SURPLUS SEED AVAILABLE FOR FLOOD, DROUGHT AREAS

The State College Extension Service has compiled a list of sources of surplus legume and small grain seed available for the drought and flood stricken areas of North Carolina. A copy of this list has been placed in the hands of every county farm agent in the State.
John W. Goodman, assistant Extension director acted promptly when it was evident that the dry weather in July and the heavy rains and floods in August had destroyed thousands of acres of food and feed crops, and many bushels of stored seed. He called upon Extension agents to report on seed surpluses in their counties.
The survey showed that there are available: 124,835 bushels of oat seed, 61,232 bushels of wheat, 18,500 bushels of barley, 1,000 bushels of rye, 30,000 pounds of crimson clover, 17,000 pounds of Italian rye grass, and 5,000 pounds of vetch.

BURNSVILLE — "So They Say"

The weather: Perfect! Sound effect of the week: School bells ringing.
News story of the week: Mrs. Weilage's account of invasion of Holland, events in Europe and return on "American Legion". Bobby and his dog were photographed on arrival (picture in N. Y. paper), and also news reeled.
Arrivals of week: The Frank Howell's son—the Carroll Rogers son—and a week-ago arrival, the Leonard Boone's daughter.
Wedding of the week: Olive Briggs' to Clarence Belgard.
On vacation: John and Annie Bennett from Raleigh... Ralph Byrd down from New Jersey... Grace Hubbard back from Charlotte... Cliff Clevenger to New York... and Tony King who didn't go far from home.
Vacation time is over, definitely, for school teachers. Plenty children at B'ville Hi to keep all hands busy. Fine that high school students are in new building, and fine too that they'll have public school music with Lala D. Bailey teaching.
Buying and selling: Bruce Westall has bought half interest in Y. and B. Store and is getting things lined up for fall season... Doc and Ruth Whisnant will soon move to home purchased from the Charles Byrds... and Aldine Pleasant has sold her cottage on Orchard Drive to the Vinsons of Sebring, Fla., confirmed summer visitors to Burnsville.

RESOLUTION

The following resolution was unanimously adopted at the last meeting of the Earl Horton Post of the American Legion.
WHEREAS, the greater part of the world is at war and the armed minions of a despotic government already have covered the face of continental Europe like a scourge; and
WHEREAS, there remains but one nation striving in mortal combat to preserve the principles of democracy, of right and justice, and of individual freedom, and to save the world from domination by a totalitarian state; and
WHEREAS, our President and Commander-in-chief has declared that a limited emergency exists in our Country and has created a National Commission with extraordinary powers to direct the activities and industries of our Nation in its war defense program, upon which Board he has chosen to place a citizen of our own State; and
WHEREAS, it is timely and necessary that all organizations, groups and individuals co-operate to the fullest extent in the furtherance of national preparedness;
NOW THEREFORE
BE IT RESOLVED, that these organizations do earnestly commend and approve the actions and deeds taken and done for the protection of our Nation, our State and our Community, and for the everlasting preservation of our National prestige and integrity; and in recognition of the existence of a grave emergency, do hereby pledge and under-she said that she could not find out, but that on some occasions a German plane shot down will change insignias and become a "British" plane.

In Holland now a person is a prisoner from the rest of the world, not often does mail from the outside world reach the people there, and every message from there is very strictly censored. Even the Dutch East Indies are absolutely cut off from the parent country. Dutch money is not worth anything and no one is permitted to take any from the country. Fortunately, Mrs. Weilage had a sufficient amount in U. S. Traveler's Checks to pay her passage from Holland.
In describing the return to the United States Mrs. Weilage said that they experienced great difficulty in arranging passage. The ship, American Legion, delayed sailing for two weeks in order to bring as many Americans home as possible. In Holland as in other countries there were many who were seeking to leave. Arrangements were made for 65, then they were told that none could leave. The next day, however, the authorities said they had picked twelve, and Mrs. Weilage and her son were included in this number.
They rode from Amsterdam to Berlin by crowded troop trains and from there to a port in Sweden. From there it was an incredibly hard bus trip of 14 hours over very rough roads to Petsamo where they embarked. The American Legion sailed with 876 passengers, and with the solemn word from Germany that she would not be responsible for the safety of the ship.
In answer to the question whether or not the passengers knew of this danger, Mrs. Weilage said that they did as many of them had private radios and the news spread rapidly. However, there was no panic or confusion and everyone remained calm and cooperated wonderfully on the difficult journey back. The ship was very crowded and Mrs. Weilage said that for a week she was quartered in the "Brig", but that was about the best place on board as there was more room and more privacy than anywhere else!
The crossing was uneventful except for a severe storm and the ship landed safely in Brooklyn. There were no convoys on the voyage, despite report to the contrary.
At present Mrs. Weilage and her son will remain here but future plans are indefinite as yet.

take to render to our Government our utmost help and assistance in the advancement of the cause, plans and works of and for a speedy, adequate and complete preparation for the defense of our home and Country.
This Resolution adopted by unanimous vote of The Earl Horton Post 122 of The American Legion, and of its Auxiliary, Department of North Carolina, at Burnsville, N. C., August 27, 1940
Augustus Peterson, R. A. Charles, Earl Wilson, Committee.

HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENTS' NOTES

(Maria A. Alley, Agent)
The Southern Highlands and Penland School of Handicraft entertained the National Conference of Handicrafts at Penland from August 28 to September 4, 1940. Allan Eaton, author of "Handicrafts in the Southern Highlands" presided at the conference. The mornings were spent in hearing leaders in the world of handicrafts—discuss their special interest while the afternoons were spent in working in metals, pottery, weaving or the minor crafts.
Representatives of the various agencies and schools from twenty-three states were in attendance.
Miss Martha E. Robin and Miss Maria Alley, Home Demonstration Agent, attended.
Miss Anna C. Rowe, Western District Agent, Extension Service, spent Monday in Burnsville.
Miss Willie Hunter, Clothing Specialist, Extension Service, stopped in Burnsville enroute to Penland for National Conference of Handicrafts.
The Home Demonstration Clubs will have exhibits of special interest at Yancey County Fair.

KIDNEY STAGNATION IS WORSE THAN CONSTIPATION

Because we Treat Constipation at The Onset, While We Neglect Our Kidneys Indefinitely
No other organ in your body is of more importance than your kidneys. For in your kidneys there are nine million tubes which must work day and night to filter the fluids and keep the system free from wastes, acids, poisons which, if permitted to remain, may cause serious kidney and bladder troubles.
It is no wonder then that Nature often calls for help to clean out the kidneys. So if you are troubled with Getting-Up-Nights, Leg Pains, Backache, Nervous Headache, Dizziness or Loss of Energy, due to functional kidney disorders, try KIDANS, the famous kidney remedy which aids Nature to flush out the kidneys, to filter all wastes, to prevent kidney stagnation.
KIDANS is Safe and Reliable. Thousands report entire satisfaction. Taken according to directions, KIDANS will give splendid results. Try KIDANS, Buy it at our Special Price offer on two boxes. Use one box. If not satisfied, return unopened box and GET YOUR MONEY BACK.
