FEEDING IRISH POTATOES TO HOGS

Culled Irish Potatoes, when thoroughly cooked, can replace at least one-half the grain ration for hogs. Raw potatoes are not palatable and are of no value as a hog feed.

3 1/2 bushels of potatoes, when cooked and fed with grain, are equal to one bushel of shelled corn, ground wheat, or ground barley. When corn costs $1.50 per bushel, one bushel of Irish potatoes is worth about 43 cents for feeding hogs.

When feeding culled potatoes, one-half pound of salt should be added to 3 1/2 bushels of potatoes when they are cooked, and this amount fed with one bushel of grain and 10 pounds of fishmeal, soybean oil meal, or other protein supplement. For full feeding a 100-pound hog, it will require about 7 lbs. of potatoes, a lb. of grain and 1-3 to 1/2 lb. of protein supplement, daily.

Some farmers make up a feed for hogs on pasture by cooking the culled potatoes, ground grain and protein supplement together. They fill an ordinary wash-pot with 1 bushel of potatoes, 2 or 3 gallons of ground grain, about 2 quarts of protein supplement and add to this mixture about a bucketful of water, 1 handful of salt and 2 handfuls of ground limestone. This mixture is cooked until the potatoes are done, adding a little more water if necessary. This will make a daily feeding for about 10 fattening hogs that average around 100 pounds each. If mature dry sows are to be fed, the amount of potatoes in the mixture may be doubled and enough of it fed to keep the sows in good breeding flesh.

Since potatoes contain very little vitamins and minerals, the hogs should have free access to green pasture and a good mineral mixture.

in December, 1943, and the 1943 merchant ship tonnage delivered was 16 times the amount delivered in 1941, according to the Secretary of Labor. . . WPB reports that housewives will have to get along with short supplies of oilcloth for some time to come because of the war need for critical materials used in its manufacture.

HOUSE BURNS

The home of Mrs. Biddie Wallace, with all household furnishings and clothing, was completely destroyed by fire Tuesday. Citizens of the community have been asked to donate anything that will aid her in replacing her lost possessions.

LETTERS FROM MEN IN SERVICE

Record: Please send my paper to the new address. Again I thank you for sending the paper for the past 19 months.

This is the only week it has ever missed me, of course it will arrive later.

With this I send my best regards to all the people of Yancey, a big hello to all, and we sure appreciate the wonderful work you people are doing. May I ask that you all pray harder each day that we may have our Victory soon.

Joe Beaver, Camp Grant, Ill.

The following letter was received recently by Mrs. Agnes Ayers from her son who is now in England:

Dear mother, My thoughts are with you today. I am thinking of the sacrifices you made for me, of what I learned from you. My prayer is that I may not disgrace the treasure of life that you have given me.

I am not one who wears his heart on his sleeve. Perhaps when I left home you thought I didn't care but I did and I am man enough to admit that I've been a bit homesick at times, and I've resolved to live worthy of you.

I am trying to develop a clean, healthy body and a good, manly character. You know the problems that face our nation, and I have my duty to perform. I am ready. I shall face the future unafraid and always there shall be with me the cheerfulness of your smile, the inspiration of your teaching and the courage you have bred in me.

We had an inspiring church service this morning. Our chaplain paid a beautiful tribute to the mothers of America and it made me feel close to you. Let's both keep our chins up and keep our faith in each other and in God.

R. W. Ayers, Gunner's Mate 3c.

Record: Thanks a lot for the paper which I have been getting for 14 months now and I enjoy reading it just a whole lot.

It's really nice to know all the news back home, and I want the paper to keep coming to me no matter where I'm stationed if possible. I'm with the 12th Armed Division and like the army fine.

I hope victory will soon come so all of us boys can be back home for good.

If you will change my address to the one below I'll get the paper sooner.

Shelby Ray, Serv. Co., 23rd Tank Bn, APO 262, Camp Barkeley, Texas.

Cpl. Nick Whitson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Whitson of Sioux, N. C., has been home on furlough. His sister and brother-in-law, and niece, Mr. and Mrs. France Harris and baby of Erwin have been visiting his parents too. His cousin from Erwin also spent the week end with him.

His mother gave him a birthday supper. Mr. and Mrs. Russel Whitson and Miss Fern Miller were present.
