DAIRY HERD IMPROVED THROUGH D.H.I.A. WORK

"The proof is in the milk, butterfat, and feed cost," paraphrased John A. Arey, Extension dairy specialist of N. C. State College, in citing an example of the economic value of proper care and good feeding of the dairy herd. He illustrated with records of improvement made by the Caswell Training School Holstein herd at Kinston since it started Dairy Herd Improvement Association work in 1935.

"This herd," Arey declared, "has nearly doubled its milk production and butterfat records, and at the same time has reduced its feed cost per 100 pounds of milk by 62 cents. During the five years that the Caswell Training School herd has been on test, there has been little change in its make-up. There were 44 cows in the herd in 1935; there are 47 cows now.

"The cows that have been culled out were replaced by heifers grown on the farm. Although good bulls have been used, most of the increase in production should be credited to better care and feed rather than to the introduction of better cows."

Four-H Club boys of Sampson County are being taught to make such useful articles as anvils, tarring drags, tables, filing boxes, book cases, book ends, workshop benches, and tool cabinets.

AGRONOMIST ENCOURAGES PRODUCTION OF SOYBEANS

Grow soybeans as a commercial crop, for soil improvement or as a feed crop, Prof. C. B. Williams, head of the State College Agronomy Department, advises North Carolina farmers. He urges commercial growers to increase yields per acre this year in view of the demand for this crop and its products due to the war situation in Europe and the Orient.

Recommending the yellow-seeded varieties, which are in greatest demand by oil millers, Prof. Williams said that Herman, Tokyo, Wood's Yellow and Haberlandt are adapted to the Coastal Plain; Herman, Wood's Yellow, Clemson, and Haberlandt are best for the Piedmont; and Herman and Haberlandt are adapted to the Mountain area.

"The land selected for soybeans should be of at least average productivity," the agronomist declared. "It should be well drained and in proper shape for planting on or about May 1. Although soybeans belong to the legume family, they require moderate amounts of a properly-selected fertilizer.

"Ordinarily," Prof. Williams continued, "little or no nitrogen is needed in the fertilizer mixture if the soil is in a fairly good state of productivity. However, if the soil is poor to medium in fertility, about 2 percent nitrogen should be included in the mixtures."

The fertilizer recommendations of the College Agronomy Department for soybeans are: Coastal Plain, 200 to 300 pounds of a 0-8-4 or a 0-8-6 on fairly productive soils, and 250 to 300 pounds of a 2-8-4 or 200 pounds of a 3-12-6 on poor to medium soils; Piedmont and Mountains, 200 to 300 pounds of a 2-10-4 or 2-10-6 on fairly productive soils, and 250 to 300 pounds of a 2-10-5 or 200 pounds of a 2-15-6 on poor to medium soils.

Because of cold weather, tobacco plants in Craven county are about three weeks late, reports Paul M. Cox, assistant farm agent of the State College Extension Service.

Ralph Byrd of Kannapol is visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Byrd Thursday.

DELEGATES SELECTED FOR 4-H ENCAMPMENT

The two boys and two girls to represent North Carolina's 50,000 4-H Club members at the 14th National Club Camp in Washington, June 12-19, have been announced by L. R. Harrill, 4-H club leader of the State College Extension Service.

They are: Margaret Ellis, 18, of Durham County; Sue Parker, 17, of Jones County; Alfred Greene, 20, of Durham County; and Rudolph Ellis, 20, of Cumberland County.

The selection of these delegates came after a careful study had been made of the records of Tar Heel club members. To be named a delegate to the national camp is considered the highest honor that can be offered a 4-H Club member.

Margaret Ellis, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ellis, Morrisville, Rt. 1, has climaxed her nine years as a club member by serving this year as president of the State 4-H Council. She has participated actively in club work and has held many offices in her club and county.

Sue Parker, the daughter of Mrs. Leon Parker, of Pollocksville, has been a club member for the past six years. In addition to holding high club offices, she has completed projects in clothing, yard improvement, food conservation, and foods and nutrition.

Rudolph Ellis, the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Ellis of Fayetteville, Rt. 6, has been in club work four years and has specialized in crops projects. During this time, he has developed from his peanut project a business which is returning him a net income of more than $100 a month. He has been active in club work and has held important offices in his club and county council.

Alfred Greene, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Greene, of Durham, Rt. 1, has completed nine years of club work, making a total profit from his projects of $1,027.79.

SENIORS TO PRESENT PAGEANT

As a part of the Baccalaureate services, Sunday April 28, the Senior class will present a pageant entitled "America's Hour." The pageant portrays the story of all the nations of the past as they are summoned for judgment before the throne of Brotherhood. The Rev. George K. Neff will deliver the sermon.

During the period from 1929 to 1932, industry reduced its production 59 percent, while farm production, on the other hand, decreased only 6 percent in the same period.

THE REDSTART

(Note: This is the fourth of a series of short articles about the birds of the county. These articles, written by James Hutchins, are published in order that the readers of this paper may more easily identify our native birds. It is suggested that the school children keep each article, and throughout the coming months give some time and thought to this interesting study.)

"Its beauty of form and plumage and its graceful motions place this dainty bird at the head of our list of Wood Warblers. The bird appears to be the incarnation of animated motion and fairly dances its way through the forest."

Its average length is five and one-half inches. The crown, neck, and breast of the male are black; the wings are black and salmon (a shade of orange); the tail is black and salmon; the sides of the breast and the flanks are reddish. The female is of a dull yellow where the male is salmon or red; the crown and neck are grayish; the back is ashy with a greenish tinge.

The Redstart is a very valuable bird. It devours great numbers of leaf-hoppers, caterpillars, and many other insects that are injurious to hedges, orchards, and forest trees.

We should see this bird during the late spring and throughout the summer in Yancey county.—(James Hutchins).
