"So They Say"

We can't believe that it's he week before Christmas that one week from today old Santa will come round to visit good boys and girls . . . and, children, we're very sorry that for the first time in years we haven't had room for those nice "Letters to Santa" that you've written and sent to us. Hope that he'll bring you all the . things you want anyway. And we'd like to quote the letters that say: "Bring me war stamps so that. I can help the war to be over soon". . . . That's a fine thing to ask! . . . Letters from the men in camp all send their "Best wishes for a Merry Christmas" to folks back home and wel know that they're thinking of us just as surely as we're thinking of them. . . It still isn't too late, either, to send them a cabled greating message

Brief comment: College boys and girls begining to arrive for the holidays.... Real estate deal of the week: Edge building sold to Sam Yancey of Marion. Glad to learn that the G. B. Woodys will be back with us. We've missed them for the past year. He's with Yancey Cyanite company. Lieut. Myron Hamilton now in San Francisco. . . Sam Byrd Bennett here for few days. . . . Gus Fender and Oscar K. Sparks now in Africa. . . . An especially nice Christmas letter from Chick Butner "somewhere in Pacific"...and we heard last week that Frank had been promoted to the rank of boatswain. '. . The Bingo party tonight promises to be most happy affairgrand prize will be a pound of coffee which Ann Briggs was carrying udly this morning. of pre-ration days! Back home, just in time for the "winter season", the Nichols who have been visiting Ollis in California.

Note: If your electric bill is a little larger this time it's because you'll be paying for a month and third at the some time. . . Meters weren't read as usual as the REA which has purchased the property will take over on 18th. . . . By waiting to read meters everything will be cleared

We've heard of "Golden Burley" and we've about decided that that's the right name for it. . . . Fine tobacco and fine prices. . . and many of the farmers! are investing part of it in War Bonds and that's fine

I TOOK MY TOBACCO TO BOONE . .

And sold it on the market there. I am certainly well pleased with the way officials of the warehouse treated me, and the way in which sales were conducted.

My tobacco was sold without my having to wait over, and the price was better than I expected. I sold 1822 pounds for $911.90—an average of 50c a pound.

The buyers at the Boone Market are certainly watching for Burley from Yancey County.
