SEED GRAZING CROPS FOR CHEAPER FEEDS

Supplemental grazing crops for fall, winter, and spring grazing furnish some of the cheapest feed that a farmer can grow, say livestock men and agronomists of the State College Extension Service and the Agricultural Experiment Station.

They lay down four simple rules for success with these crops. These rules are: seed early, seed heavy, cross drill in seeding so as to get a perfect stand; and apply plenty of fertilizer at planting and some nitrogen in the fall and again in the spring.

LETTERS FROM MEN IN SERVICE

Yancey Record:

To my parents and many friends and loved ones I wish to say hello to you, and I hope everybody is fine. I am getting along fine, and liking my job fine. I am in Paris France, and I like the country very much. I have made many friends among the French and Germans, and of the American forces stationed here.

I am glad to say that I am still trusting the same God here that I trusted back in the States, and I feel that He is with me, and guiding my footsteps. A fellow once told me that a person could not live a Christian life in a place like this, but I am glad to say that he was wrong, for one can live a life for God if he or she will trust every thing in the Masters hand. I know He has helped me.

My advice to men and women of all Nations is to trust all in the Lord's hands and He will deliver us from Satan's hands. If every one would listen to the voice and word of God and do the Lords work, then the world would be free from wars and there would be Peace in the world.

Due to my being moved to different camps 44164331, 264th Med. Det. and such, I have missed APO 887 c. Postmaster, several copies of the Re-

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR CARL LEE McINTOSH

The Memorial Services and decoration in honor of Carl Lee McIntosh's 21st birthday were held Sunday, June 16 at the Wilson cemetery on Wilson Branch.

A large crowd of relatives and friends gathered for the service. Speakers were Rev. Grady Sheppard, B. M. Tomberlin of Swiss, T. P. Blankenship of Swnananoa and Evangelist Ward Sheppard of Weaverville.

(Ward Sheppard served for three years in the U. S. army, most of the time in overseas service. We are glad for his return home and glad for him now to dedicate his service to God.)

Singers for the service were the Allen Trio of Cane River and the Golden Quartet of Asheville.

The cemetery was beautifully decorated.

I haven't received a copy in about three months, so I would like for the paper to be sent to my new address. Any one wishing to write me, it would be appreciated very much. Wish you all good luck and the best of health to all and may the good Lord bless you all.

My new address is: Pvt. Marshall F. Pate, ASN 44164331, 264th Med. Det. and such, I have missed APO 887 c. Postmaster, several copies of the Re-
