Few Go To Polls Tuesday

Less than 100 people went to the polls in Burnsville Tuesday to elect a mayor and two board members. However, one vote would have insured election of the three named on the ticket since there was no opposition.

Mark W. Bennett, mayor and Stanley Riddle and Harlan Holcombe, commissioners, will remain in office for two more years.

Mother-Daughter Banquet

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Bolens Creek Baptist Church gave a Mother-Daughter banquet honoring the Intermediate and Junior girls and their mothers, Tuesday evening.

Rev. Zemery Jamerson gave the invocation, Mrs. Sol Harris the response, Betty Ruth Ray the address of welcome, Gerald Dean Ray was toastmistress, Miss Laura Mae Hilliard was guest speaker and Vernell Harris, Athlene Jamerson, Jean Ray and Glenna Banner sang "Faith of Our Fathers."

Leaders of the girls groups are Mrs. Frank Harris and Mrs. A. Z. Jamerson.
