Balance Sheet of a Defeated Candidate.

A defeated candidate in another state gives the following inventory of his campaign losses:
"Lost four months and twenty-three days campaigning; lost 1,340 hours' sleep thinking about the election; lost forty-three acres of corn and a whole sweet potato crop; lost two front teeth and a lot of hair in a personal recounter with opponent. Donated one beef, four shoats and five sheep to country barbeques. Gave away two pairs of suspenders, four caucio dresses, five dolls, and seventeen baby rattlers. Kissed 126 babies, kindled fourteen kitchen fires, put up eight stoves, cut 14 cords of wood, carried 24 buckets of water, gathered seven loads of corn, pulled 476 bundles of fodder, walked 4,046 miles, shook hands 9,086 times, told 11,216 lies and talked enough to make in print 1000 volumes the size of patent office reports. Attended sixteen revival meetings, was baptized four different times by immersion and twice by some other way; contributed $50 to foreign missions; made love to thirty-nine widows; got dog bit thirty-nine times, and then got defeated."

Much Extra Work in March.

It's between seasons, when few persons perspire as health demands. The result is double work for the kidneys, to throw out waste eliminated through pores when persons perspire. Overworked kidneys need help. B. H. Stone, Reading, Pa., writes: "When I need a kidney remedy, I rely on Foley Kidney Pills." Sold everywhere.

Col. George M. Yoder, Catawba county's weather bureau, who forecasted the terrible weather of this month 30 days before hand, predicts that from March 3 to 8 there will be heavy rain, snow or sleet.

Greensboro has taken steps to secure the hospital that is to be erected soon within the confines of the Western North Carolina Methodist conference. The special committee that has in hand the selection of a location will meet in Salisbury March 15.

Forest City citizens are preparing to petition the Legislature to change the county seat of Rutherford from Rutherfordton to Forest City. The latter place agrees to bear the difference in cost of a new court house and what they can redize from the old one at Rutherfordton.

An Honest Letter from an Honest Man.

Ernos Halbert, Paoli, Ind., writes: "I contracted a severe cold this fall and coughed continually. Could hardly sleep at nights. I tried several remedies without relief. Got Foley's Honey and Tar and the first bottle relieved me, curing my cough entirely. I can recommend it for all coughs." Got the genuine. Sold everywhere.

Murder and Suicide.

Johnson City, Tenn., Feb. 24.—With an empty automatic being between them, a well known farmer and his wife of three weeks, were found dead in their home a few miles from here this morning with a bullet hole through their heads. At the coroner's inquest it was announced that their deaths were the result of murder and suicide. According to friends they were apparently very happy.

Not Bothered Any More.

So-called rheumatic pains, grip aches, lame back, sore muscles or stiff joints are the result of overworked, weak or disordered kidneys. E. L. ### News Direct from the War Zone.

Rev. Francis D. Boyer, of New Bedford, Mass., who preached the sermon at Trinity Episcopal church, Asheville, is just back from two years' service with the American ambulance corps in France. Mr. Boyer, who has been through the gamut of experiences, says that the Allies will surely win, but, like other forecasters, places no time limit on the war. He declares that the Allies are making shells and guns behind the lines in France and a drive that will literally astound the world.

Value of Deep Plowing.

(Asheville Citizen.)

The farmers of Western North Carolina are endeavoring to feed themselves and the thousands of others depending upon them from the fertility contained in four inches of soil. Beneath these four inches there is, on the average farm, an untouched storehouse of plant food meaning larger crops and therefore greater financial returns to the tiller of that soil. While The Citizen is quite aware of the fact that it is easy to preach deeper plowing, but somewhat harder for the farmers to actually carry out the practice of really successful farmers, still we believe it possible for most of the farmers in this part of the State to send their plows deeper into the soil than is at present the custom. This, too, may be done without an additional expenditure for more or heavier livestock, as a general proposition.

The practice of shallow plowing, of barely stirring the ground for four inches, sometimes even only a few inches, will not do the same horsepower will carry the plow six and seven inches deep. True, this means greater effort on the part of both horses and the man behind the plow, but if ever in the history of the most ancient of all occupations there was a time when this extra effort was worth while, that time is right now. The United States is called upon not only to feed its own people this year, but a great part of warring Europe. Wheat may be sold right here at Asheville mills for almost $2 a bushel, and it is said the farmers of Buncombe are holding their grain for $2.05 and $2.10. The day when they longed for dollar wheat seems a very long time ago. Corn is keeping pace with wheat, and dogs, cats and chickens are getting on the local market for fourteen cents a pound. Last year they were selling at nine and ten cents a pound.

