

Arrests Made in Auto Parts Theft Ring Case

Arrested this week in connection with a series of thefts of auto parts were Everett Ingram Jr., 23, David Woolrich, 18, both of route 1 Morehead City, and Michael Trest, 17, Morehead City. Sheriff Robert Bell said each has posted $300 bond for appearance in county court Tuesday.

Recovered by Newport police chief Dan Bell and the sheriff's department Monday night, Sept. 10, were accessories taken from two vehicles Sunday night, Sept. 9.

Recovered were tail lights and license plate hangers from a 1956 Oldsmobile and an exhaust pipe and dashboard panel from a tractor. The Oldsmobile had been involved in a wreck and was parked near the Newport school next to highway 70 when parts disappeared from it Sunday night, Sept. 9.

The parts were taken from the tractor, parked at Newport Tractor and Equipment Co., Saturday night, Sept. 8, according to chief Bell.

The parts were recovered from a service station west of Morehead City, and are now in the possession of the sheriff, according to the Newport chief.

Because the stolen goods was outside the town of Newport, the Newport officer went to the sheriff's department late Monday night, Sept. 10, and asked the sheriff to get a search warrant.

Armed with the warrant, the sheriff, deputy C. H. Davis and chief Bell went to the home of the operator of the service station.

Chief Bell said the operator went to the station, opened the room at the rear of it and there chief Bell identified the items taken from the tractor and car.

The sheriff said the three men apprehended have been charged with a series of thefts extending over a period of time. One of the trio would pull a job one night, two the next time and the "work" was thus apportioned among them.

A blower taken from state highway equipment on the Hibbs road was found in Woolrich's car, the sheriff said. It was destined to be used on a "hot rod." A block from an engine taken from the Highway 70 garage, Newport, operated by Frank Pittman, was found in the woods, Sheriff Bell reported.

The thefts include gasoline and acetylene torch parts taken from Radio Island, and other car equipment stolen from Parker Motors, Willie Gray's junk yard, Morehead City, and Kenneth McCabe's garage, Camp Glenn.

The sheriff said Ingram is charged with stripping four tires, manifold, generator and other equipment from a Chevrolet stolen in August from the beach. The car was driven west of Salter Path where it was stuck in the sand. Skin diving equipment in the car was also stolen.

That was recovered as well as other accessories. The car was owned by Frank G. Smith, Greenville. The sheriff said that the car was ruined by sand being thrown in the gas tank and in the motor, but Ingram denies that he is responsible for that.

Chief Bell said that Ingram admitted smashing a side window, with a pop bottle, out of a Rambler parked at Newport. The Rambler was involved in the same wreck as the 1956 Oldsmobile from which parts were taken.

Barbecue Sale

The men's club of St. James Methodist church, Newport, will sell barbecue dinners in the educational building Saturday, beginning at 5:30 p.m. Everyone is invited.

The Rev. John T. Broome to Serve As Rector of St. Paul's, Beaufort

Assuming duties as rector of St. Paul's Episcopal parish, Beaufort, Monday, Oct. 29, will be the Rev. John T. Broome. Mr. Broome is at present rector of Emmanuel Episcopal church, Farmville.

He went to that parish in April 1960 and at the same time became priest-in-charge of St. Barnabas, Snow Hill. He is youth director for the diocese of East Carolina and serves on the department of Christian education. He has also been on the staff of the Mission Herald magazine.

Born in Orlando, Fla., Dec. 9, 1931, Mr. Broome moved with his family in 1943 to Washington, D. C., where he attended St. Alban School for Boys at the Washington cathedral. He was graduated in 1950, then attended the University of the South at Sewanee, Tenn., receiving his bachelor's degree in Greek there in 1954.

He worked for a year with Southern Railway at Washington, D. C., and coached track at St. Albans.

Two Juveniles Found Guilty Of Thefts in Two Counties

Judge Dismisses Case Against Edgar Willis

● David E. Lane Given Sentence, Appeals

● Motor Vehicle Cases Crowd Docket

Charges of assault and trespass against Edgar Willis, Straits, were dismissed by judge L. R. Morris in county recorder's court Tuesday, on the grounds that the charges were not proved.

The charges arose out of an incident at the home of Joe Gillikin, Otway, in which Willis was shot in the arm with a load of buckshot, causing serious injury to the arm.

Gillikin testified that Willis had come to his home and demanded that Gillikin give him some money. He said Willis took a cigarette lighter, threw a jar at him, and then gave Gillikin a knife, telling him to "start cutting, I'm going to beat you to death and burn the house down."

Gillikin said that he got the shotgun while Willis was out of the room and when Willis came back into the room, told him to halt or he would shoot his arm off. Gillikin said that after he shot Willis, Willis fought with him and stated that he (Willis) would get a gun and "get him yet."

Gillikin said that he told Willis that he had "beat his last man or woman with that arm," and "if you go after me again, I'll shoot off the other arm and both legs."

Willis testified that he had gone to the Gillikin home, was invited in by Gillikin and had a few drinks with him. Willis claimed that Gillikin got mad at him after the liquor ran out, got the shotgun and shot him.

David E. Lane and his wife Rhodanna Lane, Newport, were tried on charges of possession of stolen goods. Lane's wife was excused from the trial due to pregnancy. Testimony showed that Lane and his wife had clothing belonging to another couple who lived in the same house near Wildwood and that the clothing was stolen.

Lane testified that the clothing was given his wife and admitted that he was serving time in the brig at Cherry Point for being drunk on duty. He was sentenced here to three months, but appealed.

The clothing was recovered and returned to the owners, Frank and Connie Stevens, according to deputy sheriff Carl Bunch.

Avon Glover, charged with non-support, was given a suspended two-year term on the roads provided he pay $25 and costs and all other money due the court, and remain of good and sober behavior for five years.

Glover was lectured severely by Judge Morris.

(See COURT Page 8)

Baited Field Hearing Re-Set For Wednesday

Postponed at Jacksonville Wednesday was the hearing involving hunters at Camp Bryan who were allegedly hunting doves over a baited field Sept. 8.

New date for the hearing is next Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. before Charles W. Summerlin, US commissioner.

Apprehended by game wardens were Charles A. Halleck, Republican leader of the House of Representatives; E. Wayne Weant, Greensboro; R. E. Pugh and B. H. Oakes, New Bern; C. Thomas Whittington, Havelock; James S. Lewis Jr. and Dr. David Rose, both of Goldsboro.

All were represented by Albert Ellis, Onslow attorney, with the exception of Whittington. The attorney said he did not represent Whittington.

A few complaint in connection with the case was also filed. Paul Barrow, Havelock, reportedly caretaker at Camp Bryan, is charged with aiding and abetting in the hunting of migratory birds over a baited field.

The hearing was postponed because Ellis said he neglected to send the Republican congressman, and other defendants, papers to sign waiving their appearance at the hearing.

Halleck, following apprehension, said that he did not know the field over which he was hunting was baited. Making the arrests were Malvern Cecil, Beaufort, US game management agent; Bob Butler, deputy agent, and Reuben Crumpton, North Carolina wildlife protector.

Camp Bryan is a private hunting club. Halleck was reportedly the guest of Weant for the weekend at the club.

L. O. Hamilton Takes Command

Ledr. L. O. Hamilton assumed command Wednesday of the Jonquil, Coast Guard buoy tender stationed at the Fort Macon Coast Guard station.

Commander Hamilton replaces Lt. Gabriel E. Pehaim as commanding officer of the Jonquil. Lieutenant Pehaim will command the Fort Macon group.

Commander Hamilton is a native of Seattle, Wash., and came here after being commanding officer of the Coast Guard facilities at Sandy Hook, N. J.

He has been in the Coast Guard since 1941, serving in the Pacific and Alaska during World War II. He later served again in Alaska and as an instructor at the Coast Guard academy.

Commander Hamilton is at present residing at the Edgewater Trailer park with his wife and three children.

County to Host District Rally Of Democrats Oct. 10, Beaufort

Chilula Gets New Skipper

Cdr. George Philbrick, right, turns over command of the Coast Guard cutter Chilula Tuesday afternoon to Cdr. Charles Turner, center. At the left is Lt. Cdr. John F. Mundy, the Chilula's executive officer.

Woman Hurt in Fall in Tar On Front Street, Beaufort

Red Cross Will Reorganize At 7:30 Tonight

Former Fire Chief Dies

Farm Bureau Solicitors Meet at Morehead City

Beaufort Jaycees Elect Ivey Mason President

Beaufort Will Install Meters

Causeway Paved

Emeritus Club Adopts Policy

Cdr. George Philbrick, right, turns over command of the Coast Guard cutter Chilula Tuesday afternoon to Cdr. Charles Turner, center. At the left is Lt. Cdr. John F. Mundy, the Chilula's executive officer.

Woman Hurt in Fall in Tar On Front Street, Beaufort

Mrs. Margaret Parkin, Front street, Beaufort, was bruised and slightly burned at about 2:30 Tuesday afternoon when she fell into some tar on the sidewalk by the First-Citizens bank, Beaufort.

