has told officials of the town of Beaufort that it may have an answer in a week to 10 days on a complaint by the town that Carolina Water Co. will not install fire

The town has requested nine new hydrants in newly-annexed parts of town but the water company has failed to install them, although the request has been standing for

Ronald Earl Mason, town clerk, and C. R. Wheatly, town attorney conferred Friday at Raleigh with a utilities company engineer. He is quoted as saying that the company could have the hydrants in within two months, once the work

According to Mr. Mason, the Fire Insurance Rating bureau has

D. G. Bell Reported to Be Improved, But No Visitors

Rescue Squad Will Serve Barbecue

- Food Will Follow Pirate Invasion
- Orchestra to Play For Dancing

Pirate invasion observers won't have far to go to satisfy their appetites Saturday in Beaufort.

The Beaufort Rescue squad will plates immediately after the invasion ends. The suppers will be available at the Beaufort Squad refreshment stand, less than a block from the invasion site (the Alphonso ship museum).

Tables will be set up close to the stand for the convenience of the diners. Mel Lawrence, rescue squad chief, says the squad is going "all out" to make the day a pleasurable one.

With the exception of the parade route, every activity will be held in the space of one block on the waterfront. From 3 p.m. until mid- Morehead City. The shop had been night, entertainment and fun will destroyed by fire last December. be the order of the day.

The barbecue plates will be $1. All proceeds will go toward pur- unit. chasing badly needed equipment for the rescue squad, which has been very active during the past It is believed that Mr. Bell may year, Mr. Lawrence points out. They offer their services to any-toward the conclusion of the 1961 one in need. All their support comes from donations only.

Soon after the barbecue supper ends, the rescue squad will sponsor a street dance on the same site as the supper. Music will be by the P. R. Jones orchestra. All types of dancing will be enjoyed, ed by the Coast Guard this week. Tickets are available from mem- Both boats were towed into port bers of the rescue squad for $2. for repairs.

the rescue squad refreshment gine failure one-half mile east of from sale of tickets will go toward in assistance was the coast Guard payment of the orchestra. "The 40-footer. Crew on the 40-footer Beaufort rescue squad wants every was Williamson, BM3, Brannon one to enjoy themselves, so at- EN2, and Cantrell, SNBM. tend, and dance. They want every Tuesday, the Davis Brothers VII, one to go home from the invasion out of Beaufort, lost its rudder in day activities and dance, tired and Beaufort channel. Crew on the happy, with fond memories of the Coast Guard boat was Jones, BM1 hospitality of Beaufort," chief Brannon, EN2, and Cantrell,

Park Engineer Says 'No

Space' at Park for Camps

Conferring on the possibility of a camping site at Fort Macon of a camping site.

State Park are Dr. S. W. Hatcher, John R. Kibbler, P. W. Bullock and Charles McNeill. Mr. Kibbler is a representative of the North an adequate and suitable site for of the chamber of commerce.

Carolina Division of State Parks.

group that problems involving the Seeking establishment of a camping site are Dr. S. W. Hatcher.

City chamber of commerce, Morehead City mayor George W. Dill,

Beaufort mayor W. H. Potter, P.

W. Bullock, manager of the chamber of commerce, and Miss Alida

D. G. Bell, Morehead City, member of the State Highway commission, was "much better" yesterday. He is in the Morehead City hospital, recovering from a heart attack suffered Tuesday afternoon shortly after he had been discharged from the hospital.

He was rushed back to the hospital by ambulance and has been under an oxygen tent since then. One of the attending physicians said yesterday that he "felt very encouraged" by Mr. Bell's condi-

The highway commissioner was admitted to the hospital last week for observation after developing shortness-of-breath attacks during minor exertion.

He is receiving round-the-clock nursing care and absolutely no visitors are permitted.

Mr. Bell intends to resign from serving barbecue supper the highway commission in the near future. Buddy Phillips, Jacksonville, has been named by the governor to replace him. Mr. Bell s the Democratic candidate for the legislature from this county.

Though Mr. Bell has been too ill to make a comment, Democratic leaders have expressed fear that he may not be able to serve in the legislature in 1963. It would be his fifth term, if re-elected in Novem-

The highway commissioner recently reopened a gift shop in He is commanding officer of the Fort Macon Coast Guard Reserve

He was under doctor's orders for several months in the spring of '61. have suffered a mild heart attack legislative session.

