YELTON-COMNINAKI

Miss Mildred Yelton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Yelton of Cane River, and Siverin P. Comninaki, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Comninaki of Norfolk, Va., were married at the home of the bride's parents on Tuesday morning, July 23.

The Rev. E. W. Wilson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony before an improvised altar of evergreens and white gladiolus.

Mrs. E. W. Wilson, pianist, played the traditional wedding marches and "To a Wild Rose" during the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street length dress of white lace and waffle pique and her accessories were white. Her corsage was a ruby throated orchid.

Miss Louise Yelton, sister of the bride, was the only attendant. She wore a char-treuse dress with black accessories and a corsage of white gladiolus. E. Comninaki, father of the bridegroom, was best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, an informal reception was held. The table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with the wedding cake.

The couple left for a wedding trip in the mountains. For travel the bride wore a biege suit with brown accessories and her orchid corsage.

Mrs. Comninaki is a graduate of Bald Creek high school and received training as a nurse at Banner Elk hospital. She served as a lieutenant in the army nurse corps during World War II. Mr. Comninaki also served during the war and is now a captain in the army reserve corps.

The couple will reside at Virginia Beach, Va.
