IN MEMORIAM

Jackie English, July 4, 1939—March 4, 1943.

Over yonder on the hillside In the shadow of a tree In a precious mound so sacred, Is one so dear to me.

It is our darling little Jackie, Underneath that mound of clay, He has been sleeping there, so peacefully, For one long year today.

Oh! our hearts do bleed in sorrow, And our eyes stay full of tears, And our home, oh! so lonely, Without our little dear.

But there is a brighter picture, To dispel this terrible gloom, 'Tis the Savior softly calling Jackie from the silent tomb.

He will call and Jackie will answer, On that Resurrection Morn, Then our hearts will leap with rapture, Never more to pain and mourn.

Over yonder on the hillside In the shadow of a tree Heaven guard the little mound That holds one so dear to me.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig English and Joy.

"So They Say"

The weather: We knew it wouldn't last! That spring time, we mean, so from up in the seventies we are back below twenty again. And rain! The ground should be plenty wet now for the farming season.

About town: The Red Cross drive is going well, all reports indicate—and the final reports from the 4th War Bond Sale show over $150,000 bought in the county . . . and speaking of "drives", we are glad to know that the Boy Scouts are taking over the waste paper collection drive as we know they'll get this very important job done. They'll collect on Saturday, so notify any of them and please try to have your paper either tied up in small bundles or in boxes so it will be easy to handle. That will help them greatly.

New son: Alden and Stell Honeycutt's in Raleigh. . . Bob Cheadle writes to the folks in Yancey (via the Record, letter on page 2) from "Somewhere west of Burnsville". Hope that he and others will soon be home. . . Air medal awarded Sam J. Huskins, Jr. for flights against enemy. . . Picture in paper: Lonnie Banks and prize winning eggs at the poultry short course in Asheville. . . Real estate purchases: Leonard Biggs bought house where the Connelys lived. . . The Riley Kings the house where they've been living from E. N. Stamey—and Plato Penlands the Hamilton house on Main Street. . .

Basket ball news: The swell girls team from Bee Log won tournament Tuesday. Burnsville teams invited to enter western N. C. tournament at Mars Hall today. . . and the boys county meet on the Burnsville court Friday. Preliminary games at 12 and 1, and finals at 8. Be there to root for the team from your school. . .

PLEASANT GROVE

We the members of the Pleasant Grove Baptist church are very sorry our pastor, Rev. Holland Black is sick. We trust and pray he will be better and back with us soon.

EVERY EXTRA CORD OF PULPWOOD BRINGS VICTORY NEARER

Right now one of the critical war-material shortages is pulpwood. And this shortage can be overcome. There is plenty of pulpwood to be cut. The woods are full of it. The only problem is to get it cut.

Cutting Pulpwood Is An Essential War Job

If you are in a position to get out some pulpwood—and every cord helps—you can contribute that much to an early victory and be well paid for your work. The nation looks to you for help! For information, ask your local pulpwood committee.
