BURNSVILLE— "So They Say"

The weather: Monday there was some sleet and ice, and a few big, fluffy flakes of snow. Several mighty disappointed boys in town because we didn't have a real snow fall—the sleighing kind!

About town: Max Penland home for the week end and he, Kathleen and baby leaving for Palm Beach today. Eddith Yelton and children went down several days ago to join the others there. . . . Ruby Robinson home after a long stay in Duke hospital, and is feeling fine. . . . Sorry to learn of Lillian Greene Cooper's accident. Fell in the cafe Friday and fractured her skull. Is in Biltmore hospital where she is improving. . . . We should be seeing Lloyd Blalock occasionally. He was named supervisor for western district for auto inspection which begins January 1. . . . The "Ford Times", attractive little magazine published by Ford company, has written the Nu Wray Inn for a favorite recipe and a back ground sketch of the establishment to be used in a future "Times"! . . . Mighty good news—that B H S will really have a gymnasium soon! At least, the building will get underway next week.

HOUSE FOR SALE: Five rooms and Bath. Completely furnished. All electric kitchen, Oil Heat. See Luther Banks, Jr., at Styles Garage.

FOR SALE: 1946 Chevrolet pick up truck. See Fred Anglin or Yates Bennett.
