NOTICE OF SALE
NORTH CAROLINA
YANCEY COUNTY

The Board of Education of Yancey County, being of the opinion that the White Oak Flats School, being located in Ramseytown Township, has become unnecessary for public school purposes, signed an order in regular session on the 7th day of April, 1947, directing the sale of said buildings and the lots upon which they are located:

THEREFORE, by virtue of said order and the power invested in the Board of Education by the laws of the state of North Carolina, the said Board of Education of Yancey County will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, at 11 o'clock a. m., on the 31st day of May, 1947, at the courthouse door in Burnsville, N. C., the following described property with the buildings thereon:

Being located in Ramseytown Township, Yancey County, North Carolina, and known as the White Oak Flats school property, described as follows: BEGINNING on a small white pine in Johnson's line, thence with Johnson's line South West to the creek, thence down and with the creek six and one-half rods to a stake, thence North East 13 rods to a stake, thence North West six and one-half rods to the BEGINNING, containing one-half acre, more or less.

The Board of Education reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

This the 7th day of April, 1947.