Officer Otis Willis of the Beaufort police force said he heard someone cry out and saw the woman on the walk in the tar. She tried to get up but fell back and he rushed to help her out. He helped her to the Vogue dress shop where her clothes had to be removed because they were completely covered with the tar.

She was taken to the Morehead City hospital by ambulance where she was given emergency treatment for shock and her hands treated for burns. The officer said he asked Mrs. Parkin if she saw the tar before she fell in it. She said she didn't.

She had been in the Vogue dress shop, she said, and when she came out the sun was so bright it temporarily blinded her. She started toward the bank, slipped and fell, she reported.

Mrs. Rudolph Parkin Jr., Mrs. Parkin's daughter-in-law, said that Mrs. Parkin hurt her hip in the fall, but seemed to be getting along all right yesterday.

The tar was laid preparatory to putting asphalt on top of it, to level a dip in the sidewalk. Ronald Earl Mason, town clerk, said the tar had not been heated, because asphalt, when it was to be laid, would be hot.

Officer Willis said there was no barricade around the tarred area.

Property Bought

The spoils area recently bought by the state in the vicinity of Morehead City harbor, was sold by Luther Hamilton, Mrs. Alvah Hamilton, George McNeill and Martine Oaksmith. Mrs. Luther Hamilton was erroneously listed in Tuesday's paper as one of the former property owners.

Beaufort Jaycees Elect Ivey Mason President

Ivey Mason was elected president of the reorganized Beaufort Jaycees Monday night. Other officers elected at the meeting are Guy Smith, treasurer; Howard Jones, secretary; Johnny Willis, external vice-president; and Rupert Bonner, internal vice-president.

A total of 18 new members were welcomed into the club at the meeting at the Surfside restaurant, bringing the present membership up to 25. President Mason announced that the goal was 50 members.

Speaking at the meeting was district vice-president Dan Rand, who explained Jaycee state projects. The club will meet at the Surfside restaurant each Monday at 7 p.m. Young men interested in joining are invited to attend the next meeting Monday night.

Causeway Paved

State highway forces paved the portion of the Beaufort-Morehead causeway between the east end of the Morehead City bridge and the B&M railroad last week. Finishing touches, including shoulder fill, were being put on this week.

US Sen. Sam J. Ervin Will Deliver Address

Carteret county has been selected as the site for the third Congressional district Democratic rally, A. H. James, county chairman of the Democratic executive committee, announced yesterday.

The rally will begin with an outdoor fish fry at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 10, at Beaufort school. The program will follow in the school auditorium.

The principal speaker will be Sam J. Ervin, US senator, who will be introduced by David N. Henderson, congressman from this district. Also present will be members of the council of state and other state candidates on the Democratic ticket.

Robert Stallings, New Bern, recently appointed director of the State Board of Conservation and Development is program chairman. Mr. James will be the toastmaster.

County candidates and special guests will be recognized. Mr. James said that Carteret has not been host to a district rally "in years." The district covers nine counties.

The county Democratic executive committee met Wednesday morning to discuss party organization, campaign problems and procedure. Precinct chairmen and vice-chairmen were present.

Judge Suspends Jail Terms Of Three Men

These suspended terms were given defendants Monday in the Morehead City Recorder's court. Appearing before judge Herbert O. Phillips III was Robert Earl Jones, Morehead City, who got a suspended six-month term on the roads for public drunkenness.

Jones was also fined $10 and the costs and put on good behavior for two years.

Lenwood Willis, Morehead City, got a suspended 30-day road term for assaulting Willie Murphy with his fists. Willis paid the costs and ordered to pay the Morehead City hospital $8.50, Dr. L. J. Morris Jr. $8, and the Morehead City Drug Co. $1.25 for Murphy's treatment for injuries.

Robert S. Miner, Cherry Point, who was tried Aug. 20 for allowing an intoxicated person to drive an auto and allowing an unlicensed person to drive an auto, withdrew an appeal to superior court and a judgment of 90 days in jail, suspended upon payment of $100 and costs was put into effect.

Others in court were Leo Lentzow, New Bern, speeding, $15 and costs; Robert F. Clarkson Jr., New York City, failure to dim lights, costs; Billy West Carlyle, Kingston, two counts of worthless checks, pay checks and costs.

Boyd C. Brown, Morehead City, public drunkenness, costs; Betty Salisbury Sewell, Beaufort, following too closely, being involved in an accident, costs; W. H. Brown, Newport, worthless check, pay check and costs.

A charge of drunk and disorderly against James Edward Morris, Morehead City, was not prosecuted.

A total of 11 other cases were continued until later terms of court.

