GRAHAM-SAMS

Miss Violet Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Graham of Todd, was married to Emmett S. Sams, son of Mrs. Fuller Sams and the late Mr. Sams of Burnsville and Mars Hill, in the Methodist church of Boone on July 21.

The Rev. H. O. Huss performed the ceremony. The church was decorated with evergreens, ferns, baskets of white gladioli and candleabra with lighted tapers.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Pauline Sprinkle of Charlotte, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Sprinkle of Asheville, aunts of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Sprinkle played "To A Wild Rose" and "Ave Maria" before the vows were spoken. Love tunes were played softly during the ceremony and the traditional wedding marches were used. Miss Sprinkle sang "Oh, Promise Me" and "At Dawning" before the professional and "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white slipper satin. Her veil of illusion was caught with clusters of white tube roses and her bouquet was of white roses with an orchid center.

Miss Jewel Graham, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Ila Graham, sister of the bride and Miss Wanda Sams, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids.

The maid of honor wore a dress of ice blue marquisette over taffeta with a headdress and bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaids wore dresses of pink marquisette over taffeta and carried nosegays of mixed flowers.

T. F. Sams of Burnsville was best man, and the ushers were James Graham and L. D. Graham of Todd, David Anderson of Mars Hill and Gail Bridges of Shelby. Johnnie Anderson of Mars Hill was ring bearer and flower girls were Olga Sprinkle and Patricia Robinson.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the

TEA SHOWER HONORS MISS PLEASANT

Miss Aldine Pleasant was honor guest at a tea shower given by the women of the Methodist church on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Troy Ray.

The home was beautifully decorated with summer flowers. Mrs. Troy Ray and Mrs. Hobart Ray greeted the guests, and Mrs. W. W. Sorrells presided at the punch bowl. The table was centered with an arrangement of yellow nasturtiums on a reflector, and this motif was used in the refreshments and favors.

Approximately 40 guests attended the affair, with Mrs. H. M. Roland of Wilmington as an out of town guest.

Miss Pleasant has been a very active member of the church and has been closely associated with the church organizations. She plans to leave soon to make her home at Biltmore.
