CHERRY TART

A sure way to a man's heart, this Valentine's Day, is through a cherry tart. In the February, 31-page "Pie Manual" edition of Good Housekeeping, the food editors give their delicious recipe for the tart and filling. Here it is.

Cut 5" pastry squares with knife or pastry wheel. Snugly fit one square inside of each 2-3/4 muffin cup, letting corners stand upright. After pricking well, then chilling 1-2 hour, bake in hot oven of 450 degrees, F., 10 to 15 min., or until golden brown. Cool on wire cake rack. Carefully lift from pan.

The ingredients for the cherry filling are: 8 baked pastry shells, 1 (No. 2) can pitted red sour cherries (water packed), 3-4 cup granulated sugar, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 3-4 cup cherry juice, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 1-4 teaspoon almond flavoring.

Drain cherries, reserving juice. Combine sugar, cornstarch, and salt in saucepan, stir in juice. Boil, stirring, till thick and clear. Add rind, flavoring, cherries. Cool. Fill 8 baked shells. Top with ice cream or cottage cheese.

TOLEDO NEWS

By Miss Osma Newton

Mrs. W. H. Farrand of New York visited relatives in Miss. Returning she went to Nashville, Tenn., spent the night with her sister, Mrs. C. W. O'Donnell, in a short time both came out to Toledo to visit their aunt, Miss Osma Newton. Monday we went to Asheville to see some cousin, finding it was only 11-2 hours ride to Laurum, S. C., we motored there to see our friend, Miss Grace Farr and her cousins, Mrs. Spears and Mrs. Ackerman.

We had a delightful time and reached home at 8 p. m. Mrs. Farrand had to leave early the next morning as she was expecting Mr. Farrand home from South America the last of the week.

Mrs. O'Donnell who has been here often before, stayed until Friday so she could visit friends.

Pvt. McCoy Letterman from the Army, had the pleasure of spending the night with the home folks recently.

Rev. Paul McKinney preached Sunday for the congregation of the Paint Gap Presbyterian church, Mrs. McKinney went with him.

Yong Chong, Korea Dear Sister: Just a few lines to let you know that I am still alive. I am out on a listing post tonight. My toes are about two-thirds numb now and my fingers so sore can hardly write due to cold.

This makes seven months I have been here in Korea, and I believe I have put ten years of my life on since I have been here. One day in combat is equal to thirty days in civilian life I know. So many are hurt or killed. I know, I've seen it happen many times. We are outnumbered twenty to one by the Chinese Reds now. The Chinese are good night fighters due to many years experience, as you know. They don't fight much in day light hours, probably due to our planes. Maybe I will be lucky, tough. We are supposed to fight till the last man if necessary.

We are leaving for the Chinks any minute now. I am writing this by candle light. I have said my prayers many times. It sure eases your mind.

Well, I am so cold I cannot write any more. I will stop for now. Write often for we have nothing to read.

Good night Milan.
Your brother,
Hurley Wilson
