EN-AR-CO

BURNSVILLE— "So They Say"

The weather: Unbelievable! Webster was right about the time for Indian Summer—at least this year it seems as if it will last on into November. . . . We've heard a number of people remembering the big snow we had on Oct. 23 some 20 years ago. . . . Sign of the times: Mary Alice Westall's Jack-O-Lantern grinning out the window at the passers by. . . . We'll take our hurricanes second hand every time. Vivid account from our Jacksonville correspondent of the most recent one. . . . New son: the Frank Englishs up in Flint, Mich. . . . and Juanita Masters and young daughter are now at home. . . . Folks very happy that the Barbers will be here for another year. . . . Grace K. Hubbard (Sr. off to California to spend winter with Virginia there. . . . Lucky: Bill Banks whose entire cadet class in San Antonio was given leave for few days. . . . Riley King out again to visit friends and enjoy fine weather. Heard that John was coming home from Pacific area, and that helped a heap. . . . Bill Fouts home for few days from Marine unit at Chapel Hill. Reports back for assignment to duty at Marine Base. . . . Herrick Peterson and room mate, members of N R O T C at Duke, here also. . . . Much picture making this week. Photographers were here at the Nu-Wray and the youngsters in particular "watched the birdie". . . . Then Bill Sharpe, director of state publicity department, and John G. Hemmer photographer, were here gathering material for post war booklet about N. C. Among other attractions, the Parkway will be featured and they went over to get pictures, etc. We won't tell who the Burnsville folks are who posed in some of the shots but we'll be waiting eagerly to see the results. . . . Mail ALL Christmas packages by Dec. 1! That's the latest word we have, so it's time to get busy on that list. . . . War Fund drive reports are encouraging! One person we know expressed it this way: Our county quota is like the proverbial drop in the bucket, and all the things the War Fund takes care of would go on anyway. If we did not give, however, the aid to members of our own fighting forces and our allies would be curtailed a little. The greatest loss though, would be to ourselves—that we did not share in this great undertaking. "It is more blessed to give than to receive" holds true in this also, and we should not forget that it is a privilege to share with those less fortunate than we are.

To keep the tops of blankets and quilts clean, bind the edges with pieces of cheesecloth about sixteen inches wide. These can be tinted to match the blanket and are easily removed when soiled.

Let the alarm clock work for you. An alarm clock can and should be used for many purposes other than waking one up in the morning. When cleaning or working upstairs or in a room where there is no clock, let the alarm clock call you any time you wish in order to start a meal; or let it announce the time for a favorite radio program. When gardening, set the clock and let it call you to lunch.

After painting kitchen woodwork, it is a good idea to rub wax on the places which will be used most. The wax will protect the paint from both spotting and washing and can be renewed when worn off far more easily than the paint.
