

THE EAGLE

Published Weekly. BIRMINGHAM, N. C.

What a lot the infant emperor of China knows for his age.

Six comets are visiting the sun. Stumping the solar system?

An election in Switzerland seems to attract about as much attention as his navy.

Few headline writers can tell of a fall of snow without allusions to "The Beautiful."

A Texas town of 4,000 has not seen a redbird in three years, but has had two lynching parties.

It cost a Missouri man $35 to shoot a redbird and it could not have cost such great sport, either.

About all that can be said in favor of a double chin is that it has some prestige in an argument.

Capt. Elmer Baldwin will try to locate the north pole in 1915. It may be a common jaunt by then.

Grapefruit is beginning to crowd out the cantaloupe, and the latter no doubt sees what his fate is to be.

The megaphone would be a valuable thing on the farm, where it could be used to call the hired man at 4 a. m.

The financial success of some of our popular actors is indicated by the amount of alimony they are able to pay.

We base our prediction of a long cold winter on the fact that this year's chestnut worms are fatter than usual.

Taxes have gone so high in Japan that the little nation may not feel like whipping anybody for several years to come.

On the Isthmus of Panama there are 4,786 bachelors and only 187 spinsters. Go south, young woman—go south!

College women do not indulge in divorce, says one of them. To the prospective marrier this should be warning enough.

Reports from Los Angeles indicate that a drunken Japanese with a loaded gun is as dangerous as a drunken Caucasian.

A masseur has been fined for practicing medicine. It will soon be unsafe to put a wet towel on a sick friend's brow.

The difference between a dinner and a supper is...

They teach logic in colleges and yet the football scores when compared occasionally tend to some most illogical results.

The preachers who decry baseball should raise their own batting average if they want to increase interest in their own work.

In Tucson eggs have been selling for 20 cents apiece. Burbank should hasten to develop a species of cactus that will lay eggs.

The men who plaster their auto number with mud and hurried away after a casualty have done the same to their consciences.

Cleveland has unveiled a statue of Wagner. At this distance it cannot be seen whether it is a statue to Hous or to Wilhelm Richard.

Mrs. Majorie Gould Richards' little daughter is set down as a $30,000,000 baby, but there are others that can not be bought at even that price.

There is a good deal of talk now about "baking cooking," but why not having tried it we shouldn't think a paper bag would taste good, no matter how it may be cooked.

A Kansas judge scoffs at the idea of love at first sight. Probably he is one of those phlegmatic fellows who keep their girls guessing for seven years and then marry in doubt.

It ought to be easy for a good many wives to get new senkiss coats this winter. An eastern court has granted a divorce to a woman because her husband concealed his real character from her when they were married.

A Frenchman who has become enthusiastic about baseball is going to try to make it the French National game. A boys' baseball game would be a Quaker meeting compared with two armies of excitable Frenchmen engaging in the sport.

Goats' milk comes strongly recommended as a new cure for inebrity. Try it on some friend.

"There will be no art in masculine fashions," says an English artist, "until men discard trousers." Tush! Look at the hats some of the men are wearing this year.

The Wrights have a new safety device for aviators. It is not very different from the safety devices on elevators. The rate of risk on aviators will not be reduced.

Queen Louisa of Denmark is 60 years old, but, being a queen, she does not look it.

Speaking of families which go to the dogs, a Massachusetts woman wants a divorce because her husband insisted on keeping eighteen bows in the kitchen.

There is in Boston a woman who believes her cat possesses the soul of a king. Still, even that is perhaps not the most foolish thing that is believed by a Boston woman.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP

Nation Loses Millions by Bad Roads

WASHINGTON.—In the United States there are in all about 2,500,000 miles of roads of one kind or another—enough to reach around the earth 100 times.

It is a character not worthy of the name road. Some of the roads are as bad as the worst of the earth 100 times. Much of this, however, is of a character not worthy of the name road.

The roads in the United States may not be the very worst in the world, but they are bad enough as a whole, that is certain, compared with those of the most civilized countries.

The financial success of some of our popular actors is indicated by the amount of alimony they are able to pay.

Government Busy Cleaning Out Opium

SLOWLY the federal arm is sweeping in the opium fiefs. The recent raid here by internal revenue agents, when $8,000 worth of the drug, prepared for smoking, was confiscated and the distributing organization for the District of Columbia broken up, was one of a series of big hauls in the larger cities of the country in recent months.

In the last five months just such hauls, many larger and more important, have been made by means of the new laws in many cases, which enable to trace the drug to the illicit manufacturers, thus dealing the death blow to it.

They teach logic in colleges and yet the football scores when compared occasionally tend to some most illogical results.

Mammoth Guns to Guard Panama Canal

THE greatest gun ever built will be made part of the coast defense at the Pacific end of the Panama canal.

The gun is being moved because war authorities believe New York is in less danger of being attacked than the Pacific end of the Panama canal.

A Vagabond Dreamer

By DOROTHY DOUGLAS

"You are trespassing on my property!" came a voice from the moonlight.

Blair's startled the clump of bushes. He had supposed the white being sitting about there to be a slim bear from the moon.

"But the gardeners never come down here and uncle is away, so it is all right." The voice was nearer to Blair than before.

"I am eighteen," she said, "and I have a small door of my carriage in the garden." The girl's face was in his eyes and the dreamer's whimsical smile on her lips.

WENT TO BLOCK CHEERFULLY

Walter Raleigh, Under Sentence of Death, Failed to Win Pardon by Last Voyage.

Fate and justice worked some peculiar pranks in the old days. Sir Walter Raleigh, with the death sentence hanging over him for 18 years, falling in his final voyage of discovery, returned to England and went cheerfully to the block.

trouble, by making suffered for many years with a condition pronounced by her physician as uric acid rheumatism and although he treated her, she never obtained relief.

Being well acquainted with Mitan and knowing it had been used successfully very frequently in similar cases, I determined to get her on it. She has bottles with the happiest results. I repeat her entire relief and will always take pleasure in recommending Mitan for uric acid troubles.
