BURNSVILLE-- "So They Say"

The weather: We are pretty good weather prophets after all! We've been predicting for some time that winter would arrive, and Wednesday morning, following a night's rain, every peak around Burnsville was frozen over! It has turned much colder, but the sun shines brightly.

About town: Remark of the week: "I just can't realize that Christmas is actually here! I'm not nearly ready!" . . . A number of sick folks to report about: Delzie Styles continues to show improvement at Statesville. Avis and Jesse are there with him. . . Edd King able to be out some following a heart attack. . . Jake Buckner at home and his injured hip improving. . . Young Charles Deyton getting better after a round of pneumonia. . . Mildred Ray in Biltmore hospital where she underwent operation on Monday. . . Elizabeth Galloway in Mission hospital following severe cold and complications. . .

New Sandwich Shop opens tomorrow--in Banks Building opposite Theatre, C. G. Bagwell and L. A. Crews, owners. . . Good shows, all in a row, next week! "Two Sisters From Boston" on Sunday and Monday, "Do You Love Me" with Dick Hames on Tuesday, and "Butch" Jenkins in the highly amusing "Boys Ranch" on Wednesday and Thursday. . . Do you know:
