EN-AR-CO

BURNSVILLE—
"So They Say"
The weather: Still just the way we like it—and Kiffen Hennessee who's in from California says that he's seen more sunshine in the few days he's been home than in several weeks previously! Of course, we don't know what part of Cal. he comes from, or would that make any difference?

About town: We think that Charles Radford had wonderful idea about Navy Day—he came home to celebrate! He deserves a visit back though, after two years away. . . . Sorry to have the V. H. Freemans leave after 2 years at Theatre here. O. D. Calhoun of Spruce Pine is pinch hitting till regular manager comes. . . . Town strangely deserted Wednesday morning. Opening of deer season accounted for that but we've heard no yarns of great kills. . . . The envy of everyone who's seen it is the banquet table which W. H. Holleman made for Rush . . . Henry Pleasant home from hospital. . . .

Did you see the exhibit of menu covers which some of Junior Red Cross members made for Christmas Day dinners in Navy hospitals and on ships? A few of the first ones to come in from schools in county were placed on display in Drug Store window—and they were really most attractive! . . . That begins so many Christmas activities that we've heard of and would like to tell you about. Pearl Huskins, chapter chairman, and Eleanor Rogers, Junior chairman, went over to Moore General hospital, and found out from the Red Cross director the things which are being requested for Christmas there at the hospital. They are asking for things from chapters in this section as it will be much easier. . . . We'll print the entire list, and there have already been promises of candy, cookies, etc. and a number have said that they would be glad to give a box (They're asking for 3000 of these, valued at $1 each). . . . Can't we start right now to getting things lined up so that we can help out with this? If you would like to contribute any of the things asked for please drop Mrs. Huskins or Mrs. Rogers a card at once. . . . Or, if you would rather give the money and let the Junior Red Cross or a committee from the chapter buy the gifts and wrap the box, you may send the dollar with your name. Someone has suggested that a box be placed at the Drug Store and that the slips promising donations, etc. be left there. . . . There are already plans begun for the Juniors to make tree decorations and favors for the trays. Certainly, it seems to us, if we can not have our own boys with us, that the thing we will get the most pleasure from is helping make the day brighter for some one who is also far from home.

The list of things is as follows: Homemade cookies for ward parties, favors for bed patient trays, homemade candy, nuts, fruits, cigarettes; Christmas gifts for each soldier (3000) to be $1 in value; Christmas tree decorations for trees on each ward; Christmas wrappings and Christmas cards. All presents should be in by Dec. 15.

The chapter can furnish a list of suggested articles if you wish to wrap the box yourself; there'll be a committee perhaps in each school or church or community, to help with this. More about this next week.
