"IN MEMORIAM"
"Never a sigh for the cares that she bore me,
Never a thought of the joys that flew by
Her one regret that she couldn't do more for me—
Thoughtless and selfish, her master was I
"Oh, the long nights that she came at my call to me!
Oh, the soft touch of her hands on my brow!
Oh, the long years that she gave up her all to me!
Oh, how I yearn for her gentleness now!
"Slave to her family Yes, that was the way of her
Counting her greatest of services small
Words cannot tell what this old heart would say of her
Mother—the sweetest and fairest of all"
This poem by Edgar A. Guest we lovingly dedicate to the memory of our dear wife and mother on the first anniversary of her death May 5, and for Mother's Day, May 12
