Freda Brown Is Married To Hale Bryson

Miss Fredia Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Brown of Burnsville, and Hale Bryson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Bryson of Burnsville, were married Tuesday, December 28, in the West Burnsville Church.

The Rev. E. G. Adkins, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with evergreens and flanked with candelabra holding tall white tapers.

Prior to the ceremony, a program of wedding music was presented by Miss Betty Ann Banks, pianist, and Peggy Johnson, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, wore a wedding gown of ivory candlelight satin fashioned with fitted bodice and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. Her full length veil was attached to a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book, topped with an orchid showered with white satin streamers and carnations.

Miss Hope Brown, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a ballerina length gown of American taffeta and a net stole. Her head-piece was of matching net. She carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

Landon M. Proffitt of Burnsville was best man. Ushers were Richard J. Burns and Danny Fouts of Burnsville.

The mother of the bride wore a navy blue suit with a corsage of red carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a wine dress and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bride attended Woman's College of the University of North Carolina and East Tennessee State

Howell-Deyton

Miss Nona Kate Howell, daughter of Mrs. Nat L. Howell and the late Mr.

Teachers College. Mr. Bryson attended Virginia Polytechnic Institute and is a member of the senior class at Western Carolina Teachers College.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Roberts and Johnson clubroom.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a rose suit with black accessories and the orchid lifted from her prayer book. On their return the couple will make their home in Cullowhee.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hooper of Raleigh. Sgt. and Mrs. James Bryson of Fayetteville. Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Baggett of Wilmington, and Mr. and Mrs. James Smith of Brevard.

Howell formerly of Memphis and Jonesboro, Tenn., became the bride of Mr. Frank Deyton, son of Mr. Levi Deyton and the late Mrs. Deyton of Green Mountain, N. C. on Dec. 23.

The Rev. Carl Osborn of Erwin Tenn. officiated in a quiet double ring ceremony.

The bride and groom are graduates of Clearmont High School.

Mrs. Deyton is a student at East Tenn. State College. She is a member of the Sigma Omega Sorority, Sec. and Treas. of Pan Hellenic Council and Sec. of the Alpha Lambda chapter of the Gamma Theta Epsilon Fraternity.

Mr. Deyton is a veteran of World War II with a service record of 39 months, 19 months spent overseas. He is also a student of East Tenn. State College.
