Gov. Luther Hodges displays the first Christmas Seal of the 1958 Christmas Seal Sale sold to him by irresistible saleslady, Betty Lane Evans, Miss North Carolina of 1958, as Bill Friday of Chapel Hill, state Christmas Seal chairman, stands by. In a joint statement, Gov. Hodges and Friday urged all North Carolinians to fight tuberculosis by buying and using Christmas Seals. Letters containing Christmas Seals, sent by 101 local TB associations in the state, were delivered at the homes of over 500,000 North Carolinians last Friday.

ASC Office To Mail Tobacco Marketing Cards To Producers

Announcement has been made by the ASC office here that tobacco marketing cards are being prepared and will be mailed to all tobacco producers within five days of the opening of the market on November 24. According to ASC officials cards will not be passed out over the counter this year to conform with the latest regulation requirements. Farmers receiving cards should read instructions on the back of the card and see that all requirements are met. It is also emphasized that all cards are to be returned to the county office as soon as possible after the last sale is made, and in no event later than 30 days after the market closes.

The office is now accepting applications for 1959 new farm burley tobacco allotments. Producers who qualify for the requirements should contact the local ASC office at once, and not later than the closing date, February 15, 1959. Requirements which must be met to be eligible for consideration are as follows:

1. The farm operator must have had experience in growing burley tobacco for which an allotment is requested either as a sharecropper, tenant, or as a farm operator on a farm for which a burley tobacco allotment has been established during two of the past five years. A veteran will qualify with one year's such experience within 5 years before entering the service or after being discharged, provided that such armed service has been since September 16, 1940, and he files an application within 5 years from date of discharge. Such experience shall consist of the preparation of a plant bed and extending through all phases of planting, cultivation, harvesting and preparation of the tobacco for market.

2. The operator shall live on and obtain 50% or more of his livelihood from the farm covered by the application.

3. The farm covered by the application shall be the only farm owned or operated by the farm operator for which a burley tobacco acreage allotment is established for the 1959-60 marketing year.

4. The farm shall be operated by the owner thereof. The latest recorded deed for the farm should be presented for inspection at the time application is filed.

5. The farm or any portion thereof shall not have been a part of another farm during any of the five years, 1954-1958, for which an old farm tobacco acreage allotment was determined.

Following the filing of the application, verification of the facts listed will be made with a visit to the farm by a representative of the county committee. This representative will also determine if necessary help, curing space and cropland is sufficient for the production of the acreage allotment requested.

The quarterly ASC staff conference will be held in Asheville, November 20-21. The county committee and office personnel will attend the first day and only office personnel will attend the second.

The first day will be devoted to a discussion of duties and responsibilities of county committeemen, current programs and new legislation, referendum on tobacco and calendar of work for the first quarter of 1959. Subjects under discussion the second day will consist of marketing quota violations, establishment of 1959 allotments, 1959 conservation reserve work and general administrative.

Sixty Nine Deer Bagged Since Opening Of Season

Regular deer season in Western North Carolina with hunters with guns opened Monday. The season for bow and arrow hunters opened approximately two weeks before the regular season. No deer have been reported killed in Yancey County from bow and arrow hunters, however, 69 have been reported killed in this county by gun since the regular season opened.

Thirty six were reported killed through Tuesday in the South Toe River, Mt. Mitchell Area and 15 on the Curtis Creek side, according to Refuge manager, Lee Boone. Game protector, M. B. Higgins has reported 18 deer killed in the Flat Top area.

Those included in the kills in the Mt. Mitchell area, from this county, are Willard Tipton, Ralph Eyrd Leo Good, George Buchanan and Fred Hensley of Asheville, formerly of Burnsville.

Lee Boone, manager of the Mt. Mitchell Game Refuge, reported that he made one arrest from Granite Falls Tuesday. The hunter was charged with killing a small buck without visible antlers, and he was fined $32.00. Boone also reported one other arrest this month from Forest City, charged with trespassing with firearms in the Refuge, there was a fine of $32.00, and he reported four arrests in October for trespassing in Refuge with firearms. All were fined $32.00.

Yancey County residents reported as killing deer on the Flat Top area included Clayton Whitson, Mack B. Ray, Conrad Murphy, and Hughie Ray of Mars Hill.

Of course others of the county have bagged deer since the season opened but the Record has had no advice of other kills. The paper would appreciate receiving information from county hunters regarding their kills.

The opening of the season this year has been during a period of the most comfortable hunting weather recorded in several years, although it has not been weather which has given best advantage to the hunter according to reports. Fog holding on until late in the day has hampered hunters in spotting deer, and the exceptionally warm weather has probably retarded movement of deer during daylight period.

LACKLAND, AFB, Tex. — Airman Bobby J. Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd H. Parker of Burnsville, N. U. F. Officials Urge Workers To Complete Collections

The committee for the United Fund in Yancey County is urging campaign workers to complete their collections and turn them in to the county secretary, W. W. Roberts, as soon as possible.

