Patriotic Party Touches

Because we celebrate Lincoln's and Washington's birthday in February, it's as good a month as any to be patriotic. Here are two dessert recipes, featured in February's Good Housekeeping, which will help give a party touch to your patriotism.

To make a Washington pie, here's what you do: Fill four thin layers of cake with red jam. Place cutout of a hatchet on top; sprinkle entire top with confectioner's sugar; remove hatchet, and there you have it.

Also try making an ice-cream log. Here are the directions:

1 pt. coffee ice cream in round container; Unsweetened chocolate; Melted chocolate.

After removing ice cream from container,

Eddy Arnold and All-Star Team 'Hoedown'

C'mon, folks, grab your partners and sashay down to the Yancey Theatre Friday, Feb. 23 where you can join Eddy Arnold, the Tennessee Plowboy, in the biggest, all-out movie jamboree that has hit these parts in a long, long time. When you see Eddy crooning one of his popular ditties and surrounded by stars of action, melody, romance and fun, you're in for a gala round-up of pleasurable entertainment in Columbia's "Hoedown."

Eddy, whose records and radio appearances have made him one of America's best-loved stars, appears on the screen for the second time, scoring even more heavily than in his initial hit, "Feudin' Rhythm." He sings a group of songs, of which "Bouquet of Roses" is the most popular, in that natural, easy style of his that has won him so many fans.

Eddy Arnold tops the vocalizing section, of course. He is amply backed up by Carolina Cotton, whose comedy and singing have a broad appeal. The Pied Pipers are pleasant harmonizers and The Oklahoma Wranglers know how to hit a musical note on the button. Guinn "Big Boy" Williams is around for laughs—and gets plenty. All in all, "Hoedown" is a honey of a show.

Some of the other musical numbers, besides "Bouquet of Roses," include "I Betcha I Getcha," "I'm Throwing Rice (at the Girl I Love)," "Just a Little Lovin' Will Go a Long, Long Way," and "I Can't Shake the Sands of Texas from My Shoes."

Balmy New York

NEW YORK — On the third day of balmy spring-like weather in Manhattan, these young ladies were thoroughly convinced it was high time to get into less confining togs. They're shown walking on East 57th Street in their summer play suits.

Assistance in Filing State Income and Intangible Tax Returns

North Carolina State Income Tax Returns are due to be filed on or before March 15, 1951.

A single person with an income of $1,000 or more, or a married man with an income of $2,000 or more is required to file a State Income Tax Return. A married woman, with a separate income of $1,000 or more from that of her husband, is required to file a return.

Taxpayers who have previously filed should use forms received which bear their names and addresses.

Failure to receive a form does not relieve a person of liability to file.

A local representative of the N. C. Department of Revenue can be contacted at the Sheriff's Office in Burnsville, on March 1st and 8th, 1951, who will be available to give assistance in filing returns.

shave the chocolate; roll ice cream in it. Set on plate cut out 3" deep wedge from top. Dip toothpick in melted chocolate, and make rings on top to resemble log. Makes 3 servings.

Place maraschino cherries, with stems, beside the log.

MARCH 1st DEADLINE FOR PRISONER CLAIM

World War II veterans who were prisoners of war, or their widows, children, or parents must file claim by March 1, 1951, for the $1.00 per day ration money due them while interned in enemy prison camps. The final date, March 1st, was fixed by law and cannot be changed by the War Claims Commission. If you or a member of your family were held as a prisoner of war during World War II, you may be entitled to these special POW benefits.

Official military records list more than 133,000 members of the U. S. Armed Forces as prisoners of war. The War Claims Commission estimates that there are over 30,000 legitimate claims which have not been filed. It is most urgent that these claimants be informed of their rights and file claim without delay.

Official claim forms and assistance in filing the claim can be secured at the Yancey County Veterans Service Office located in Burnsville, it was announced today by H. G. Bailey, County Veterans Service Officer.