Coast Guard Aids Two Trawlers This Week

Two fishing trawlers were assist-

Tickets will also be available at Monday, the Mary Ann had en-

August Fun

When summer comes, lots of mothers find they have water babies. Mrs. Jim Evers, Morehead City, and her 16-month-old daughter, Susan, "jump the waves" at Atlantic Beach. Susan, who hasn't yet learned to read (she's concentrating on how to talk) doesn't know that the printing on her swim trunks reads, "I'm a Little Tax Deduction." Her daddy, Jim Evers, prefers golf to swimming. He shot a 74 at the Morehead City country club Sunday. Par for the course is 72.

Agency Asked to Push Fire Hydrant Installation

Marine General Will Help Select 'Queen'

Brig. Gen. Frank C. Tharin, commanding general of Cherry Point Marine Corps Air station, will be one of the judges of the Miss Pirate Queen contest tomorrow afternoon in Beaufort. (General Tharin was recently selected for promotion to major general.)

Twenty-three girls from Carteret, Onslow and Craven counties will compete for the Miss Pirate Queen crown and fifteen silver dollars. The first runner-up will receive ten silver dollars and the second runner-up five.

The queen's crown will be donated by Herring's jewelry store and is now on display in the store window. The winner will also receive a silver loving cup from Stamper's.

Sponsoring the parade of beauties, and the contest, is the Beaufort rescue squad. The parade will begin at 3 p.m. at Front and Orange streets and move through the business district to Front and Pol-

In front of the museum ship, Alphonso, the bevy of beauties will be viewed by General Tharin and three other judges, Mrs. Bob Simpson and Miss Ruth Peeling, both of Morehead City, and Norwood Young, Beaufort.

Mrs. T. V. Woolard, Beaufort, is contest manager. Pictures of the contestants appearing in today's paper and in the previous two issues are by Virgil Woolard, a member of the rescue squad.

(Photos of more Pirate Queen contestants appear on page 8 this

Friday, Aug. 3

Saturday, Aug. 4

Sunday, Aug. 5

Monday, Aug. 6

Tuesday, Aug. 7

10:24 p.m.

11:03 a.m.

11:03 p.m.

11:45 a.m.

11:39 p.m.

12:23 a.m.

12:12 a.m.

Legionnaires Tide Table Meet Friday Tides at the Beaufort Bar

4:15 p.m. cided Friday night at the Legion hut to look into the sponsorship of 4:41 a.m. an American Legion baseball team, financing a trip by the Morehead City band to a Legion convention, and showing of a Civil 5:13 a.m. Defense film. 5:25 p.m.

Ben Webb, national president of the Future Business Leaders of 6:03 p.m. America, spoke on the FBLA, explaining its purpose and aims.

> shown after the next meeting of operations at Duke hospital. the Legion's activities in defense Glenn, chairman of the county mi-Action on the Legion baseball contacting Legion posts in Wilming- tation will be provided. ton and Kinston to obtain more information about the operation and lymphedema, a disease that causes sponsorship of Legion baseball.

. . . Beaufort

One Person

Joshua Stallworth, the migrant la-The Civil Defense film will be borer who is undergoing a series the Legion post, and will be open A plea was made last week by to the public. The film is part of the Rev. J. P. Mansfield, Camp of the nation against communism. grant ministry committee, for persons who would give blood. Any team was taken in the form of type will be accepted. Transpor-

Stallworth is suffering from tremendous swelling of one of his Present at the meeting was R. legs. His condition was diagnosed M. Williams, agricultural agent for this summer during the migrant Carteret, who asked the group to ministry medical program, which sponsor an oyster roast. Proceeds was started to give workers in this would go to the 4-H camp at Mer- county needed medical treatment. Blood donors are still urgently Attending the meeting was Les- needed. Those who will help are lie Watson, New Bern, past district asked to contact Mr. Mansfield, approved location of the nine hydrants, which would give property owners in the areas affected class 6 classification and lower payment of insurance premiums. Installation of the hydrants would require laying of 6-inch mains, Mr. Mason said, on Front and Ann streets extended. Lennoxville road, Glendale Park and Jones Village. Cost to the water company is estimated at $30,000. The town now pays $45 yearly rental for each fire hydrant. Mr. Mason said the water company claims that it has done nothing about installation of hydrants because of negotiations relative to the town's buying the water company. Mr. Mason said the firm has been told that the town assumes Carolina Water would include in sale price the cost of installation of the mains and hy-Due to arrive in the near future, for the new parts of town, Mr. Mason said are traffic signs. Defendant Asks For Jury Trial In City Court with a few minor cases and one case in which the defendant asked for a jury trial and was bound over to superior court. Frank Guff Morgan, Woodrow, was charged with assaulting Walgo to Durham to give blood to ter B. Warren Sr., Saturday and causing serious bodily injury. Morgan was placed under $200 bond for appearance in the November term of superior court. Morgan allegedly hit Warren, a

Patricia Ann Vaughn

A brief session of Morehead City

Recorder's court Monday dealt resident of Smithfield, with a soft drink bottle on Triple-Ess pier, injuring his eye and head.

