

THE YANGEY REGORD

initial contest in 1958, 13-0. Cane

River came on to upset the Panthers and take the championship,

13-6, in 1959. Last year's game

The two teams have met one additional time, East Yanc y took the measure of the Rebels 18-12

Two of their three loss s have come in their last two games at Rosman (0-19). The other defeat

East Yancey sports a season record of five wins and four defeats, all of them Skyline Conference games and a record good enough for fifth place in the tough 11 team league. EY wins rave been over Spruce Pine (7-6);

Old Fort (19-6), Drexel (14-7),

Panther defeats have been at and NCSD (12-27), rated the one.

ended in a 20-20 tie.

Boys (20-6).

"Dedicated To The Progress Of Yancey County"

VOLUME TWENTY SIX

BURNSVILLE, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1961

Price Per Copy: Five Cents

NUMBER TWELVE

Bloodmobile Visit November 16

The Bloodmobile will visit here for the year is 400 pints, which on Thursday, November 16th, The ment of the First Baptist Church must be collected at each of the unit will be set up in the basefrom 10:00 a. m. to 2:00 p. m. Dr. Melvin W. Webb will be at- the quota has not been reached tending physician and Mrs. Max on all of the three previous visits Proffitt attending nurse. The Gray Ladies will assist in the storage bins will not be as bulg- gram one literally scores up a for the Agricultural Stabilization the same time self-serving. and Conservation State Committee through October 26 after farmers have had 23 days in which to Senior Woman's signup in the 1962 Weat Stabilization Program over 25 percent Club To Meet of the farms in North Carolina which are eligible to participate in the program had already; great majority of these farmers munity Building. who have signed up contracted; minimum reduction.

N. C. Wheat Reduction Assured

In spite of weather conditions, Hassell feels sure that a substantial reduction in wheat pro- Meredith College on a three-yard plunge. Quarter- does not stop or park along the duction will be achieved compared with this year's crop. How- Celebrates ever, he said that achievements of the program should be judged not Founders' Day by what was produced this year without the program, but by what is produced next year with the program, as compared to what would have been produced next year without the program.

Hassell reviewed the objectives of the 1962 Wheat Stabilization Program bringing out the fact that one of the major objectives and indicated accomplishment is sent stocks which in the past en's college. have been carried over from one to stabilize the farmers income lege chapel, Jonas Hall. so that he will not be penalized wheat, and for carrying out ap-| from 4:30 to 6:00 p. m. proved conservation practices on this land which otherwise would! have been planted to wheat.

Major Huskins Awarded Commendation Medul

ROBINS AFB. Ga. -Major dith, will play the recital. performance of duty.

Headquarters, Continental Air gram of the new season.

former Sybil V. Wright of 2630 afternoon "Open House." Crawford, Parsons, Kan., have, She is the daughter of Mr. times for 64 yards and Ray pick- KILLED TO DATE means that at least 100 pints four visits during the year. Since it should be made up this time.

A large number of persons have received blood which needs The quota for this visit is set replacing. Every citizen of the at 125 pints. The county quota county needs the protection that the blood program offers. Unfortunately, too many people, possibly not aware of the protection of self, family and community the Blood Program provides, have been indifferent to the constant appeals. Every donation of Raleigh-If wheat farmers in blood enhances one's chances of other states follow the example safely overcoming an accident or already set by wheat farmers in unexpected illness. In contribut-North Carolina, Government ing to the Red Cross Blood Proing and will not impose near such life-saving account for himself, an expensive burden as they have family or neighbor. Everyone Hassell, Jr., Executive Director which is singularly noble while at to divert more acreage from the has been planned. Every member and punted out of bounds on the ters who merely used the Blue production of wheat than the is urged to make a special effort East 30. The big play in the ser- Ridge Parkway as a route to Associational to attend this meeting.

