BURNSVILLE— "So They Say"

The weather: Rainy and cool. Don't know which kind of "Winter" this is!

About town: Much changing about—Lee Yeltons have moved to their new home, and the Bill Baileys will build next door. . . Arney Fox has accepted position with Veterans' Administration, and left for Winston-Salem on Tuesday. . . Jim Anglin has bought out the Young interest in Young and Westall, and the store will open as Anglin and Westall as soon as they complete inventory. . . And we have heard many expressions of pleasure that Van Bennett is practicing here! . . . "Cooper's" sounds most interesting. Now open on West Main Street with good things to eat, including Claude's famous pies and doughnuts. Hope Buck home for a week. She's been transferred to East Tennessee so should be home often. . . The Carl Goertchs here at the Nu-Wray for overnight stay. His fame as editor of the "State", and as author, continues to grow. . . Of wide interest: the lovely wedding of Evangeline Potat and V. T. Davis in the Bakersville Baptist church. Jean Robinson was soloist. . .

CARD OF THANKS

We do not have words with which to express our deep and sincere appreciation for the many acts of kindness and thoughtfulness shown us, the beautiful flowers received and the prayers of our friends which have sustained us during our recent bereavement.
Mr. and Mrs. Carl McIntosh, Nealy, Grace and Clyde.