Others tried were Dewey Wayne Wilson, Harkers Island, reckless driving, $10 and costs; Mary Edge Wallace, Fayetteville, passing in a no-passing zone, two-thirds of the costs; Larry Ledru Stephens, Camp Lejeune, passing a red light, costs.

William H. Sloan, Camp Lejeune, public drunkenness, costs; Thomas Briggs Pearce, Timberlake, passing at an intersection, costs; and Patrick Wilson Peacock, Camp Lejeune, passing in a no-passing zone, costs.

A warrant charging Thomas West, Morehead City, with drunk and disorderly conduct and using loud and profane language was withdrawn by the prosecuting witness, Mrs. Mildred West. Mrs. West was charged with the costs for malicious and frivolous prose-

Forfeiting bonds were Arthur Davidson Carr, Cherry Point, reckless driving and no driver's icense; James Everett Rattley, Wilmington, speeding and no driver's license; and Harvey Treglown, Camp Lejeune, public drunkenness. A total of 16 other cases were continued until later terms of court, 14 of the cases to be tried in the Aug. 6 and 13 terms of court.

Town Board Will Meet with Trustees Of City Hospital

Morehead City commissioners meeting Monday at the municipal building, Morehead City, decided that a conference with hospital trustees would be better than cor-

Hospital trustees have been invited to meet with the town board at 4 p.m. today to discuss repair of the hospital and financing. An earlier meeting was proposed, but David Willis, hospital administrator, said it would be doubtful The board passed resolutions in Pirates Will Hit Beaufort at 5 Tomorrow, After Beauty Contest Pow! Boom . . . boom!

Jail-Museum Ready for Items

iail, which has been turned over to the Beaufort Historical association, has been painted and is ready for display of historical items.

The only hold-up is, according to association officials, items they went to display are not available.

The association is planning to place in the jail-museum old documents, maps, old prints and pictures dealing with Beaufort and vicinity. Requests for such items have been made but have met with

The association asks only to bor-A group of Carteret citizens and were mayor A. B. Cooper, Atlan- row the documents or maps. They officials were told Tuesday that tie Beach, and Charles McNeill, will be photostated and the original returned to the owner. Pera "camping park" does not exist at Fort Macon State park.

John R. Kibbler, engineer with John State park, at the John R. Kibbler, engineer with John R. Kibbler R.

the Division of State Parks, North park offices. Mr. Kibbler came Carolina Department of Conserva-tion and Development, told the ber of commerce.

Let B noped, eventually, to put other items of historic interest in the jail. The jail is one of the It is hoped, eventually, to put He told the group that experi- oldest buildings in the county and selection of a site for campers ence in the past required that is located on the courthouse could probably be solved by the camping sites be located on the square, Beaufort.

of more land. But he ocean, due to the problems of heat The historical association did not doubted that such addition would and insects. Also, dune stabilizameet in July. Date of the August tion complicated the establishment meeting will be announced.

At least 25 acres would be need- Attend Conference president of the greater Morehead ed, Mr. Kibbler said, for a mini- Four vocational home economics Mr. Kibbler later was shown a tending the annual state vocation-site on the sound side of the park, al home economics conference in adjacent to Fort Macon Coast Greensboro this week. They are Bridge Repaired Guard station, and admitted that Mrs. Pauline McIntosh, Atlantic;

State Increases Here come the pirates, advancing on Beaufort to pillage the town. Re-enactment of the 1747 attack by Spanish pirates will begin at p.m. tomorrow, following a beauty contest sponsored by the Beaufort Beaufort firemen, costumed for the occasion, will portray the pirates. After shelling the town and operating between Cape Cartered ashore, capture the town, take The ferry now operates at night, firing a fort, they will swarm their choice of captives and have a carousing good time.

But it won't last long. Farmers acted by townspeople, subduc-the pirates, tie them up and haul the sea-going bandits off to "gaol" in mule carts.

Rescue squad.

