SO THEY SAY (From front page) ned a Hallowe'en party for Kay, invitations out and everything ready when Kay developed a pain or two, was taken to the hospital and operated on for appendicitis! . . . Eloise Bennett was wearing one of the most unusual pins we've seen in a long time—about as large as a silver dollar with a design of small rose colored flowers under glass. We asked about it and she said it was an ornament from the fancy bridles for horses which were in use some years ago! We've heard much favorable comment on plans for the summer school next summer. . . Sorry to learn of several who will—Mrs. Jim Henry Wilson, Mrs. Gibbs, Mrs. Pansy Ray, Lillian Hensley and Irene Pollard. . . Regret to have the Steve Blankenships to leave us for even a part of the time. She will be in Hickory where her mother is quite ill, and he will be in Taylorville where new store is being opened. Burnsville, though, is still "home" they say, and they'll be back frequently. . . School news: Dick Bailey is now teaching part of 8th grade at Burnsville high school. . . and at Micaville there's a big, new Dodge bus, replacing old 26.

HOUSE FOR RENT: 8 rooms and Bath, well furnished. Furnace heat. All modern conveniences. See Mrs. Claude King at home.

FOR SALE: 1941 Chevrolet Special De Luxe Sedan. See Yates Bennett.