Deeper plowing means larger yields of corn, which, after all, may properly be termed the staple of Western North Carolina. The wheat crop of the mountains is an impossibility for the first time, a mixture of wheat flour and corn meal placed on the market, making a still stronger demand on the corn crop. Underneath the four inches of soil, which the farmers have been cultivating are the essentials of greater crops, produced at greater effort, it is true, and which now bids fair to be sold at the highest prices ever known in this country. Farmers of Western North Carolina should this spring, if ever, plow deep for the demand to be made upon them for food will be greater than ever before.

Plans for launching a State-wide campaign next year to raise an endowment fund of $1,000,000 for the Baptist colleges and secondary schools in North Carolina were formulated in Raleigh last week at a meeting of the Educational Board of the State Baptist Convention.

Development in Cheese Making.

Nine cheese factories have been established in the western part of North Carolina since war began in 1914. This is one of the most surprising developments of the whole work of the Animal Industry Division of the North Carolina Experiment Station. Before the war was undertaken, the whole state of North Carolina was producing only about 30,000 pounds of cheese and this was made in the homes at different parts of the state. The factories which have been established are now making more than that and at a good profit.

"A Good Old-Fashioned Physic."

Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome physic, thoroughly cleanse the bowels, sweeten the stomach, tone up the liver. For indigestion, biliousness, bad breath, bloating, gas, or constipation, no remedy is more highly recommended. Do not gripe nor nauseate. Give stout persons a light, free feeling. Sold everywhere.

A new cheese man has now been put on by the Agricultural Extension Service to aid the development of cheese factories in the mountains of Western North Carolina. It has been found impossible for Mr. F. R. Parrham, who is now doing this work for the animal industry division, to handle the numerous requests that come in, and for this reason Mr. D. R. Noland, a graduate of Cornell University and a native of Haywood county, has been secured to do the same work which Mr. Parrham is now engaged in. For the present Mr. Noland is teaching in the new short course for cheese-makers and will hold cheese-makers' held at the A. & M. College, Raleigh.

Western North Carolina lumbermen complain that the German embargo campaign is playing havoc with the lumber trade. Every sidetrack from Baltimore to Boston is filled with loaded box cars and it is impossible to get the railroads to accept any lumber for shipment to Northern or Eastern points, says one lumber dealer.

There is a movement on foot in Caldwell county to get the farmers to stock their farms with a few head of sheep. A quarter of a century ago sheep raising in this section was profitable, until the dogs, warts and the mites of them are, destroyed the sheep.

FARMERS!---Just a Word.

Did you have any wheat killed by the late freeze? If so, why not sow oats on the same land? The price of oats is now 82c, 83c per bushel, and the probability is that they will be high this fall. There is good money in oats at 75c.

Have you a drill to sow them? If not, we have a special proposition to make on a DRILL BOGGIE NOW. We know that prices will be higher in the fall. 1917 contracts are at higher figures. We will sell you one of our LATEST IMPROVED EMPIRE JR. GRAIN AND FERTILIZER DRILLS at present prices, giving you full terms, the same as if bought at what showing time, giving you the use of it this spring for nothing, and probably saving you $5.00 to $10.00 in the price. Also bear in mind that forty bushels of wheat will pay for a grain drill now, whereas it took seventy-five to pay for one two years ago.

This is a good BUSINESS PROPOSITION FOR BOTH OF US: WILL YOU TAKE IT? Write today for prices and terms on Harrows, Grain Drills, Corn Drills, &c.

Carrying Babies.

(Monroe Enquirer.)

A man in Missouri was carrying his baby on one arm and stooped down to pick up a spool of thread from the floor and he fell over a bucket of coal. The baby was not hurt, but two of the man's ribs were broken. Now that is just like a man. Why, a woman can carry a baby on one arm and she can have on a pair of high heeled shoes that would pile any man all in a heap, but she can hold that baby and at the same time button her husband's collar, make up a bed, take up the ashes, put a stick of wood on the fire, dust the furniture, wind the clock, pick a pin off the floor, swat a fly on the back of her neck, knock a cat out the milk pan, take the biscuits out of the stove, draw a bucket of water, shoo the chickens out of the garden, put a clean rag on a cut finger, comb out the tangled hair of the little girl, give the boy who needs it a thrashing, give a hungry tramp a hand-out, tie on a hair ribbon, take down the telephone receiver, and hang it up when the conversation is over with the other hand and never strain a muscle and it will not be long in addition to the things named and specified, that she will be casting her vote and ruling the nation with that free hand.

The Sheep and the Dog.

The Lenoir Topic tells of # Caldwell county farmer who realized $28.86 from a sheep weighing 140 pounds, and the raising of which cost not over $5. This The Topic submits as evidence that the farmers should well aware of this fact, but no intelligent farmer in North Carolina is undertaking to embark in any such undertaking until the Legislature makes bold enough to pass a dog tax law. A $2 or $3 tax on every dog would soon fill the hillsides and valleys of North Carolina with flocks of $28.86 sheep. Charlotte Observer.
