

Traffic Emergency:

Although Traffic Problem Is Local Affair, Mounting Tolls Could Bring Federal Action

(Last of a Series) Federal intervention and all that it implies in the way of regulations, red tape and bureaucracy could be a distinct possibility and a threat unless local and state governments take firm steps to halt the nation's soaring traffic toll.

Company and of American Motorists Insurance Company, said the problem "can and must be solved on the local level and the state level because that's exactly where it exists."

to keep unqualified drivers off the road. —Revocation of driving privileges for accident repeaters and habitual traffic lawbreakers. —Uniformity in state traffic laws and practices.

REMEMBER BY THE OLD TIMERS

From Walter T. McLaren, Buena Park, California: I can well remember my first time to meet Billie Dixon about 61 years ago...

This put the Indians on the prod and they made a charge on the buffalo hunters who were shooting buffalo by the hundreds for their hides.

Keep Children Safe In Traffic

By Bill Crowell RALEIGH — "Boys and girls, you're playing with death when you play in the street!" That warning was sounded this week by Wallace Hyde, chief of the Motor Vehicles Department's driver improvement section, and full-time professional safety authority.

to stop his car in time to avoid hitting them. So smart boys and girls take no chances. Playing in the street, running out into the street after a ball or other toy, crissing in mid-block or at intersections against the light are all things that place children in danger, Hyde said.