The fund drive was extended through November 15 this year so that completion of subscriptions could be made.

The goal set by the budget committee for the 1958 United Fund Drive for this county was $8,700.00.

SHP Acts To Cut Down Wreck Toll

(Reprinted from The Asheville Citizen-Times)

The State Highway Patrol cancelled all leaves and vacations Monday in a move to combat what is called 'the alarming increase in highway fatalities during recent weekends.

The move came on the heels of North Carolina's worst traffic toll so far this year—24 people lost their lives in road accidents over the weekend.

The slaughter was the heaviest in the state since the three-day period of Sept. 19, 20 and 21, when 17 were killed.

Troop E Headquarters of the Patrol here received the orders Monday Captain D. G. Lewis, commander said. The orders affect the full complement of 79 patrolmen in Troop E serving 22 WNC counties, Lt. H. C. Johnson, executive officer, said Monday night.

Sgt. E. C. Guy called a district meeting of patrolmen Monday night in Burnsville to map out plans for heavy patrolling of highways under their jurisdictions. Similar meetings are being held in other troops.

Lt. Johnson said the orders would remain in effect until the first of the year or until the weekend accident trend has been reversed. All of the usual electrical speed clocking devices will be used by the patrolmen in Troop E, Lt. Johnson said.

"The sergeants in Troop E have been instructed to contact the heavy industries, possibly the personnel directors, and ask them to pass on to employees the plans for an all-out effort to try to stop this trend of highway fatalities," Captain Lewis said.

The Troop E commander also said all news media will be used in the efforts and the cooperation of police chiefs and the representatives of all law enforcement agencies will be solicited.

The cancellation of leaves and vacations effects every one of the 581-man patrol.

The patrol said the trend upward in weekend traffic fatalities apparently started some five weeks ago.

Ninety-two persons have died in North Carolina weekend road accidents since the first of October.

The meetings resulted from a conference Monday morning between Col. James R. Smith, commander of the patrol, and his troop commanders. During the session Smith briefed the officers on what he called the emergency situation.

Mrs. Zona Styles To Open Flower Shop

Mrs. Zona Styles is opening a new Florist shop in Burnsville on November 28 in the Randolph Building.

In preparation for opening the flower shop, Mrs. Styles has been working with Penn Hunter of Hunter's Florist in Marion. She has been in Marion for the past three months. Her preparation for the florist business also included training in the Florist Design School at Charlotte.

George W. Roberts Guest Of N. C. Automobile Dealers Assn.

George W. Roberts, Roberts Chevrolet, Inc., will be a special guest of the North Carolina Automobile Dealers Association in Raleigh Friday night (Nov. 21).

As Area Chairmen of the association, he and other outstanding dealers about the state will be recognized at a dinner and entertainment for their work in a month-long membership campaign and for other activities during the year, according to Joe A. Watkins of Oxford, association president.

The Area Chairman serves as liaison in his county between the association and members.

The special Area Chairman program will follow the association's Second Annual Working Conference which will take place during the day. Five dealers who have been successful in solving problems particularly vexing to Tar Heel dealers will discuss their solutions and answer questions during the workshop meeting, Watkins said.

East Yancey High School To Present Talent Show Friday

A talent show is scheduled to be held at East Yancey High School Friday night at 7:30 p. m. The show will be held in the school auditorium.

Talent from the three district elementary schools — Burnsville, Mcaville and South Toe—will participate with East Yancey High School students in the show.

A wide variety of entertainment supplied by local talent will be offered. Thirty two different acts will be presented for the public's approval. Included in the acts scheduled for the show are folk dancing, singing, pantomime, reading, tap dancing, band selections, songs by the Glee Club, with instrumental solos and group selections by stringed instrumentalists, and members of the band.

The show is sponsored by the Parent Teacher's association and proceeds will go toward the purchase of a piano.

Talent scouts who have arranged the show say that the entertainment will be of the very best and the public is invited to come and enjoy the different acts to be given.

Tickets for adults will be $1.00 each while student tickets are 50c.

Tobacco Grading Demonstrations Well Attended

Burley tobacco grading demonstrations were well attended this year in Yancey County.

The increase in attendance was due, at least partially, to the way tobacco was selling on the basis of grade at the end of the marketing season.

The Ramsetown demonstration, sponsored by the Community Club, had an attendance of 24 growers and most of them brought 10-12 stalks of their own tobacco to be graded.

Many growers, at the Jacks Creek demonstration, remarked that it was the most practical demonstration they had ever had.

Mr. Flack, Government Grader, stressed the importance of sorting the leaf with its proper grade, remarking that the tobacco companies preferred to make their own blends and that the grower would also be better off from the standpoint of the government support price.

Other features stressed were production practices, curing barns, fluorescent light, tables, and grading rooms.
