County School Budget Adopted By Commissioners

TWO NEW BUILDINGS TO BE ERECTED AND ADDITIONS MADE

The budget for Haywood Coun-schools for the 1940-41 sessions as adopted by the county board commissioners in a brief ses-m held Monday. The budget was submitted by Jack Messer superintendent of county schools, sev-eral days ago, and included the budget for the Beaverdam special charter school district.

Items in the budget are debt service, $95,739.17; current ex-pense, $35,042; capital outlay, $27,-944.36; making a total of $158,-

In addition to approving the budget the commissioners decided to make an extra levy sufficient to build two school houses and an addition to another. These are be-ing planned for Saunook and Henson Cove, and an addition at the Maggie school. In compliance with state regu-

A new building for the colored in the Beaverdam district is also being considered, since the present building has been condemned as unsafe for use, but no action has been taken.

as been taken.

New Buildings Underway

Two new school buildings are ready underway in the county, and with the proposed new build-ings and repairs, Haywood's schools should be well housed. A new concrete building is under construction at Clyde to replace the old brick buildings, and a new auditorium is being erected at the Bethel school.

The Beaverdam system has under consideration a new lunch room at the Beaverdam school which will fill a great need in that community. Work began some two weeks ago, and the building is expected to be completed by early The work is being done by the Works Progress Administra-tion, sponsored by the local board of education.

Director Says Progress Of Band Is Satisfactory

TELLS LIONS NEW UNI-FORMS WOULD INSPIRE FURTHER IMPROVEMENT

J. E. Derryberry, director of the Canton School Band, told mem-bers of the Canton Lions Club Tuesday evening that the band had made remarkable progress in the ten months since its organiza-tion. Making a report to the club, sponsors of the band, he stated sponsors of the band, he stated that the group was remaining ac-tive during the Summer months, having already given several con-certs with more planned in the future, and he complimented the members of the band for the apti-tude they have shown in develop-ing musical talent.

As a demonstration of this de velopment he presented a trump-et quartet selected from the band, who capably rendered several se-lections for the club members. In the quartet were Luther Rollins, Earl Justice, Billy Smart and Bil-

He also declared his belief that acquisition of uniforms for the band in the near future would provide a great incentive to the young musicians to redouble their efforts toward perfection.

Spurred on by this statement the Lions mapped new plans, during the meeting, to enlarge and intensify their drive for funds with which to purchase the uni-forms, setting Labor Day as their goal for the first appearance of the band in full dress.

The Lions membership roster was increased by three at this meeting, as George C. Arthur, Sr., Lockwood Sharp, and Mr. Derry-berry were initiated.

Drive For War Relief Funds Closes Monday

EFFORT WILL BE MADE TO MEET QUOTA HERE NEXT FEW DAYS

A request from the National Red Cross headquarters asks that the drive for War Relief funds be concluded by July 15th. Canton's quota first set at $700.00 and later increased to $1,400.00 has not been met, and officials are anxious that all contributions be paid by Mon-

Over $800 Raised

Report from Miss Sibyl Wilson, treasurer of the Canton Chapter, Wednesday afternoon, showed that $861.66 had been secured here during the recent drive. There is probably a few dollars in the hands of other officials which has not been reported to the treasurer, however if Canton is to meet her quota, there is still more than $500.00 to raise.

Contributors to be added to the Contributors to be added to the list recently published include, Dr. Robert H. Owen, Mrs. Mar-tha Carr., the Friendly Dozen Club, the Four Ace Club, Mrs. Henry Seaman's bridge club; Mrs. A. P. Cline, Mrs. Hattie Morgan, and young people of the First Baptist church, by Mrs. J. R.

The people of Canton have responded in a very fine way, and with the generous donation by the Champion Paper and Fibre Com-pany, was able to meet the first asking promptly. It is hoped that every person who has not made a contribution to this much needed cause will do so during the next few days and help put the drive across in full.

Sewing Continues

A most gratifying response has been given the production chairman in making garments for the relief work. A number of women are knitting sweaters under the chairmanship of Mrs. T. D. Tax Collector Case To Be Heard In September

MACKEY - KINSLAND DISPUTE STILL UNSETTLED

The case of Way Kinsland and the Town of Canton versus J. D. Mackey in the dispute as to who shall hold the tax collector's office here, has been deferred until the September term of superior court Judge Wilson Warlick, of Newton, presiding over the July term of ourt this week in Waynesville, has ordered that the case be tried first on the docket when the Sep-tember term, which is for civil action only, convenes

This case was begun in Sep-tember, 1939, by the board of al-dermen of Canton and Way Kins-land to dispossess J. D. Mackey of the office of tax collector on the plea that the defendant was hold-ing the office after he had been voted out by the board, the vote being two to one. Mr. Mackey claimed that he had been elected at a prior meeting of the board and that the plaintiffs had no right to dispossess him. Mr Kins-land had been substituted in the place of Mr. Mackey by vote of the board.

At the September term, 1939, a jury returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Mackey. The board took an appeal to the state supreme court. The decision was for a new