Raleigh, N. C. -Meredith College will celebrate Founders'! Day on Nov. 9, marking its 70th birthday since it was chartered Honored will be those education minded men and women who, kickoff on its own 38 and race f from 1835 (the first recorded the clock downfield to score in this week as Woman of The Week date of action) until the present just four plays. Elliott picked up to stop the buildup of excessive day, rightly can be called the 30 yards in three carries, then wheat, in fact to reduce pre- founders of this four-year wom- Norman Ray rushed 27 yards year to the next. This, he said, nounces three programs of the run for the point was short and would greatly reduce Govern-day, all of them open to visitors: the Panthers held a 20-6 halftim ment storage costs, at the same (1) At 11:00 o'clock Dr. Clyde score time this benefit to overall eco- A. Milner, president of Guilford nomy is being accomplished. The College, will deliver the morning half kickoff for its fourth score final objectives of the program is convocation address in the col-

for reducing his plantings of will be held in Johnson Hall er on a two yard plunge and

(3) At 8:00 p. m. an organ recital will be played in the Recital Hall. Presented for dedication will be the just completed $30,000, three-manual, Austin teaching organ, which has been given by an alumna, Mrs. G. T. Cornwell, of Morganton. Dr. Harry E. Cooper, organist, who now is serving his silver anniversary year as chairman of the de- Banks passed incomplete on the partment of music at Mere- try for the extra point,

Sam J. Huskins Jr., whose mother Two student groups will make resides in Burnsville, N. C., has their first appearance at the down on the East eight yard line. been awarded the United States Founders' Day convocation. Mem- Three plays netted only four Air Force Commendation Medal bers of the class of 1962 will don yards, however, and on fourth in recognition of his meritorious caps and gowns for their first down Fig Newton broke through processional; and the Meredith to jar the ball loose from Jones Major Huskins, a programming College Chorus, conducted by and Horton fell on it at the East officer in the Office of the De-Beatrice Donley, will furnish 11. puty Chief of Staff for Plans at special music for its first pro-

Command, Robins AFB, Ga., en- Beverly Jean Hensley, of Bur- East Yancey defense which allowtered the service in January 1942. nsville, will participate in the ed Crossnore only 91 yards rush. He formerly attended Mars Hill senior ceremonial, and as a mem-ing. East Yancey picked up 342 ber of the senior class, she also gards on the ground with Elliott The major and his wife, the will be an honor guest at the accounting for 153 of them on 17 traffic dats through 10 A. M.

East Yancey Defeats Crossnore 33-6

here Friday night, 33-6.

sured them of at least a break- to reach the hunting areas. ale for both teams this Friday

Danny Elliott keyed the East Yancey win with a pair of touchdowns and an extra point to run his season scoring total to 61 counted for the other Panther Pine, Mile Post 330.

ed Crossnore's lone touchdown the same as last year. However, late in the first half after the hunters are reminded that every daily at 2 p. m. During the winin the past. According to A. P. should plan to donate to a cause Highlanders recovered a fumbled hunter who plans to use a de- ter season, visitors can see the punt deep in East Yancey terri- signated parking area on the famed Kings Palace, Queens he recovered a fumbled Cross-nore pitchout on the Highlander The Singecat Ridge Parking The Burnsville Woman's Club the score. Norman Ray's run for is the only overlook on the Ashe- vacation in the Western states. Telephone Comsigned up to participate. In addi- will meet on Thursday, November the extra point gave the Panthers ville District authorized for hun- Mr. and Mrs. Hensley attended tion, according to Hassell, the 9th, at 8:00 p. m. in the Com- a lead they never relinquished. ter parking.

back Steve Boone ran the extra Parkway or use nid-way in the second quarter Jones cracked for the score. A unloading hunters, dogs, or game their choirs to participate. pass for the extra point failed.

East Yancey took the ensuing through a gaping hole in the President Carlyle Campbell an- Crossnore line for the score. Ray

East Yancey drove the second in just seven plays, with Elliott, Ray and Hoover doing most of (2) The annual "Open House" the damage. Hoover got the mark-Elliott ran the point after to make > Crossnore, unable to move after the kickoff, punted to the East 36. From there it took the Panthers 10 plays to get their final score of the evening. Elliott again ate up most of the yardage with runs of 14 and 24 yards, then circled right end from five yards out for the score. Gordon

> The Highlanders threatened one more time late in the final period as they drove for a first

Newton, Horton, Robinson, Murdock and Buckner led a tight carries. Robinson carried six Monday, Nvember 6, 1961:

