NEED A NEW ROOF?

WORRIED ABOUT THE COST?

READ THIS!

Thousands of home-owners are beating the high cost of house repairs by reroofing with Barrett's Asphalt Shingles. These shingles can be applied right over the old roof, thus saving the cost of labor required to peel off the old shingles.

Fine products of the same company that supplies roofing materials for America's most prominent buildings, Barrett asphalt shingles are today's top value in home roofing. They're made of Grade-A materials, "torture-tested" for weather-resistance and offering a selection of attractive colors and blends.

Come see our wide selection of colors and styles. We'll be glad to suggest expert applicators to put on your new Barrett roof.
