JUNIOR 4-H CLUB MEETING

The Junior 4-H club of Burnsville held its regular meeting Friday, March 22. A very interesting program was given on Easter. The meaning of Easter and poems were given by several members of the club.

The members planned their projects for the next meeting and Miss Marie Alley gave a brief talk on plans for the next meeting which will be held on April 12th.—(Florence Anglin reporter).

Severe freezes killed up to 50 percent of the early cabbage plants in Dare County, reports C. W. Overman, farm agent of the State College Extension Service.

FARM AND HOME WEEK

Plans for the 37th annual Farm and Home Week at N. C. State College are already being made. The "educational vacation" for hundreds of Tar Heel farm people will be held July 29 through August 2 this year.

It was the unanimous vote of the committee on arrangements that Governor and Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey be extended an invitation to appear on the evening program: August 1. Both the Governor and Mrs. Hoey made a hit with the farm people in their past appearances the past three years.

Dan M. Paul of State College is secretary of the Farm and Home Week committee, and he has invited suggestions for program features.

donated the public square in Burnsville, possibly the most beautiful public square in any county seat in North Carolina, and for whom the public square is officially named.

Mr. Bailey was an outstanding citizen, an honorable and capable lawyer. He was an outstanding Baptist leader in Yancey County. For many years he was teacher of the Men's Bible class in Burnsville and while teacher of that class he did very unusual work in building up the class to a larger membership than it had ever had before. He was a loyal church worker in all of its activities.

He received his license to practice law in 1913 and since that date was a well recognized lawyer of the State.

In the year 1920 he was elected Solicitor of the 18th Judicial District and during his term of office he performed the duties thereof without partiality and with ability. He was respected by the Bar throughout the 18th Judicial District.

Respectfully submitted,
R. W. Wilson