Parkway. Permits Now Available

East Yancey punched out two Although all hunting is strictly Mexico touchdowns in the initial period, pro' ibited within the boundaries tlen added one each in the final of the Blue Ridge Parkway, the three quarters to hand winless National Park Service in order. Crossnore its seventh defeat to cooperate as fully as possible Mr. and Mrs. James Ray of Burwith the State Game Department, asville recently made a guided Friday night when Cane River's one time in the now three-year The win was number five for the U.S. Forest Service and hun-tour deep in the heart of Carlsthe Panthers who have dropped ters have made arrangements to bad Caverns National Park in four decisions this year and, permit hunters to park on or southeastern New Mexico. with one game remaining, as- cross the Parkway right-of way. The visitors found the world's > the 1961-1962 hunting season are and the visitors' facilities the now available and may be obtain- finest. ed from any Blue Ridge Parkway Carlsbad Caverns - National Demonstration Club Workshop tams last year. Ranger on the Asheville District. Park, which is drawing for certain specialists was held Cane River goes into this week's points. Norman Ray, Raymond Post 382.4 or at the Gillespie Gap complete (walk-in) tours and Robinson and James Hoover ac- Maintenance Area, near Spruce four partial (elevator) trips. All Quarterback Bruce Jones scor- ing and crossing permits will be 754 foot level. Parkway must have a permit! Chamber, Papoose and Green first East Yancey score when, on way of wildlife within Parkway complete walk-in trip. A special tain. the third play from scrimmage, boundaries is prohibited by strict tour is conducted to these rooms

31. Three plays later Elliott roar- Overlook south of N. C. 80 near and Mrs. Hensley returned home ed 26 yards around right end for Buck Creek Gap, Mile Post 345.3 last week after a three week

Crossnore couldn't move fol- In the past many unnecessary Denver, Colorado. A very informative program lowing the East Yancey kickoff permits have been issued to hunies was a 40-yard scamper around stopping points outside Parkway left end by halfback Raymond boundaries. Hereinafter any hun-Robinson. Robinson got the scores ter who travels the Parkway and November 12 three. The Panthers held them prolibit stoping along the Park- All churches in the association phone officials. three times, but on fourth down way for the purpose of loading or are urged to send members of

WOMAN OF THE WEEK

in the Asheville Citizen-Times. This is the second time in the past November 11, from 8:00 to 11:00 Exchanges and other constructfew weeks that Burnsville has tad A Woman Of The Week. Mrs. Warren S. Reeve received this honor some weeks ago.

Mrs. Pate is Register of Deehs here, also president of the Auxiliary to Earl Horton Post of the American Legion, head of Cane River PTA, chairman of the Yancey County Chapter, American contributed to the 1961 campaign of the Yancey United Fund. Red Cross, acting chairman of the Blood Bank, and works one hour each week during lunch hour as Gray Lady at Yancey County Hospital,

Mrs. Pate is a graduate of Clearment High School and Cecil's Busihess College in Asheville. Ste has two teenage daughters, Barbara and Edna and one son, Kermit. In addition to her job and home and other duties Mrs. Pate is leader of the Junior Training Union, of the Intermediate Girls Auxiliary and a member of the choir at Mt Pleasant Baptist Church, She is secretary to the Yancey County Baptist Association and the County Woman's Missionary Uhion.

ON M.C. HIGHWAYS

RALEIGH - The Motor Vehicles Department's summary of two children, Gary and Kirk. and Mrs. Selwyan Hensley here. 'ed up 49 yards in seven tries. KILLED To Date Last Year 1009 addition of any other organizations which qualify.

Local Residents Make Guided Tour In New

largest cavern indescribably beau- Specialists Visit even season. E. Yancey will meet Blue Ridge Parkway hunter tiful and easily accessible, the Cane River in the season's fin- parking and crossing permits for guides friendly and efficient, in County each afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray and Mr. the Postmasters Convention in

Choir Meeting

point on an option around right hunter parking area will not be A meeting will be held on the ber 7. required to obtain a permit. Na- second Sunday in November at The Yancey County project was two, three and four teams in the Crossnore's score came almost tional Park Service regulations 3:00 p. m. in the First Baptist the first bid to be let and con-Skyline loop. Respectively. require that firearms transported Chursh here for the purpose of struction should start as soon teen will meet Saturday night, of-ways, etc. P. M. at Firth Carpet Company. ion will cost another $200,000.

Glan Raven Mil!

Yancey Hospital

in Yancey County

South Toe School

County Extension Service

The Northwestern Bank

A.S.C.S Office

Post Office

United Fund Honor Roll

100 Per Cent Contributing

Medical and Dental Profession

Yancey County Health Center

French Broad Elec. Mem. Corp.

