"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS

From Mrs. Harry E. Rector, Sallisaw, Oklahoma: I hate to think I'm an Old Timer, but I do remember some drastic changes that have been made in my time. My father used to carry the mail in a sleigh. There were bells on the horses' harness. Then he had a mail wagon for nicer weather. There were pigeonholes in the back-like front of the wagon. The sleigh and wagon were horse-drawn. Later he bought a Model T and as time went on, better cars all the time.

I remember the old lamplighter, who was the town marshal, walked around carrying a ladder. He'd climb up the lamp post and light the gas lights, or put on a new globe or mantle.

I remember when the streets were dust paths. Summers the sprinkling wagon would come around spraying water to lay the dust. There were always a gang of barefoot boys following the sprinkler to get their feet wet.

Later they started spraying oil on the streets to lay the dust, which was a sad day indeed for we barefoot kids got that all over our feet.

It has been fun to live in an age where one can witness so many changes going on in the world.

"NICE" GIRL . . . Francine Raggi, 16, of Monaco, holds trophy presented her when she was chosen "Queen of the Cote D'Azur" at Nice, France.
