GOODLAKE-BENNETT

Mrs. Julia A. Blake announces the marriage of her daughter, Louise Blake Goodlake of Asheville and Burnsville to Andrew Kilgore Bennett of Spartanburg, S. C. son of Mrs. Annie K. Bennett of Woodruff, S. C.

The marriage was solemnized by Rev. W. F. Harris in the Methodist parsonage of Lyman, S. C., April 13th (Saturday) at 5 P. M.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith of Duncan, S. C. They will reside in Spartanburg.

HALL-MIERLEY

Miss Glenna Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shelby G. Hall of Micaville, was married to Pfc. Robert Doyle Mierley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle L. Mierley of Altoona, Pa., in the Beechwood Chapel, Pittsburgh, Pa., at 3:30 o'clock Saturday, March 2.

Sheldon L. Bard of Pittsburgh, a friend of the family, officiated using the double ring ceremony. The vows were spoken before an improvised altar banked with palms, ferns and other plants.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mr. Bard, "Because" and "The Wedding Hymn" were sung by Samuel Elliott of Baltimore, Md.

The wedding party entered to the wedding march from "Lohengrin" played by Mrs. John Main. The bride, who was given in marriage by a close friend, Russell A. Schell of Pittsburgh, wore a gown of white duchess satin with lace insertions and the back ending in a long train. The fitted bodice was shirred in front and fastened with pearlized orange blossoms. The leg-o'-mutton sleeves ended in points over the hands. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was attached to an Elizabethan bonnet made of rose point lace. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and sweet peas.

Miss Rheda Pope of Altoona was maid of honor. She wore a blue gown of taffeta and net with shirred neckline and puff sleeves. Her headdress was of blue mixed flowers with shoulder length veil. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations.

Paul A. Mierley of Altoona served as his brother's best man, and ushers were Earl Main and Robert Havener, both of Pittsburgh.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for the immediate bridal party at "Hyeholde Inn", Coraopolis Heights, Pa. A wedding cake with miniature bride and groom centered the bridal table and crystal candelabra holding lighted tapers, on each end of the table.

After the reception the couple left by motor for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and New York City.

REVIVAL SERVICES

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Yelton and family of Detroit, Mich., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Shepherd and other relatives of Bald Creek and Mars Hill, N. C.

Mrs. Mierley was graduated from Micaville high school and has been employed by the Glenn L. Martin Co. and the Social Security Board in Baltimore for the past three and one-half years.

Pfc. Mierley was graduated from the Altoona high school. Before entering the army he was employed at the Glenn L. Martin Co. in Baltimore for three and one-half years. He is now stationed at Camp Lee, Va. After his service in the army he will be associated with his father and brother in the automobile business.

GARDEN CLUB

The Burnsville Garden Club met with Mrs. W. L. Bennett on April 26th, Miss Juanita Rush was in charge of the program and introduced the guest speaker of the evening, W. D. Robbins, assistant horticulturist for Yancey, Avery and Mitchell counties. Mr. Robbins gave some timely information on blight and insect control and presented a most interesting sketch of the proposed planting on the square.

The work on the square has struck quite a number of snags, the chairman of the committee reported, and it may not be possible to carry it out this year.

It was decided not to sponsor the canning contest this year.

Mrs. Mack Ray won first place in the flower display and Mrs. V. J. Goodman won the hostess gift.
