BURNSVILLE

"So They Say"

About town: Showers and sunshine, and the grass grows very green on the square... Latest decoration there is 10 foot thermometer which Richard Peterson has made to record response to call for Red Cross War Relief funds... Now don't think it's personal when you're asked "What's the temperature?"... Let's see how quickly the mercury can reach the top... Congratulations to us because the Jones family (R. O., Peg and the two dtrs.) are staying here. Doc will enter private practice on July 1. The whole family is popular, and we're glad to have 'em... Nothing so new and fresh looking as coat of white paint. The two Gulf Service Stations, Terminal Cafe, W. C. Ramsey home, Till Bennett home, and Frank Huskins home recently repainted... Mildred Woody off to Berea for month of summer work. Writes back that she likes it fine there!... The Record to Fleet Hamby in San Pedro (U. S. S. Maryland), to Wood Butner in Washington and to Chick and Frank in Norfolk. (All addresses furnished on request, girls, if you're interested)... More youngsters visiting here: Jimmie Honeycutt came down with his grandmother... Bowyer returned from Florida with her grandmother... Amburn Huskins (J. P.'s attractive little daughter) spent several days with grandparents... Then Jack Charles is in Pickens, S. C. and James Ray in Morganton for visits... The Hobsons are here, so that part of town looks "normal" for summer... glad to know that Ruby Hennessee is at home and is improving... and that Ruby Goodin is better after being critically ill for several days... Ruby Glatly, however, entered Biltmore Hospital Wednesday for few days' treatment... Picnics: American Legion and Auxiliary will meet at Carolina Hemlock on next Thursday, and the Little Theatre following Monday (July 1)...

Will some one please check up on Class of '40 of Burnsville High School! We learn of marriages right along... June King at Christmastime... Wilmo Roland to Billie Peterson next... then Virginia Silcox to Charlie Miller on May 11, and later Wilma Franklin... Please let us know about any others!

MORE ABOUT DOLPH WILSON

resort, and to it many visitors came, especially those who hunted and fished through the section. Mr. Wilson established a hunting and fishing club and built a lodge at Escota for the sportsmen.

It was as a bear hunter, however, that Mr. Wilson was most widely known. He carried on this tradition from his father, Big Tom Wilson, who killed 114 bears in his lifetime. Dolph retired from the sport, however, when he had killed 113 as he did not wish to break his father's record.
