Mrs. Royal were entertained by employees of the hospital. Attending, in addition to hos-
