ENSLEY-HESTER Wedding Announced

Miss Annie Eloise Ensley of Newdale and Bristol, Tenn., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Ensley of Newdale, became the bride of Melvin Stanford Hester of Logan, W. Va. and Bristol, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hester of Logan, Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Jerry Kucker of Bristol.

The Rev. L. W. Pierce, retired Methodist minister, performed the double riny ceremony before an arch of standards of candelabra and greenery. The home was decorated with arrangements of laurel and ferns and white gladiolus, sweet peas and baby's breath.

Miss Sarah Spiro, pianist, presented a program of traditional wedding music. The bride wore a street-length dress of white lace over white taffeta with matching lace mitts. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was attached to a coronet cap of lace trimmed with pearls. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid.

CATTAIL CREEK NEWS Mrs. Ira West

Grassmuck's "Story Book Home" was the gathering place for a surprise house party, when Wm. L. Grassmuck's children came to celebrate his birthday. Arriving last Wednesday and staying until Monday, were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Grassmuck, of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Grassmuck, and son Billy, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Mrs. Deak Moffatt of Ft. Thomas, Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Craig with Sally, Susie and Julie, arrived from Miami to spend the summer at their mountain home here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Threagill were called to Miami last week, on account of the illness of their daughter, Mrs. Tom Baden.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Pelletier are spending a short vacation in their cabin, having come from their home in Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira West spent the week end with Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Carver in Hendersonville.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hott of Miami, Fla., were guests last week at Grassmuck's "Story Book Home."

A capacity crowd gathered at the Cattail Community Hall last Friday night to celebrate the "First Annual Birthday Jamboree", and a fine celebration it was. Folks came for many miles around, Burnsville, Spruce Pine, Celso, Green Mountain, Hamrick and Old Fort—to join with those who live in the nearby vicinity. Several prizes were given to guests who participated in the contest dances, a beautifully decorated birthday cake, holding one candle, was given as a door prize. One prize offered went begging for the lack of a winner. It was for anyone who did not laugh all evening. There was so much fun and laughter, that no one could qualify.

Although dances are held every Friday night at the Community Hall, the next special party will be an "Old Time Barn Dance" on Friday, June 29th. The men are requested to wear their brightest colored shirt, and the girls to come in blue jeans. Plans are shaping up to make this one of the gayest parties of the season.

J. E. Huskins Celebrates 75th Birthday

J. E. Huskins of Burnsville celebrated his 75th birthday at home Sunday. Mr. Huskins' birthday was on Saturday but the celebration, in the form of a birthday dinner, was held Sunday so that more of his family could be present.

Attending the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Cranford of Concord, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Huskins, and daughter of Statesville, and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Andrews and family of Brevard.