In former years, participants in the re-enactment were carried half hour from 5:30 a.m. to 8:30 businessman, had bid $19,000 at away with the excitement. Once, the pirates leaped from their longboat upon landing, only to discover that the channel was deep at that

One pirate claims as he was ascending from the "35-foot depth" he passed another Pirate descending. They waved and each kept on his way. One farmer suffered a broken ankle. Bruises were numerous and winded men common-

The pirates, and Grayden Paul, manager of the invasion, still wonder who blew the hole through the pirate flag, especially with blank

In conjunction with the gala ined, Mr. Kibbler said, for a minimum of 35 individual camp sites.
Mr. Kibbler later was shown a mum of 35 individual camp sites.
Mr. Kibbler later was shown a site on the sound side of the park site of the park site of the sound side of the park site of the park side of the park
site of the park side of the park
side of the park side of the park side of the park side of the park side of the park side of the park side of the park side of the park side of the park side of th

Increased services have been announced for the Bogue Sound ferry, and Emerald Isle on Bogue banks. in addition to its previous daytime schedule. Until Sept. 7, the ferry will depart from the mainland side near Corp. Tuesday brought an increase Swansboro each hour on the hour in the bid of $1,000. from 5 a.m. to 9 p.m. with a final trip to Bogue banks at 11 p.m. The ferry leaves Bogue banks courthouse, Beaufort. for the mainland each hour on the p.m. with two trips back to the the sale in June. Mr. Ballou rais-The ferry is operated by the required a resale of the property. state highway department without cost to cars or passengers. The ferry service connects the western end of Bogue banks with North Carolina 24, allowing another access route to Atlantic Beach and Bogue Banks.

Car Hits Stopped Car At Morehead Corner

At 12th and Evans streets, Morehead City, Tuesday, a 1957 Ford town of Morehead City. station wagon driven by John B.

Resale of the real estate of the defunct Morehead Shipbuilding Thundershowers Ward Ballou, Morehead City, bid $20,000 for the property at the Dick Parker, Morehead City

Bid for Shipbuilding Land

Now Stands at $20,000

mainland at 10 p.m. and 12 mid- ed the bid within ten days, under thundershowers was the routine the provisions of the sale. This The sale Tuesday at the courthouse Beach Monday, Tuesday and Wedwas attended only by Calder Wom- nesday, and a heavy rain at Newble and W. H. Hofler, trustees, and port early Sunday morning did The property is now subject to ed at the Atlantic Beach weather another upset bid within ten days station were .60 inch Monday, of the resale. Minimum bid to be .15 inch Tuesday and .40 inch Wedaccepted is $1,000 above the pres- nesday. ent $20,000 bid, or $21,000. Pu chase price is also subject to tax owing on the property. Approx mately $7,200 is owed the coun and more than $8,000 is due t At the June auction, a bid was submitted that bridge were started this week.

Willis, a Morehead City resident interested in the matter.

Also present at the conference of the matter.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City bridge were started this week.

Mrs. Joseph Beasley, Smyrna; bridge were started this week.

Mrs. Joseph Beasley, Smyrna; bridge were started this week.

Mrs. Harry Mizelle, Newport; and submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City, is undergoing spector.

Mrs. Joseph Beasley, Smyrna; bridge were started this week.

State maintenance crews are taking at Fort successful bidder, at $13,500, for successful bidder, at $13,500, for successful bidder, at $13,500, for successful bidder, at $150, according to investing the sag out on the east side.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City, is undergoing spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City, is undergoing spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City, is undergoing spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City, is undergoing spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City, is undergoing spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City.

Mrs. Joseph Beasley, Smyrna; bridge were started this week.

State maintenance crews are taking spector.

State maintenance crews are taking spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City is undergoing spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City is undergoing spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City is undergoing spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City is undergoing spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City is undergoing spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City is undergoing spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City is undergoing spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City is undergoing spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City is undergoing spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City is undergoing spector.

Was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead Ci

Warm weather punctuated by for the past seven days. Rain was reported at Atlantic minor damage. Amounts record-

ur-		Max.	Min.	MING
ces	Thursday .	90	78	Var.
xi-	Friday	84	72	NE
aty	Saturday	88	74	NE
he	Sunday	.90	76	S
110	Monday	86	77	S-SW
of	Tuesday	. 90	78	W-SW
as	Wednesday	92	80	SW
Ar.
	Attanda Caba	al

Mrs. Langrock was stopped at the now being made to sell those as- Lt. Patrick D. Conner, USA, som whether the trustees could get tointersection when the accident oc- sets privately. The bid of $9,500 of Mr. and Mrs. John Conner of gether before today. was submitted by Purcell Jones, Morehead City, is undergoing spec-