No Highway Deaths To Date In County

Highway accidents have taken no lives in Yancey County during the first nine months of 1950, President Coleman W. Roberts of the Carolina Motor Club announced today on the basis of figures compiled by the State Division of Highway Safety.

In the county, 9 have been injured in 31 accidents during the same period.

For the third quarter, ending October 1, 1950, there were 660 persons killed and 8,701 injured as a result of 19,601 traffic accidents on the streets and highways of North Carolina.

These totals represent an increase of nine per cent in deaths, 27 per cent in reported injuries and 34 per cent in total reported traffic accidents over the corresponding period of 1949.

Traffic accidents during the same period of 1949 totaled 14,597 with 604 persons killed and 6,928 persons injured.

Of the 19,601 accidents reported for the three quarters of the year, 556 were fatal, 5,433 were non-fatal, and 13,612 resulted in property damage.

Leading counties in accidents reported are Meck-

'Two Dependent' Men Accepted For Service

The Army and Air Force are accepting enlistments of veterans and non-prior service men with two dependents, according to Sgt. Fisher, recruiting officer for this area. A married man with one child or a man with father and mother dependent upon him may now enlist.

Persons interested in receiving information concerning either the army or air force should see Sgt. Fisher at the courthouse on Mondays.

lenburg, 1,462; Forsyth, 1,397; Durham, 1,243; and Guilford, 923.

Interesting facts revealed by the report include:

More persons are killed and injured from 25 to 34 years of age than any other group. More commercial drivers are involved in all accidents than any other occupational group. More accidents occur on Saturday than any other day—fewer occur on Tuesday.

More fatal accidents occur at speeds of 31 to 40 miles per hour than in any other speed range. More accidents occur between five and six o'clock in the afternoon than any other hour of the day.
