 Hunter Charged With Assaulting Agent

The federal grand jury at Raleigh ndicted Lloyd H. Mason, Atlantic, Tuesday on a charge of assaulting M. H. Cecil, Beaufort.

The trial has been set for Monday, May 21, in federal court at New Bern, according to Mrs. Eleanor Howard, clerk of court.

Mason is charged, with driving and running into Mr. Cecil with a 1956 Oldsmobile near Cedar Island on or about Feb. 18 of this year.

The indictment states that he forcibly assaulted, opposed, and interfered with Mr. Cecil, a US game management agent while the agent was engaged in his official Bond on Mason has not been set, but Mrs. Howard said it would be in the near future.

Both Lloyd and Clyde Mason Jr. were apprehended Sunday, Feb. 18 by game wardens. They were found guilty of hunting and possessing duck during closed season, were given six-month suspended sentences, fined $250 on each count and placed on probation.

Mr. Cecil was hospitalized several weeks, suffering a broken Mr. Kirby welcomed garden club bone in his ankle and a chipped bone in his neck.
