This Christmas, give Victory Bonds.
For a sure-to-satisfy gift, choose Victory Bonds.

Christmas is always a welcome event with us, for two reasons: First, because we enjoy the spirit of friendliness that is all-prevailing; second, because it affords an appropriate opportunity of expressing our sincere appreciation for your valued patronage.

It has, indeed, been a pleasure to serve you, and in sending you our best wishes for a Merry Christmas we do so with the hope that the Christmas season of 1945 will transcend all of its predecessors in real happiness for you.

Santa Claus would never get down the chimney with our load of good wishes for a Merry Christmas to the people of this community, because he just couldn't squeeze through.

You've been mighty good to us and we appreciate it beyond words. We want you to enjoy Christmas this season of 1945 as never before.

THREE SQUARE MEALS A DAY
Seeing a truckload of pulpwood headed down a road or rail line toward some nearby pulp mill may, to some people, mean nothing more than that someone is delivering a load of pulpwood.

But to others, especially to those people who bother to use their imaginations, it is a symbol of plenty—a reminder of one of the most important reasons why Americans are the best fed people on this earth.

That same truckload of pulpwood may shortly come out of the pulp and paper mills transformed into waxed paper cartons for breakfast foods, as moisture-proof packaging for deep-freeze lockers, as interlined bags for flour, as glassine wrapping for bacon strips, or in any one of literally hundreds of thousands of specialized packaging units.

Paper has been a major factor in making it possible for the average American to eat more and better food in greater variety. Foods our grandparents never even heard of are on our tables daily. Fresh vegetables the year round and tropical fruits in winter are becoming commonplace.

Paper is likewise responsible for the fact that foods processed in this country are the purest and safest in the world, protected from bacteria and spoilage by unique packaging.

Paper, of course, has been essential to the development of the small unit type of packaging that has made it possible for foods to be produced at low cost in huge plants near the farms and distributed easily and cheaply to every part of the nation.

OUR FOREFATHERS
celebrated Christmas sometimes under the greatest of difficulties, to say nothing of danger. Today, in warm, lighted homes we welcome the arrival of Yuletide, without thought of those early hardships. It might make our Christmas a little happier, our hearts a little more thankful, to take thought of these things.

In the reverent spirit of this glorious season we now wish each and every one of you the deep joys which only Christmas can bring.

Christmas Is All of These
Christmas is the good will shared at the family hearth; the carol sung together; the candle in the window, the glowing faces gathered around the festive board. And it is much more—ever so much more!

We cannot begin to put into words all that Christmas is, nor begin to express how ardently we wish for you the complete enjoyment of Christmas. So, all we can say to you, kind friends, is Merry Christmas to You.
