

HEALTH DEPARTMENT

Fifty patients were seen at the orthopedic clinic in Spruce Pine on June 21, the largest number to attend one of these clinics to date. This is the third consecutive month in which a new attendance record has been set. The clinics are held in the town hall the third Wednesday morning of each month, by Dr. James H. Cherry of Asheville, and are open to all residents of this area.

Dr. C. F. McRae, district health officer, attended the third Annual Rural Health Conference which was held recently in Raleigh.
