WHY AN EDITOR CALLS HIMSELF "WE"

Reprinted from The Nashville, (Ga.) Herald

Why does an editor use the word "We" in writing an editorial?

The Iowa Publisher recently reprinted the following explanation for the "editorial we" which was published in the Williams-town Advocate over 100 years ago.

"A Country Editor—is one who reads newspapers, selects miscellany, writes articles on all subjects, sets type, reads proofs, folds papers, and sometimes carries them, prints jobs, runs on errands, cuts wood, works in the garden, talks to all his patrons who call patiently, receives blame for a thousand things that never were and never can be done, gets little done, gets little money, has scarce time and materials to satisfy his hunger, or to enjoy the diet of nature's sweet restorer, sleep, and esteems himself peculiarly happy if he is not assaulted and battered by some unprincipled demagogue who loves puppet shows and hires the rabble with a treat of cider brandy to vote him into some petty office. A man who does all this and much more, not here recorded, you will know must be a rather busy animal; and as he performs the work of so many different persons, he may justly be supposed their representative, and to have an indisputable right, when speaking of himself, to use the plural number, and to say we on all occasions and in all places."

193 Children Checked At Pre-School Clinics

At the pre-school clinics held in Yancey County this spring by the District Health Department, the following number of children were seen at the various schools:

- Burnsville, 28; Bald Creek, 37; Micaville, 31; Bee Log, 27; Clearmont, 14; Prices Creek, 11; Pensacola, 10; Harvard, 7; Celo, 6; Seven Mile Ridge, 4; Locust Creek, 3; Burnsville Colored, 3; Bakers Creek, 1; Doble Island, 1.

This made a total of 193 pre-school children seen, nine more than in 1950.

Health department personnel taking part in these clinics, in which the children were given physical examinations as well as being immunized, were Dr. C. F. McRae, the district health officer; Mrs. Anne Ballard and Mrs. Norma Lee, public health nurses; and Miss Wanda Greene, the district health educator. Mrs. Frank W. Howell, supervisor in the county school system, co-operated in making arrangements for the clinics, as did the principals and first-grade teachers in the various schools.

School will be held Friday night, June 22, the pastor announced. A picnic will be held for the students Friday morning.

A schedule of services to be conducted by Rev. Moffatt Sunday is as follows:

SERVICE OFFICER TO BE HERE NEXT WEEK

Jack C. Winchester, District Service Officer, will be in Burnsville on Thursday, June 28, from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m., to assist veterans and their dependents.

Mr. Winchester stated that veterans who were discharged before July 25, 1947 must be in G. I. schooling, farming or on-job training on July 25, 1951 as that is the deadline to enter PL 346 training for most veterans.

It usually takes from three to four weeks to actually get into training, therefore, interested veterans should make plans immediately in order to be officially in training on that date. This deadline does not apply to veterans who are disabled to the extent as to be eligible for training under PL 16 as they have until 1956 to complete their training, he stated.

The widow, children and dependent parent drive is still in progress for persons who believe to be eligible for pensions or death compensation as dependents of deceased veterans, according to the Service Officer.
