Plans Completed for Guernsey Sale Here Friday, April 26

Increasing interest has been shown this week in the Guernsey Promotional sale which will be held tomorrow at the Zeb Young farm.

The sale is sponsored jointly by the North Carolina Guernsey Breeders' Association, N. C. State College Extension Service, the Yancey County Guernsey Breeders' Association and the Carnation Milk Company.

Among the outstanding dairy experts who will attend the sale are W. W. Fitzpatrick, manager of the Quail Roost Farm, Durham who will read the pedigrees of the animals offered for sale; John A. Arey, who is in charge of extension dairying, and F. R. Farnham, extension dairymen; Dr. William Moore, state veterinarian and secretary of the North Carolina Guernsey Breeders' association; R. A. McLaughlin and G. D. White, field men for the American Guernsey cattle club.

On Thursday evening a dinner will be held at the Burnsville school lunchroom for the visiting dairymen, members of the Yancey County Guernsey club and other farmers of the county, and business men of the town and county.

The sale will be held at 1 o'clock Friday and is expected to attract an unusually large number of dairymen and other interested persons from a wide section. Twenty of the state's leading Guernsey breeders will offer for sale 5 bred heifers and cows, 1 open cow and 21 heifers, 6 to 18 months old.

Conditions of Sale

Prospective buyers are assured that every animal is pledged to absolute sale if there are 2 or more bidders; By-Bidding is prohibited (no owner can bid on his own animal); all animals have health certificates stating that they are free of T B or Bang's disease, and that they are from healthy herds; registration papers will be transferred to the buyers by the sellers at the sellers' expense.

F. B. I. LAW ENFORCEMENT CONFERENCE

FBI Law Enforcement Conference for 20 Western North Carolina Counties will be held at the Langren Hotel, Asheville, N. C., on April 30, at 2:30 P. M.

Among those from Yancey county who are to attend this important conference are: Ralph E. Neill, and Noah Whitson, Chief of Police, of Burnsville.

The chairman at this conference will be Special Agent in Charge Edward Scheidt of the Charlotte FBI Office, and the speakers on the program will include Colonel H. J. Hatcher, Commanding Officer, North Carolina Highway Patrol; Walter F. Anderson, Director, State Bureau of Investigation; Chief of Police John M. Gold of Winston-Salem; Hubert Jarvis, Asheville and Buncombe County Juvenile Court Judge; and Brandon P. Hodges, Buncombe County Attorney.

Conferences of this type were instituted on a nationwide basis by Director John Edgar Hoover of the FBI in 1940 and have been held periodically since that time. Attendance at the meeting is restricted to law enforcement officials. Objectives of the conferences include the exchange of information regarding crime and criminals, the discussion of present day law enforcement problems and techniques, and the promotion of cooperation among the various law enforcement agencies.

OF GREATEST IMPORTANCE

An event of the greatest importance to the farmers and dairymen of the county will take place on next Friday, and we wish to urge every farmer of the county to attend.

The first promotional Guernsey sale ever to be held in the county is scheduled for next Friday at 1 o'clock at the Zeb Young farm east of Burnsville. The men who will offer animals for sale are among the outstanding Guernsey breeders of this section. The animals offered are from the finest Guernsey herds in the section. Many of the outstanding men of the state Guernsey association, and two representing the American Guernsey association will attend.

It is with extreme satisfaction that we have noted the recent rapid improvement and development in growing both beef and dairy cattle in the county. However, unlimited possibilities remain; expansion in these fields has just begun in this section. An event which offers opportunity for growers to obtain outstanding animals for their herds here, and at the same time offers the opportunity for farmers and civic leaders here to meet specialists and leaders in the dairy industry, should attract every farmer in the county.

An event of this importance deserves all the publicity that can be given it, and it deserves the support and attendance of every person interested in the progress and advancement of the county.

Cancer is the greatest killer of American women between the ages of 35 and 55—the second greatest killer of American men.

The North Carolina Crop Improvement Association will conduct its next annual meeting in Shelby, probably in January, 1947.