Roberts Chevrolet-Buick, Inc.

The above list is probably not complete, as solicitors in all cases did not report the per cent of employees contributing. The

Micaville Elementary School

In the following organizations 100 p.r cent of employees have

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hensley &

Maintenance Ar a at Oteen, Mile Visitors have their choice of four tour parties return to the ney, and E. L. Dillingham, Coun- Oak Hill (12-6) and Crossnore ty Agricultural Agent, represent- (33-6). ed the Yancey County Rural Telephone at the bid letting meeting the hands of Glen Alpine (0-34). in Weaverville Tuesday, Novem- Bakersville (0-19), Salem (0-26)

East Yancey-Cane River To Meet Friday Night Yancey County's football cham- field for the game that will close

pionship will be up for grabs for out the season for both teams. the fourth time in as many years | Each team has won the crown Rebels invade East Yancey's home old series. East Yancey won the

HDC Workshop

-The Southern Regional Home in the season's opener for both Rangers can be contacted and a record number of visitors, is in Greensboro last week. In congame with its best record in hispermits secured at the Asheville open every day of the year. nection with the workshop, home tory—five wins and three lossesindustry specialists from Vir- good enough for a third place ginia, Arkansas, Kentucky, North finish in the Pisgah Conference. Carolina, Porto Rico and Wash- The Rebals beat Pisgah teams ington visited Wanda Lea's pot- Hot Springs (33-12), Mars Hill Regulations of the hunter park- surface by elevator from the tery shop in Celo on Wednesday (27-0), Marshall (25-7), and afternoon, November 1, to watch Tryon (14-0) and non conference A camera tour is conducted her demonstrate and tell of her opponent Blue Ridge School for experiences as a potter.

Another craft featured in an exhibit for the specialists were End Tom Horton set up the The hunting and molesting in any Lake Rooms without making the Angus Masters of Green Moun-Clyde (0-26) and runnerup brooms which are made by Mr. the hands of conference champion

After leaving Yancey County, was a 0-13 opening game affair the group visited the Penland with unscheduled Mountain City. School of Handicrafts.

mittee Attend Bid Letting Meeting

-C. P. Randolph, local attor-

when the Highlanders recovered a in vehicles must be empty and selecting an associational choir as details can be cleared with promises a rugged ground battle fumbled punt on the East Yancy cased or securely wrapped, and and to conduct, a practice session. Was ington, according to tele-between two fast backfields. Sam Riddle, an All-Pisgah Conference The low bidder was the Dysart fullback for two years, is the key

Company of Statesville, with to the Cane River attack. The big $362,167.06. Officials of the tele-senior has scored 57 points in Canteen To Meet phone company stated that this the eight games he has played was only the cost of the outside this year. Riddle will have plenty The Yancey County Youth Can- construction such as poles, right- of help from Charles Tedder, John Robinson and Walter Edwards.

Halfback Danny Elliott, a senior speedster, leads East Yancey's ground forces, Elliott has 61 points to his credit so far this year and in his last two games has rushed for 283 yards. Steve Boone, Raymond Robinson and Norman Ray round out the East backfield.

Neither team has displayed a consistant passing attack this season. Cane River has scored four of its 18 touchdowns via the air lanes, two each on passes by John Robinson and Roy Gortney. East Yancey has had only one touchdown pass-a nine yarder against Oak Hill.

Up front, Cane River is led by All-Pisgah selections John Jackson at end and Ronnie Ray, guard along with Albert Crain.

East Yancey's forward wall is manned by Fig Newton, Jim Farm Home Administration office Buckner, Millard Murdock, Tom Horton, Bryon Zuver and Jerry McKinney.

Game time is eight o'clock.

Locals

Rev. Nathan Penland of Asheville is conducting a study course at the Newdale Presbyterian Church each Thursday evening at 7:00 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ramsey and son, Walter, of Hickory visited relatives here last week-end.

Dewey Mitchell underwent surgery in a Johnson City, Tenn. hospital this week.

Clarence Hunter and lis broth-985 Yancey Record will reprint the Honor Roll next week with the visited relatives here in the er Junior Hunter of Hampton, Va. county last week-end.

GIVE TO THE YANCEY UNITED