Beaufort Will Install Meters

The town of Beaufort will install parking meters as planned. The merchants association, at a call meeting Tuesday afternoon, voted 11-8 in favor of meters.

Businessmen appeared at a special town board meeting Tuesday night in the town hall, which was called specifically to hear comments on meters.

The board decided to order the meters and to retain parking on Front street as it has been in the past, diagonal parking on the south side and parallel parking on the north.

Widening the street by 6 feet was completed this week. Merchants appearing at the meeting Tuesday were Jarvis Herring, James Potter, Gilbert Potter, Herbert Haynes, Jesse Hair, Holden Ballou and Gerald Hill.

P. H. Geer Jr. Joins Hospital Board Monday

P. H. Geer Jr. was welcomed as a new member of the Morehead City hospital board of trustees at a meeting Monday night at the hospital. Mr. Geer was named chairman of the house committee, to be assisted by present members, Mrs. J. C. Taylor and Mrs. Walter Freeman.

He succeeds John L. Crump as a member of the board. Mr. Crump had been chairman of the house committee, which looks after the physical plant.

A. B. Roberts, chairman of the board, reported that in reply to an inquiry by David Willis, hospital administrator, Duke Endowment is not interested in providing funds for repair or new construction at the Morehead City hospital, since the county has plans afoot to build a county hospital.

Financial reports were presented for July and August by the administrator. He reported that in the past year the average number of patients per day has been 56, a gain of seven patients a day.

A proposal to adjust rates charged and give Morehead City residents and taxpayers a discount, should they be hospitalized, was discussed. A call meeting to consider the matter further was tentatively set for yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Willis reported that the hospital's temporary conditional license has been renewed for three months.

Mr. Roberts said nothing could be done about making repairs recommended by the Medical Care Commission until the board finds $30,000.

Attending the meeting, in addition to those mentioned, were Dr. John Gainey, Gordon C. Willis, J. R. Sanders, R. L. Hicks, and Mrs. Lettie Sanders, director of nurses.

Emeritus Club Adopts Policy

Emeritus Civic club members who reach the age of 80 and are in good standing will become honorary lifetime members of the club, by virtue of action taken at the club meeting Monday night at the Webb Memorial civic center.

T. D. Lewis, Morehead City, was elected to membership and Charles Schick, chairman of the entertainment committee, was reappointed. H. S. Gibbs was also appointed to the committee. They were commended for their service on the committee during the past year.

J. A. DuBois reported that thousands of Pine Knoll Shores brochures have been mailed throughout the country and mention the Emeritus club as an organization of retired businessmen.

T. B. Sage told of many visitors who came to this area for weekends this summer and could not find sleeping accommodations. He suggested that next summer a list of rooms for rent be compiled and distributed to hotels and motels so that those places might be aided in finding a place for visitors after their accommodations are full.

Mr. Sage also suggested that members make more use of their canes, symbol of Emeritus club membership.

The club will entertain wives and wives of deceased members at a ladies' night Monday, Oct. 15. Place of the party will be announced.

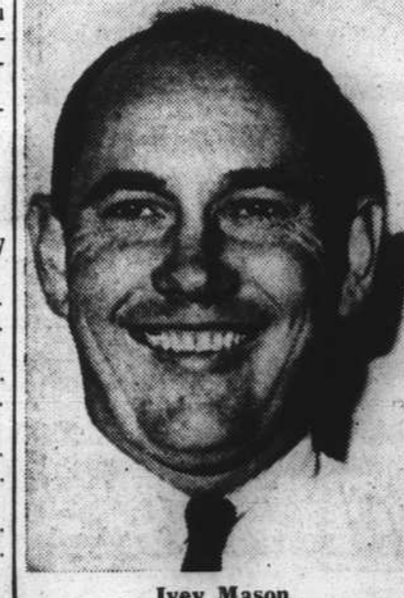

The Rev. John T. Broome to leave Farmville

Tide Table

Tides at the Beaufort Bar

HIGH	Friday, Sept. 21	LOW
2:01 a.m.	8:19 a.m.
2:30 p.m.	9:11 p.m.
Saturday, Sept. 22
3:03 a.m.	9:25 a.m.
3:31 p.m.	10:09 p.m.
Sunday, Sept. 23
4:07 a.m.	10:23 a.m.
4:33 p.m.	11:01 p.m.
Monday, Sept. 24
5:08 a.m.	11:15 a.m.
5:28 p.m.	11:48 p.m.
Tuesday, Sept. 25
6:00 a.m.	12:03 a.m.
6:16 p.m.

Ivey Mason ... new president