The most exciting happening in this community took place last Sunday when a mad dog attacked Tilden Fender near Bald Mtn. and bit him severely in the leg. The dog then went down Big Creek near the home of Martin Edwards and passed two of his little girls on the highway, attacked one of them and left a bad wound on her leg. It then went further down the highway near Hensley's store and bit Edd Pate of Bald Creek on the leg. All three who were bitten are taking treatment. Allison Edwards killed the dog but it is not known where it came from or to whom it belonged.

Scott Hensley and Ollie Williams are leaving for the C. C. C. Camp.

Principles of Sound Bank Management

THREE broad objectives toward which the management of this bank constantly strives are:

- 1. To accept and safeguard the funds of depositors and to be prepared to meet promptly and fully the demands of depositors for their funds when they desire them.
2. To make the bank useful in the business and financial development of the community by offering a complete and well-rounded banking service, and to satisfy all sound credit needs.
3. To operate at a reasonable profit to enable the bank to build up reserves and surplus for the protection of depositors and stockholders, and to reimburse the stockholders for the use of the capital which they invested in the bank.

ANNOUNCING . . . .

The Opening of a Prescription Department at the Soda Shop

The Soda Shop is now operating as Pollard's Drug Store, under the same management, with a Registered Pharmacist in charge of the Prescription Department. This department has been added to our store to enable us to serve you more efficiently. With the support of you—the people of Burnsville and Yancey County—we feel our prescription department will in a short time be so well stocked that there will be no need for anyone to carry a prescription out of town.

You will get exactly what your Doctor prescribes when our registered Pharmacist fills your prescription.

You are cordially invited to visit our store and inspect this new department at all times.
