JOHNSON-RUTNOSKI

At 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, August 27, in Danforth Chapel, Berea College, Kentucky, Miss Peggy Ann Johnson became the bride of Harvey Gene Rutnoski in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Dayton Hulburt. Mrs. Rutnoski is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Johnson of Burnsville and Mr. Rutnoski is the son of Mrs. E. H. Brown and Zigmund Rutnoski of Detroit, Mich.

The marriage vows were spoken before a background of white gladioli and fern interspersed with lighted tapers in branched candelabra.

A program of music was presented by Mrs. Woodrow McKinney, organist, and Dr. Paul Green, vocalist. Selections included "Moonlight Sonata", "Leibestraum", "The Rosary", "Andantino in D Flat", "Because" and "At Dawning". The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Major Alonzo Roberts. Her wedding dress was an original model of satin with a veil of illusion, caught with a baneau of orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Miss Hedy Swanson of Grove Hill, Ala. was maid of honor and Edward Jennings of Berea was best man. John Robbins of Patriot, Ind. and Fred Ambrose of Berea were ushers.

After the wedding a reception was held in the Fireside Room. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a crystal bowl of late summer flowers. A three-tiered wedding cake was at one end of the table and the punch bowl at the other.

Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip before returning to Berea College where both are students and plan to continue their studies there. He is a veteran of World War II, having served in the Army Air Corps for three years.
